

DEATH OF CHATHAM LADY.

Mrs. W. G. Clements died at her home in Morrisville last Friday, aged 74 years. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James and the late Mrs. Moring and was born near O'Kelly's Chapel in Chatham county, May 21, 1849. Some of the old residents of that section may remember Mrs. Clements.

WILL BUILD ANOTHER HOUSE.

Mr. Murph H. Harris, formerly of Pittsboro, now of Raleigh, is getting into the building boom of his adopted city. Sometime ago he built a house in Raleigh and rented it for $75.00 a month. Now he has taken out a permit to build another five room house to cost $2,600. Go to it, Mr. Harris, we congratulate your good judgement.

Hair Tonic.—A good tonic for the hair is of salt water; a teaspoonful of salt to a half pint of water, applied to the hair two or three times a week. The effect at the end of a month will be surprising.

SMART LINES

You will find them—not only as exemplified in this particular Parisian model—but in every bit of millinery for Fall which we have received.

Indeed, the very soul of any millinery shop must be the smartness, the exclusiveness of the hats it shows.

Believe it, of course, when we venture to tell you that such hats for Autumn await you here, but it is so much more satisfying and delightful to SEE FOR YOURSELF.
