

OCTOBER MEETING OF U. D. C.

Mrs. Henry A. London Hostess on October 27, 1923.

The Winnie Davis Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy met at the residence of Mrs. Henry A. London, with Mrs. London as hostess, October 27, 1923.

The meeting was called to order by the president with prayer. Minutes of the last meeting, with Mrs. C. C. Poe, were read by the secretary, Mrs. Julian Gregory, and approved. Mrs. Hunt, treasurer, made the following report:

The Winnie Davis Chapter paid for state and general taxes $43.50, on educational quota $21.75; fruit and delicacies and flowers for veterans and sick Daughters, $25.00; for Stars and Bars memorial, $2.00; sinking fund, $1.00; Lee Memorial, $2.00; North Carolina Room in Richmond museum, $3.00; Jefferson Davis Highway, $1; relief of Confederate Women, $2; Cunningham Memorial, $2; Gettysburg, $5; Jefferson Davis monument, $10; tuberculosis bed, $2; best essay in high school on Life of Commodore Maury, $5.

Mrs. J. M. Gregory, chairman of the relief committee reported no sick members during the month. Welcome was extended to Mrs. A. C. Ray and Mrs. W. B. Chapin, who have recently been ill. Congratulations had been extended to Mrs. D. L. Bell upon her recovery.

The Registrar, Mrs. Walker Blair, reported one paper and certificate which had passed through her hands since last meeting.

Mrs. J. C. Lanius, chairman of Memorial Committee reported evergreen wreaths and flags for two Confederate veterans, Messrs. John M. McIver, of Gulf, and Eli C. Brewer, of Bear Creek. Mrs. London stated that she had recently learned that Mr. Bridgers, another veteran, was dead on the same day. It has always been the custom of the Daughters to place over the Confederates, whether a private or a general, an evergreen wreath, tied with red ribbon and a flag.

This being the regular time for electing officers, the following were elected for the ensuing year:

It was moved, seconded and unanimously carried that Mrs. Henry A. London be elected president for life and that she be elected by acclamation. First vice-president, Mrs. W. M. Eubanks; second vice-president, Mrs. J. C. Lanius; third vice-president, Mrs. H. H. Fike; fourth vice-president, Mrs. J. R. Milliken; registrar, Mrs. Jacob Thompson; recording secretary, Margaret Womble; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. M. Gregory; historian, Mrs. Fletcher Mann.

Mrs. Henry A. London then stated that this was more than a regular meeting of the Chapter, it being the twenty-fifth birthday of the Winnie Davis Chapter. This Chapter was organized October 8, 1898, with the following charter members: Mrs. Henry A. London, Mrs. Gideon Alston, Mrs. J. M. Leach, Mrs. W. R. Hunter, Mrs. J. C. Lanius, Mrs. Burkhead Mann, Miss Maggie Horne, Miss Carrie Jackson, Miss Annie Brewer, Miss Lou Horne, Miss Sallie London and Miss Julia Bynum. She further stated that it was at first up hill work. The infant Chapter had to be pushed, pulled, and steadied until it is now a splendid chapter doing fine work for the Confederate cause. She paid a well-deserved compliment to all of the members who had helped her so faithfully to accomplish this end. We have helped living veterans, marked and placed wreaths and flags over the dead, built a beautiful monument, helped in every phase of the state Confederate work, and used our influence to get increased pensions for our veterans, and worked to keep history straight. This is the wonder of our cause that the survivors of the Gray greet the victors of the Blue as brothers. But the idea of forgetting the war between the states is foolish for two very good reasons. The first is that all malice died years ago; the second is that the spirit of the Confederacy and the memory of the men and women of the Confederacy is a priceless possession which makes the South the richest land in the world. When there are no men or women left who call themselves Southerners then will be time enough to talk of forgetting.

Mrs. London thanked the Chapter for its loving thought of her and hoped that we would do still better work next year.

The president called on the delegates to the Greensboro U. D. C. convention for report of proceedings. Mrs. W. M. Eubanks, Mrs. James Griffin, and Mrs. Julian Gregory gave a synopsis of the convention's work. One of the most interesting features was the Jefferson Davis Highway, No. 75, that will run from the North through the South, passing through Pittsboro. The markers will have a red, white and red stripe with Jefferson Davis Highway, a beautiful memorial to our Confederate President.

To do anything we need money which we hope to make at the Bazaar the first week in December. A beautiful collection of articles were contributed, admired and turned over to Miss Evelyn Alston, custodian. Mrs. London appointed a committee to take charge.

The various committees that will have charge of the Confederate bazaar, to be held the first week in December, have been appointed and are as follows:

Bazaar committee—Mrs. J. M. Gregory, chairman; and vice-chairman as follows: Mesdames E. A. Farrell, J. C. Lanius, Fletcher Mann, Jacob Thompson, W. D. Siler, Lee Farrell, Arthur London, E. R. Hinton, Jas. L. Griffin, V. R. Johnson, W. R. Thompson, L. N. Womble, Will F. Bland, W. B. Chapin, J. R. Milliken, H. D. Gunter and Miss Cordia Harmon.

