

POULTRY

HATCHET BEST FOR SICK HENS

Many Reasons Enumerated Why Allowing Fowls Should Be Killed Rather Than Cured.

Approved by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The most reliable and profitable method for curing sick poultry is the Hatchet. At least that seems to have been the experience of a large number of commercial poultry raisers. They feel that it does not pay to spend much time or money in trying to bring a sick hen back to health. One reason is that it takes considerable time, during which the bird will not be laying, and which a sick bird is always a menace to the rest of the flock. However, in spite of the efficiency of the Hatchet as a cure, it is not good business to be careless just because such an efficient remedy is at hand. Prevention in most cases is not difficult and costs little. The poultry flock is subject to a number of diseases, some of which spread rapidly and cause big losses. The birds may also be infested with various parasites, some of which live on the surface of the body and others in the various parts of the interior. Such parasites, whether they are outside or inside workers, are injurious because they take a part of the nourishment which should be used to put on flesh or to produce eggs, and also because of irritation and inflammation of the parts they attack.

Profits Are Greater Where Houses Are Kept in Sanitary Condition.

The contagious diseases caused by germs and the weakness and loss of flesh caused by the larger parasites are the most important conditions which the poultryman must consider in order to keep his birds in health. These germs and parasites can be kept down by suitable preventative measures, and the aim of study of the diseases should be to learn prevention rather than cure. Medicines may be given advantageously at times but as a rule, as has been suggested, it is better to kill the sufferer. There is another reason not yet mentioned that makes the killing of sick birds desirable. Birds that first contract diseases are apt to be the weakest ones in the flock and should be culled out.

The more birds kept on a farm or plot of ground and the more they are crowded the greater the danger from contagion and parasites, and the more important the measures for excluding, eradicating, and preventing development of these causes of disease.

The best way to do this is to secure eggs from a flock that has shown no indication of contagious disease for at least a year. If precautions are taken to keep the eggs absolutely clean and they are hatched in a thoroughly cleaned incubator the young chicks will have a much better chance. They will also grow up with a better chance of escaping disease if they are raised in clean brooders and kept upon ground where poultry has not run for some time.

Sometimes these directions cannot be followed explicitly. If all the available ground has been recently used for poultry, fowls should be taken from that part which is to be used for the new flock, a good coating of freshly slacked lime applied to the surface, and a few days later it should be plowed. Then it should be cultivated three or four times with intervals of a week, and finally sowed to a small grain crop. In a few months the greater part of the germs will be destroyed, but it is better to leave the ground unoccupied by poultry until a winter has passed.

It is more difficult to raise a new flock free from parasites if the eggs are hatched in pens, for hens may carry lice and mites and various parasites. For this reason it is a good idea to select hens for brooding from a flock free from disease and pests.

To keep germs and parasites from developing to a great extent, poultry houses need to be cleaned frequently and the drinking fountains and feed troughs need a weekly washing with boiling water or other disinfectant. If any lice or mites are found on the birds or in their houses, the roosts and adjoining parts of the walls must be painted with commercial carbolineum or a mixture of 1 quart kerosene and 1 teaspoonful of crude carbolic acid or creosote, or the house may be whitewashed with freshly slacked lime.

GOODRICH and KELLY'S Japan FIELD Tires at rock bottom prices as low as 4-1/2 c. Crutchfield's. Moncure, N. C. Oct. 4-tf-c.

SOME SMILES

HIS PROFESSION

She was very curious about things. "They tell me your husband is a hydraulic engineer," she said to her best friend, "but I always understood he was something in the city. I didn't know he was a technical expert, or anything wonderful like that."

"He is a hydraulic engineer," said her friend, "but it's not wonderful. He just waters mining stock."

Fees in Prospect.

"Was your church bazaar a success, dear?"

"Yes, indeed. The minister will have cause to be grateful."

"What were the profits?"

"Oh, there weren't any. In fact the expenses were greater than the receipts. But ten of us girls got engaged."

The Rod in Pickle.

"I am thankful to my dear friend, the policeman, for saving me from getting into further trouble," observed a man charged at Thames police court.

Magistrate—If you're married the real trouble will start when you get home.

A Swanger.

"Can you vouch for this young man you brought to my party?"

"I think so, but why? Surely he has not proposed to your daughter so soon?"

