

CHATHAM BRIEFS

Wallace Taylor, of Graham, has here on a visit to Mr. Carney Bynum.

John R. Goodwin and family Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Seagraves at Cary.

Susan Morgan, of Raleigh, is Thanksgiving nondays with her mother, Mrs. J. E. Morgan.

Clytie Foushee, of Bynum, is Thanksgiving with her sister, E. C. Yow, at Ore Hill.

Annie Josephine, was in the city and Mrs. Earl Wrenn, of Cary, on Friday, November 26.

Belk, one of our old advisers, is back in this week offering some good bargains. Read the ad.

The Fashion, largest fashion store in Raleigh, has an interesting ad in this paper. It will pay you to read it.

Hugh Barclay, of Baltimore, is here on a visit to the family of his uncle.

The graphophone given away last week by C. B. Fitts at Bear Creek was won by Mr. G. S. Norwood.

Joe Bland, who has been looked at at Graham for several months, returned to Pittsboro to make his home.

Remember the Confederate bazaar at the Club rooms next Friday. Doors open at noon and will be kept open until 8 o'clock p. m.

The Ricks Company at Sanford offering exceptionally good bargains in the Record each week. Read their ad in another column.

Miss Lillie Hill, accompanied by her friend, Miss Everman, of Leaks, has been here on a short visit to her mother, Mrs. N. M. Hill.

Mrs. W. B. Chapin left for Cuba, where the doctor is for a week or two to recuperate after a spell of sickness with pneumonia.

Read the large ad in this issue of Carolina Power Company and if you have any surplus money that you wish to invest to advantage, write to J. Nash at Corinth.

Mont Bland has been in his home for the past two weeks. He has moved down at Seven Springs in Leontown on a big fox hunt. There are 117 dogs after the wily Reynard.

Don't forget that funny minstrel show at the school house in Pittsboro on Friday night, December 7th, at 8 o'clock sharp. You can attend the bazaar and have ample time to go to the play.

C. B. Fitts' big December sale in this issue and you will find some real bargains that you can get for the holidays. You know what it means for Fitts to put on a sale—bargains for all.

Paul T. Farrell left Monday for Hill where he has accepted a position in the store of S. Berman. Farrell will be with Mr. Berman on Christmas and will be glad to see his friends there.

A large congregation greeted the Rev. J. J. Boone at the Methodist church last Sunday morning, it was his first sermon on the new year. All were amply rewarded with a splendid sermon.

W. F. Cheares, one of our regular advertisers, is sending out a nice card for Record readers. Drop a postal card and tell him you are a reader of the Record and want to see him and he will be glad to give you a card.

Mrs. E. R. Clegg are on a visit to his parents, Mr. H. C. Clegg, in Oakland. Mr. Clegg will be stationed here on the Leesburg circuit, having been transferred from Gates. The Leesburg work is in Caswell county.

G. W. Perry, formerly of the age charge, on his way to his work at Weldon, stopped over Sunday with his parents, Mr. S. V. Perry, and will remain in the city. He preached an able sermon in the Methodist church here on Friday night to a large congregation.

man has a page ad in this paper is going to give away a Ford car to the attractive prices he has made for you to get your needs. When Berman puts on it means a big one. He always down all he has in his store, live and let live price. If you go to Chapel Hill, go to see him, get bargains and a chance at the Civil Service Commission has held an examination to be held on Saturday, January 12th, for an eligible to fill the position of rural carrier at Ore Hill and to fill vacancies as they may occur in the future. A standard route is $300 with an allowance of $30 per annum for all over 24 years of age. The examination is open to all, except for the widows of soldiers, sailors or marines, or of such men who are disabled physically by reason of service in the line of duty.

Record Late This Week.

We are sorry to be late with The Record this week, but owing to a big run on ads and a lack of electric current, we could not get out on time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jerome spent a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Henry A. London.

Cotton was selling in Pittsboro on Tuesday at 33 cents. The Raleigh market was paying 33 1-2 cents.

C. L. Brower has a large ad in this paper that it will profit you to look over before you make your purchases.

Mrs. R. C. Griffin has returned from an extended visit to friends and relatives at her old home in Union county.

Mr. George Campen, of Alliance, Pamlico county, has been here on a visit to his sister, Mrs. E. A. Farrell.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Hamilton, of Winston-Salem, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Eubanks.

Elton Stout, after spending a few days in Siler City with his mother, has gone to Macon, Ga. He has been located in Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. Rat Lanus lost a valuable young mule by death last week. He was recently offered a good price for the animal but refused to sell him.