Custodian of articles—Miss Evelyn Alston.

Bazaar treasurer—Miss Margaret Womble.

Chairmen of Children's Booth—Misses Carrie M. Jackson and Margaret Horne.

While singing Confederate songs, a beautiful birthday cake was brought in with twenty-five red, blazing candles, at which time Mrs. London offered the following toast to the Chapter and each member:

"Ladies, come join with me, We will drink to the health of the U. D. C.

Not in wine, for that is not now fine But with coffee strong We will lift our son,

For myself, long life to you all, Be you large or small, And to Winnie Davis Chapter which is twenty-five,

May it always keep alert and alive And always work for veterans true Who did so much for the South and you."

The cake was then cut and served together with other delicious cake and cream with after dinner coffee.

Between the courses a contest of the Confederate battles was held, Mrs. V. R. Johnson winning the prize, a beautiful bunch of chrysanthemums.

MARGARET WOMBLE, Secretary.

SOME NEWSPAPER RULES

A Texas editor recently issued the following rules which explain themselves:

"Fifty cents per line will be charged for all obituary notices of business men who get their job printing in another city; twenty-five cents per line will be charged for like notices to all business men who do not advertise, while delinquent subscribers will be charged 15 cents per line on passing out the New Jerusalem. Advertisers and cash-subscribers will receive the best there is in the shop free-gratis when they shuffle off.

"Those who extend the paper no support whatsoever and go around knocking the editor, or the paper, or lambasting the community and its citizens, drop banana peelings on the sidewalks, spit like a dime, or try to sell us a gold brick, will be given the truth, which won't look good in print when they give up the ghost.

"Better send in your orders for job printing and advertising, pay up your subscription, get to boosting this paper and its editor and speak in glowing terms of the town and its people, for an epidemic of hog cholera is said to be around in this community."

City Papers Auto Crash Lists

Chicago newspapers all conduct a motor-accident column. A big black number in a "box" announces each day to the readers of the Chicago Herald and Examiner how many persons have been killed by automobiles in Chicago since January 1. The number recently given was 519, and right below it was printed the line, "Don't kill the five hundred and two-tieth." For every day of last year 38 persons were killed by automobile accidents in the United States. In 109 cities there was one death during the year for every 1,000 cars registered. Last year 75,300 persons lost their lives in the United States through accident—one death in five being due to the automobile.

Who made electricity?—Ben, Moncure.

Ans.—Jim May at the filling station. Ask him about it. He will tell you how it is done.

What is a tonsorial artist? I keep seeing the word in the papers.—J. J. P., Colon.

Ans.—A tonsorial artist is supposed to be a barber who scrapes your face with a tin razor and asks you if it hurts.

I have never been to school a day in my life but I hear 'em talking about dairymen. What is a dairyman? Henry J., Bynum.

Ans.—A dairyman is a man supposed to run a dairy and sell milk but many of them sell water mixed with milk.

How fast can the average man run? Charlie, Pittsboro.

Ans.—That depends. If he is running from a policeman he might make a mile every three minutes. If he is running into debt he can make a mile every 30 seconds, but if he is running too familiar in another man's home,—Well, you had better not. You might find shot running faster than you.

No Wonder She's Smart.

Elizabeth Benson, age 9, is in high school at New York. At eight Elizabeth broke the world intelligence record by passing the Binet-Simon mentality tests with a quotient of 2.14, the highest ever recorded. Though still a child in years she has a mental age of nineteen years and is rated as qualified mentally to teach high school. In other respects Elizabeth is normal, healthy and strong and eight pounds overweight. Her mother is a magazine editor and her father is a Texas newspaper man. Ah, that explains it.

Americans eat 15 pounds of butter per capita each year.

It Is the Same Here

When a fond parent asked his little son why he was always at the foot of the class the boy replied that it did not make any difference that the teacher taught all the pupils the same things anyway.

Same here. We treat 'em all alike. We give first class service and you will always find us on the job. You are next. Give us a call.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

Southern produce for Northern markets

Carrying the products of Southern orchards and gardens to Northern markets has become one of the most important services of the Southern Railway System.

The tonnage of fruits and vegetables hauled is three times what it was fifteen years ago and double what it was ten years ago, and now equals the cotton tonnage.

Building up this great market for Southern produce, which increases the prosperity of the South, would not have been possible without dependable transportation, and this the Southern has provided.

Transportation of perishable freight on the Southern Railway System is a model of its kind—a special service that emphasizes the fact that the Southern serves the South.

Southern Railway System last year spent in the South $20,000,000 more than it received from the South.