"No, but he wants to give me a $4 check to cover his losses at bridge."

The Farmer's Advantage.

"You cut a face in a pumpkin to make a Halloween decoration."

"You do," said Farmer Cornstossel, "if you can afford the pumpkin. If you live in town, you have to use some kind of paper imitation."—Washington Star.

Considering Health.

"You insist on shaking hands with as many of your constituents as possible?"

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum. "Campaigning interrupts my golf and I need the physical exercise."—Washington Star.

AN UNDERGRADUATE

Mr. Grounding: Here's my apartment. Rather stiff climb—four flights up.

Mr. Winger, the Aviator: Call these flights? Guess you must still be in the ground school.

Eccentric.

There was a famous ath-a-lete, eccentric sort of mope. He did not fill the sporting sheet With autumn baseball dope.

Ears Probably Closed Also.

Mrs. Judd—Science tells us now that we hear much better with our eyes closed.

Mr. Judd—Yes. I noticed quite a number trying the experiment last Sunday evening in church.

A Way Out.

Hub (with newspaper)—I see a judge has ruled that a woman should not spend more on clothes than for rent.

Wife—Well, then, we shall have to pay a bigger rent.

Couldn't Be Literature.

"You were not very complimentary in speaking of Scribner's new book."

"Didn't I say it would sell by the trainload?"

"That's just the point I'm making."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

A Large Order.

"I want a dress to put on around the house," said the lady in the department store.

"How large is your house, madam?" inquired the new clerk.—Hollywood High School News.

A Hen-Pecked Bird.

"What's Henpeck feeling so cheerful about?"

"He's found someone worse off than he; he's just read that the male ostrich hatches the eggs."

They Sometimes Do.

"Hasn't my fiancée a delightful baby voice?"

"I dunno, Algy, I heard her talking bass to her mother just now."

Corrected.

"He's a gent of the old school."

"Pardon me, you mean a gentleman. There are no gents in the old school."

So Many of 'Em Are.

"So you saw the film version of 'The Story of the Three Kings'?"

"Yes, it was a terrible version."

MISS UTLEY MARRIED AT FAIR.

Many Local Items of Interest to Record Readers From Moncure.

Moncure, October 22.—A good number of Moncure people attended the State Fair each day. Last Thursday and Friday were given a holiday at school in order that the children might attend. Some motored to Raleigh, but quite a number went on the special train which left Moncure at 9 o'clock and returned at 5:30. Every one seemed to enjoy the Fair this year more than the year.

Quite an incident happened last Tuesday at the Fair in Raleigh when Miss Mary Utley and Mr. S. D. Creswell left Moncure with several other young people to attend the Fair, but on returning in the afternoon, the news was spread that they were married during the day at the parsonage.

Mrs. Creswell is the charming daughter of Mr. B. J. Utley, of Moncure, who is a prominent citizen both in business and in the church.

Mr. Creswell, who is a civil engineer for the Phoenix Utility Co., is of Badin, N. C. He is a young man of splendid qualities and has endeared himself to the people of Moncure. Congratulations to the young couple and we hope to rthem a merry and happy future. At present they are at home at Moncure.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Todd, of Phoenix, motored to Allentown, Pa., last week. They went through alright without a puncture. Mr. Todd was superintendent of the works at the camp. He has been transferred to a new job in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Milburn, who have been boarding at Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ray's, are now occupying the house at the Phoenix Plant, that was vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Todd. Mr. Milburn has the electrical department in charge.

Mr. A. E. Holder, who had a position with Wade & Co., on the State Highway, has returned to his home at Lillington, N. C., where he has another position with the road workers. Mr. J. C. Norwood has taken his place here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Langford who have been working with Wade and Co., as book keeper, has gone to Townsley, Ala., to take a similar position. The office here has been moved to that place, and everything is now worked through that office.

Mr. John T. Morrison who has been running a garage at Moncure, has sold out to Lockville, where he has taken charge of the garage for Mr. Hurley.

Mr. Avery Marks is now running a garage at Moncure.

Mr. Joseph A. Edwards, who was night superintendent at the Phoenix Plant, left last Monday night for Ontario, Canada. He was accompanied by his wife. The Phoenix Company has laid off its night forces.

Mrs. V. H. Hilliard spent last Monday in Raleigh.

The faculty of Moncure high school spent the week end at their different homes.