Sunday with her father, Mr. J. T. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cheek and Miss Blanche spent Sunday in Siler City. Miss Ola Harmon, teacher in the school at Gum Springs, spent Thanksgiving with her mother, near Pittsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Justice and daughter, Miss Ethel, spent Sunday afternoon at Mr. I. W. Durham's.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for many kindnesses shown during the illness and at the death of our mother, Mrs. Frances Thomas, and for the beautiful evidences of friendship which will always be cherished.

Mrs. ROLAND STEDMAN.
Moncure, Rt. 2, Nov. 27, 1923.

Carolina Preferred Stock.

We are still selling Carolina Preferred Stock. The kind that is safe and sound. Pays seven per cent annually but pays it quarterly and is tax free to you—has never missed a dividend in fourteen years.

Invest now. Write or call on Frank M. Nash, local representative, Corinth, N. C.

It's the principle to remember the Sabbath day and see that your neighbor keeps it holy.

MARRIAGE OF MR. WILLIAMS.

Mr. Ben Williams and Miss Annie Snipes were married last Wednesday, November 28th, happily culminating a romance of four-years duration and proving that unwavering persistence can accomplish much. Never was a circuit rider more prompt to meet his appointments than Mr. Williams to fill his Sunday afternoon engagements. He had become such a permanent fixture that the whole community grew anxious about him if he failed to be in his accustomed place.

Their many friends wish for this happy couple a long and peaceful journey on the sea of matrimony.

Union school truck is taxed to its capacity—forty-one pupils to be carried each day.

Several of our young folks in school elsewhere, spent Thanksgiving in the community.

RUSTIC.
Frosty, N. C., Nov. 30, 1923.

Never Changed.

"My dear man," said the wife, who was beginning to be exasperated as she undertook to teach her husband the new dance steps, "you learn to drill in the army; why can't you pick this up? It's a perfectly simple step. Any one would think you were mentally deficient."

"Almost the sergeant's own words, my dear," answered the man.

READ THE LABEL ON YOUR PAPER.

YOU ARE LOSING MONEY

IF YOU DO NOT

Take Advantage

of our Going-Out-of-Business Sale.

We Are CLOSING Out

our stock fast

W. L. London & Son

PITTSBORO, — — — NORTH CAROLINA.

Salisbury street from the depot to the western extremity is being scraped and treated to top soil, much to the satisfaction of the residents thereon.

The department of Commerce announces that there were ginned in North Carolina, prior to November 14, this year, 833,925 bales of cotton as against 692,187 for the same date last year.

Mr. S. Berman announces in this paper that he will give a Ford car away and he also tells of many bargains that he is giving in his store. Look up his ad and see the particulars.

Mrs. Moore, Miss Maude Moore, Mrs. Wm. Little Steele and Miss Maude Moore Steele, of Rockingham, spent their Thanksgiving at the summer home near Pittsboro. They returned home Sunday.

Mrs. M. M. Guinn, who has been living in Lamar, S. C., for some time has moved to Durham where she will make her home. Mrs. Guinn has many friends in Pittsboro who will be glad to know that she has come nearer home.

The Siler City school suspended from Wednesday until Monday for the holidays. Pittsboro school began the session behind time and gave only one day. The time lost at the beginning will be made up during the holidays, during the session.

R. L. Baine, a stocking salesman, whose home is in Sanford, was arrested in Raleigh last week charged with entering a private home and taking personal articles from a Mr. Key. Mr. Baine has frequently been in Pittsboro taking orders for hosiery for a northern concern.

Master Fletcher Tudor had a narrow escape from serious injury Monday night, when he ran out from behind a car near T. M. Bland & Company's store in east Pittsboro, and came in contact with an automobile driven by Mr. Atlas Farrell. He received minor bruises, but it was a narrow escape.

The social service committee composed of Mesdames P. H. Elkin, W. S. Edwards, C. K. Wrenn, J. M. Bray, J. C. Cheek, J. C. Lane, Emma B. Siler, Jake Thomas, L. P. Dixon and J. J. Jenkins, of the Woman's Club of Siler City went to the county home on Sunday before Thanksgiving and took to the inmates a large basket of fruit and other donations.

