EDUCATION IS A Great Thing
BUT EDUCATION IS NOT CONFINED TO A FEW SUBJECTS LEARNED IN BOOKS.
Success and happiness in life include education in some of the material accomplishments, and one of the greatest of these is thrift.
No matter how much money we may make it is after all what we accumulate that counts toward a fortune, and toward a surplus on the day when money is needed.
Education that teaches children to cultivate a little bank account is one of the substantial provisions for older days. The boy or girl who starts to form a bit of getting money in the bank has acquired one of the surest insurance against the future.
