There's Such Thing

as being "too close to the trees to see the woods"—

And too close to one's own business to visualize its larger possibilities.

Oftentimes discussion with an impartial outsider gives birth to new ideas and freshens one's viewpoint.

We don't say we can solve your problems we simply suggest that through our varied Banking and business experience, we may be able to be of practical assistance.

KU KLUX LAWYER IS KILLED.

Was Making Effort to Blacken Character of The Publicity Man.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 5.—Phillip E. Fox, publicity man for the Ku Klux Klan, late today shot and killed W. S. Coburn, Atlanta attorney and counsel for the faction fighting Imperial Wizard H. W. Evans and other officials of the order.

Mrs. W. A. Holbrook, stenographer for Coburn, said that Fox came in while Coburn was talking to a client and began firing when he was told to come back in about an hour. She said five shots were fired, three of which took effect.

Fox is the editor of the Knight Hawk, official organ of the Imperial palace of the Ku Klux Klan. When arrested Fox said:

"I am sorry I had to do it, but I am glad he is dead. He was planning to ruin me, and I had just as soon be hung as hurt. What I did has no connection with the Ku Klux Klan. Coburn had threatened to ruin me and to publish affidavits affecting my character that were untrue."

Anxious to Get It.

Mr. B. D. Woody, who is a good friend of The Record and a regular subscriber, sent us a remittance for a new subscriber this week. He says they are always anxious to get The Record each week.

AN IMPERISHABLE GIFT

When you make a Christmas gift of year's subscription to The Youth's Companion you think, of course, of the first great thrill that comes when those first holiday issues are opened and read. But you are giving more than that. You are giving the assurance of fifty-two more thrills before the capacities of the gift are exhausted. You can't do that with any gift that is made for immediate consumption, like candy or fruit. Today it is here; tomorrow it is but a memory. But The Companion is imperishable. Its last taste, a year from now, will be as appetizing as the first on this coming Christmas day. You cannot put your money to better use or advantage in Christmas giving than in a subscription to The Youth's Companion.

The 52 issues of 1924 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1924.
2. All the remaining issues of 1923.
3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1924.
4. All for $2.50.

Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications, only $3.00.

Papuan Politeness.

A Papuan's idea of courtesy will take him to almost any length. He has been known to plead guilty to a charge of which he was innocent simply because he thought that by doing so he would please the judge or magistrate. Even if he has been told a story two or three times a Papuan will laugh just as heartily and express the same astonishment the last time as the first.

"He wanted me to carry him across the river," said a prisoner charged with murdering another native, "but he looked heavy. Of course, I could not be so rude as to refuse to carry him, so I thought the best way out of the difficulty was to kill him."

Despite their almost insane craving for bloodshed, the Papuans are readily amenable to discipline and have a great respect for the government. A native policeman might succumb to temptation to break the law, but he would always take off his uniform first.

GOOD IRISH POTATOES.

Mr. W. B. Dorsett, Siler City, Rt. 4, planted three pecks of Irish potatoes in the late summer and he dug the patch last week, getting ten bushels of extra nice potatoes, four of which weighed five pounds. Who can beat that for potatoes?