The old town is taking on the appearance of Christmas. All the merchants have had a visit from Santa Claus and their stores show it. Siler City merchants have made an exceptional effort in this particular and one can buy just about what they want for the holidays at home. For your needs look over the advertisements in the Record and trade with those who advertise. you can always count on a square deal from an advertiser. If you do not care to give any of the minor toys or books for a present and looking for substantial things drop in to see London who is selling at a sacrifice price, or see Mr. Frank Nash and buy some Carolina Preferred stock, or any of the merchants who have ads. They will all give you bargains.

COATS

OUR STOCK OF LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDRENS COATS IS KEPT COMPLETE; MADE SO BY DAILY ARRIVALS FROM OUR NEW YORK BUYER. PRICES TO SUIT ONE AND ALL. COME IN AND LET US FIT YOU UP. A WELCOME AWAITS YOU ALWAYS AT OUR DOOR.

Woody Bros. Quality Shop

E. D. Woody, Manager

SILER CITY, NORTH CAROLINA.

LEE HARDWARE CO.

SANFORD, — — — NORTH CAROLINA,

Shelf Hardware.
Building Material.
Farming Implements.
Buggies and Wagons.

See us when in need of something in our line.

DOINGS AROUND GUM SPRINGS.

Pittsboro, Rt. 2, Dec. 3.—Miss Marv Lizzie Harris spent the week end at the home of Miss Evelyn Justice.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lutterloh and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lutterloh spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Ellington.

Messrs Albert Canada, Walter Ray and Ralph Barlev were callers in this community Sunday afternoon.

Miss Pauline Wright, of Chapel Hill, spent the week end with her parents.

Messrs Lee and Hubert Wright spent Sunday with Mr. J. T. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Justice spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonza Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Petty spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Petty.

Misses Lois Perry and Blanche Cheek spent the week end with their parents.

Mr. J. T. Wright left Monday for Philadelphia where he will undergo an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Perry and children spent Sunday at the home of Mr. P. T. Farrell.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ellington and children, Edgar, Jr., and Gilmer, spent

Silverware

For Christmas

We have the best line of Silverware in Chatham County or that has ever been brought to Central North Carolina. We have the twenty-six piece sets or we can supply the individual pieces for your broken sets. Prices are moderate and lower than anywhere else.

We have the Patrician, Bird of Paradise, (50 year) Adam, 1847 Rogers, and the Gee-Esgo, Pearl Gray and all the qualities that you could wish.

No better Christmas or holiday gift and the sentiment is better expressed in goods of quality.

TOD R. EDWARDS

The Reliable Jeweler.

Phone No. 19 SILER CITY, N. C.

Music Soothes the Savage Breast

It takes more than music and pretense to satisfy the hunger of animals and stock and we have just such feed as will nourish them and keep them in sleek and fine condition. There is no doubt but we can serve you at any time because we keep a complete stock of corn, oats, sweet feed and all the stock stuffs that are manufactured and the brands are standard, of high grade and guaranteed. Don't use cheap feed, it is the most costly in the long run.

We are prepared in our Grocery Department to furnish your table at a very low cost with almost anything in heavy and fancy groceries.

T. M. Bland & Co.,

Near Depot. — — — — — Pittsboro, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Clegg are on a visit to his parents, Mr. H. C. Clegg, in Oakland. Mr. Clegg will be stationed here on the Leesburg circuit, having been transferred from Gates. The Leesburg work is in Caswell county.

G. W. Perry, formerly of the age charge, on his way to his work at Weldon, stopped over Sunday with his parents, Mr. S. V. Perry, and will remain in the city. He preached an able sermon in the Methodist church here on Friday night to a large congregation.

man has a page ad in this paper is going to give away a Ford car to the attractive prices he has made for you to get your needs. When Berman puts on it means a big one. He always down all he has in his store, live and let live price. If you go to Chapel Hill, go to see him, get bargains and a chance at the

ROOFING

We have everything that you may want in roofing, whether it be in metal, rubber, or shingles; all grades and all sizes.

Not only this but we have just about anything you want in hardware and we sell at less than most anybody else.

Remember our cooking ranges, stoves and accessories. We have what you want at the right price.

The Chatham Hardware Co.,

UNDERTAKERS and FUNERAL DIRECTORS.

Court House Square Pittsboro, N. C.

Shop at Richardson Brothers Store. Here price governs quality—quality rules price and together they govern the policy of this store. Fresh fruits—vegetables—staple and fancy Groceries, always in season.

We have everything you may need for your Christmas baking, including all the necessary seasoning for your fruit cake.

We have the lowest prices and we ask you to call.

Richardson Bros.,

Phone 42. SILER CITY, N. C. Phone 42.