Messrs John Bell, Sr., and John Bell, Jr., motored to Chapel Hill Sunday.

NEWS NOTES FROM OAKLAND.

Moncure, Rt. 2, Oct. 22.—Miss Lizzie Clegg is spending sometime with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Henderson.

Wilson Roberson, of Buies Creek, spent the week end with his uncle, Mr. C. D. Burns.

Mr. Paul Eddins, who has for sometime been at Asheville taking medical treatment, spent a few days last week in the home of his uncle, Mr. C. M. Eddins.

Mrs. Cyrus Brown spent Saturday at the home of her parents.

Miss Stacie Eddins and Mr. George Burns visited relatives in Dunn last week.

Several from this community attended the Raleigh Fair last week and all reported a fine time.

Miss Emma Lee Knight left Monday for Edwards Business College in High Point, where she expects to take a business course.

Charlotte—The Southern railway has to pay $31,000 for the death of Robert C. Hays, killed in September at Linwood. A verdict for $32,000 was returned last week for the death of a Mr. Blum. The railroad appeals in both cases.

BUILD A HOME NOW!

STATEMENT

required by the act of Congress August 24, 1912, of the Chatham Record published weekly at Pittsboro, N. C. October 1, 1923.

Before me, G. R. Pilkington, notary public, personally appeared Colin G. Shaw, who having been duly sworn of the ownership and management according to law, deposes and says that he is the publisher, editor, business manager and owner of the Chatham Record, and that Chas. A. Brown is the Managing editor, published at Pittsboro, N. C.

COLIN G. SHAW.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 22nd day of October, 1923.

G. R. PILKINGTON, N. P.

HOLD REUNION ON BIRTHDAY.

On October 20, 1923, the relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Berry Oldham gathered at their home on Cumcock, Rt. 1, to hold a reunion in honor of Mrs. Oldham's 69th birthday. This date has been celebrated for several years and those who have the pleasure of attending, find it a great feast.

Mrs. Oldham has seven living children, twenty-six grand children and eight great grand children—all were present. It is wonderful to see one of her age as active, able and cheerful, and who joins in the social activities of life she does. One never enters her midst that she does not make them feel heartily welcome.

After the morning was passed in "free conversation" Mr. Oldham told the good women who had prepared baskets that the barbecue was ready to be served. A long table was placed in the yard and was laden with every available good thing to eat. The barbecue was especially good and Messrs Oldham and Simerson are to be commended on the preparation of it.

After everyone present had ate heartily a big portion was left. Several baskets were prepared and sent to some who were unable to come. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hart presented the crowd with candy which was most thoroughly enjoyed, especially by the children.

Mrs. Oldham was the recipient of many nice and useful gifts which she seemed to appreciate very much. Everybody went away voting Mr. and Mrs. Oldham the very best entertainers and glad such days come to enjoy being with such good people. May Mrs. Oldham live to see many more birthdays just as happy.

GEORGIA SMITH BLAIR.

NEWS NOTES FROM MT. ZION.

Moncure, Rt. 2, Oct. 22.—Quite a number from this neighborhood attended the State Fair last week.

Mrs. J. W. Griffin returned home from Raleigh last Wednesday where she has spent ten days with her young daughter, Mrs. W. E. Smith. Mr. Griffin spent the last four days with his wife and daughter and attended the State Fair.

Mr. John Thomas has not been quite so well in several days. We hope that he will soon be well and out again.

Miss Eva Brooks has returned home from a visit to her sister Miss Meta Brooks, of Burlington.

There must be lots of 'bossums and some very good dogs in this community. There is one young man who enjoys the sport, takes his dogs and goes for a hunt very often. He brings in five and sometimes seven at one time.

Mr. W. B. Thomas, of Raleigh, spent the week end at home.

Miss Ola Harmon visited her brother, Mr. A. O. Harmon, of Raleigh, last week and attended the Fair two days.

Misses Lizzie, Janie and Callie Clegg Mrs. G. L. Bynum and little daughter, Eliza, spent a delightful day one day last week with their uncle, Dr. Baynes, who lives in a beautiful country home near Mebane.

One of the twin sons of Dr. Baynes died recently, and it was quite a shock to their many friends and relatives. The twins were seniors at Trinity College and would have graduated together at that institution next Spring.

