Judge Presiding: We, the Grand Jury, beg to leave report: That we have passed upon all bills and papers sent to us by the Court and have duly considered and made return of the same:

We have, in a body, made an inspec-tion of the offices of the county officers and find the same in excellent condition and the records of the different offices, neatly, accurately, and in so far as we could judge, correctly kept: We, by committee, visited the jail. the road cap, the county hospital, and find the jail safe and apparently as sanitarily kept as present conditions will permit. However we found the water system in a bad condition and recommend that it be immediately re- condition.

We found the road camp in an ex- clerk of superior court and the regiscellent condition and the prisoners ap- ter of Deeds are in great need of adpear to be in good physical condition, ditional vault space for the protection well-clothed, and they reported that and preservation of records and that they are given sufficient food and all the office of the sheriff is also in need appear to be entirely satisfied with of more commodious vault room.