WORKING OLD RALEIGH ROAD.

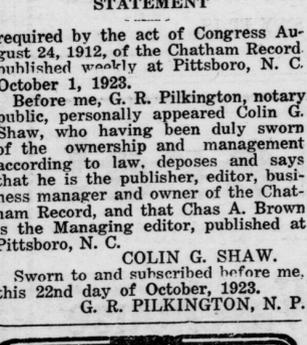

A long felt want is being remedied by road builder Alfred Johnson, with his outfit and force, on teh road leading from Pittsboro to Raleigh to Haw river in New Hope township. Beginning at the corporate limits the road is being widened and graded.

Mr. Johnson will continue this improvement until he reaches the river, and when he completes it, the road will be as good as any leadin gout of Pittsboro.

Mr. Johnson has just completed grading and top surfacing the Goldston road to Rocky river and it is now in much better shape. He will return later and finish the Goldston road from Whites Bridge to Goldston.

None of the aches and pains one gets from a cross-country hike worry him.

SLIP COVER WILL REJUVENATE CHAIR

Slip covers are used, not only to protect furniture, but they may very successfully rejuvenate an old chair or couch which must otherwise be discarded. A comfortable old leather chair which was badly worn is here shown fitted with a slip cover.

R U Superstitious

Do You Believe In Signs

If you do you are a judicious advertiser and a good business man. Judicious advertising Always Pays and especially when you advertise in a paper that is read by everybody in its territory.

?

This newspaper reaches the eye of everybody who might be a possible buyer in this section.

PIEDMONT, N. C.

GET BLUE RIBBON AT THE FAIR.

Horton's Ford Coupe Shows Signs—Local and Personal.

Corinth, October 22.—Most everyone went to the State Fair last week. The weather was fair, and the Fair was fair. The entrance fare for the fair was fair enough but the bill of fare at the eating stands was double fare—25c. for a ham or chicken sandwich is not fair at any fair.

Again for the third consecutive time the Corinth-Brickhaven community got the blue ribbon at the Chatham County Fair, for the most attractive display of needle and fancy work.

The $10.00 worth of tickets, one share in the Brickhaven Community 1924 Chautauqua that the editor of The Record voluntarily offered to take is most gladly received and very much appreciated. Since this a few others have come in and now we need only 15 more names on the required contract. This is a new plan. It is one that should be more satisfactory in every way than the old plan of having to face a deficit. With this plan there can be no deficit. Let's try it out one time. Hunt up T. J. Harrington or F. M. Nash and get your name on the list.

Mrs. C. W. Cross spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Rollins at Duncan.

Mrs. W. A. Allen, of Charlotte, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Clark.

"Ray and Roy" were with us again Sunday.

Something happened to Wayne Horton's new Ford Coupe last week—the top looks like it had been hit by a small sized cyclone, but maybe he just drove it so fast coming home from the Fair one night that the breeze pulled it out of shape. We don't think he turned it over or had a spill of any kind. We will find out and let you know more about it next time.

The three month old child of Mr. and Mrs. Willie McIver died Saturday and was buried Sunday in the J. A. Marks family plot.

PLANT A PASTURE THIS FALL.

Raleigh, Oct 20.—Hundreds of demonstrations made by county agents through the central portion of North Carolina prove the value of grasses and clovers for profitable farming. It is only under very exceptional circumstances that livestock can be successfully grown without grazing and now is the time to get these pastures ready, suggests C. R. Hundson, State Agent for the extension division of the State College and Department of Agriculture. Mr. Hundson says that after October 15 will be most too late to plant.

In making a pasture in this state, Mr. Hundson says, "Various mixtures of grasses and clovers grow well but should be varied according to conditions. The following general formula has proven valuable for the central part of the state: Orchard grass, Italian rye grass and red top, eight lb. each of seed with four pounds of red clover seed for planting an acre. On the damper and lower soils of the more eastern counties 8 pounds of Alsike clover seed should be substituted for red clover. In most of the eastern counties, too, Japan and White Clover make a valuable addition in the spring.

"Of course the seed bed should be well prepared and well fertilized. In most cases lime is necessary, especially where clover is planted. Only poor results will be had with grass seed planted on poor, unfertilized soil. It is not advisable to waste seed under such conditions. Land that will make a bale of cotton, or 35 to 40 bushels of corn per acre, should grow grass successfully. Clover seed should be inoculated with either natural or artificial inoculation. The seed should be sown on top of well prepared soil and covered by a brush or board drag, rather than by a spike toothed harrow.

"Where cotton stalks are ploughed up early enough to cut off the food supply of boll weevils such land should be sown to pasture grass seed or some other winter cover crop. This will prevent washing and leaching of the soil."

HOW TO KILL ROACHES.

Raleigh, Oct. 20.—Roaches can be successfully exterminated in the house pantry by scattering sodium fluoride on the shelves or floors over which they run. This chemical is relatively cheap and can be procured through the druggist. It is deadly poisonous to the roach but only mildly poisonous to man and can, therefore, be used with safety in the pantry, says Dr. R. W. Leiby, of the Division of Entomology of the State College and Department of Agriculture.

"Care should be taken, however, not to sprinkle the sodium fluoride over food or to scatter it within the reach of children. It can be swept up in a week after it has been scattered, but should be reapplied two weeks later to poison other roaches which may have hatched from eggs in the meantime," suggests Dr. Leiby.

One hundred and fifty Club boys and fifty Club girls took part in the contests and demonstrations arranged at the State Fair by the Agricultural Extension Service last week.

PIE PARTY TO BE AT GARDNERS

New Hill, Rt. 2, Oct. 22.—There will be a pie party at Gardners school house next Saturday night, Oct. 27. Proceeds will go for the benefit of the school. Miss Smith, the teacher, is planning to have a short program by the smaller children. The entertainment will begin promptly at 7:30, and the public is cordially invited.

Claud Bland and Charlie Goodwin were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Beckwith, Miss Mary Webster motored to Durham Saturday stopping.

Henry Johnson, of Mebane, was a recent guest of his aunt, Mrs. J. L. Goodwin.

J. H. Webster, of Clayton, spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Addie Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Mann, of Lee county, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Bland during the week end.

Miss Dora Holt is spending sometime in Lee county with Mrs. Walter Gilmore.

W. L. Beckwith, of Apex, Rt. 4 spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beckwith.

Miss Etta Mae Olinger, of Raleigh, Mrs. C. D. Olinger, of Moncure, were in the community Sunday.

NEWS FROM BROWN SCHAPEL.

Pittsboro, Rt. 2, October 22.—A good woman is gone in person, but her influence will live on for good. Mrs. Fannie A. Dark, a sufferer of paralysis for several months, the last two living in the home of her brother, Mr. Tommie Green, passed away last Wednesday, October 17th, and was buried at Browns Chapel Friday, October 19th, where she had been a faithful member for many years. Mrs. Dark was one of our old time shouters and a faithful member of the Sunday school and a good worker in it. She will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Dark was a good neighbor and had a host of friends. She was in her 76th year. She leaves an aged husband, Mr. J. H. Dark, who is over 80 years old.

Rev. J. J. Boone preached his last regular sermon at Browns Chapel last Sunday for the Conference year. It was an able sermon. He will again preach at Browns Chapel on the first Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to be present. We hope Mr. Boone will be sent back another year, if it is God's will.

Old fashioned corn shuckings are the order of the day now. Some good crows are being harvested.

Miss Ethel Lindsay, of Burlington, Mrs. M. T. Crawford, of Fayetteville, Mr. T. N. Mann and family, of Carboro, Mr. R. G. Cheek and family, of Carboro, Mrs. Della Petty and family, of Swepsonville, Rev. C. B. Way, were all welcome visitors at Browns Chapel Sunday.

Mr. I. A. Durham's broken arm is getting on nicely.

Seaboard Air-line Railway

THROUGH THE HEART OF THE SOUTH

Schedule Effective April 16, 1922.

No. 212 8:30 A. M., For Moncure and points north and south.

No. 234 2:15 P. M., For Moncure and points north and south.

For rates, routes and other travel information, call on

H. D. GUNTER, Agent., JNO. T. WEST, D.P.A.,

Pittsboro, N. C. Raleigh, N. C.

The Southern Planter

Semi-Monthly

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

OLDEST AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL IN AMERICA

50 CENTS FOR ONE YEAR.

$1.00 FOR THREE YEARS.

$1.50 FOR FIVE YEARS.

135,000 Twice-a-Month

ADVERTISING IN THE RECORD BRING