

PLAY AT BYNUM FRIDAY.

Local and Personal Items of Interest to Everybody.

(Too Late for Last Week.)
Bynum, Dec. 10.—Little Nell Tie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Atwater, spent last week in Durham with her grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Atwater.

Mr. Alfred Lambeth and son, of Jonesboro, Mr. R. B. and Miss Effie Lambeth, with Misses Lindley and Biggs, went over to Chapel Hill Saturday afternoon for the game.

On Sunday following Thanksgiving the Baraca and Philathea class of the Sunday School went over to the county home and carried fruits and candies to the inmates there.

Mr. Wilson Atwater and family, of Greensboro, spent Thanksgiving in the home of R. B. Lambeth.

Mr. Atwater and family have installed electric lights in their store, and there are also some street lights. Before long we hope to have the whole town lighted.

Rev. Caviness, the new pastor on the New River circuit, made a very interesting talk to the school Monday morning.

The school will give the play, "Deacons Dubs," in the school auditorium on Friday evening, December 21. Admission will be 15 cents and 25 cents.

There will be a Christmas tree and short program at the church on Monday night following. Public is cordially invited to both. There will be a Christmas tree and program at Rock Springs Baptist church but the date has not been set for that yet.

Miss Pearl Johnson has returned from a visit to Durham and Dunn. "POLLY."

A Grateful Little Friend.
The editor of The Record has a little friend over at Corinth. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Sexton, and his name is Vance Lea. Occasionally we send him the little fellow a batch of "funny papers" from our dailies, and last week he sent us a nice letter of thanks. We prize the letter highly, and we have asked Santa Claus to be exceptionally nice to him.

We highly appreciate the friendship of any person but we feel more pride in the confidence of children.

Women are said to be more adept in learning foreign languages than are men. That's probably because they are more fluent talkers.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Loyd, of Burlington were week-end visitors in the home of Mr. J. W. Loyd.

Rev. M. D. Hix, a retired Methodist minister, died at his home in West Durham Monday, December 3rd. Rev. Hix served the Goldston circuit during 1911-12.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Ellis of Goldston, spent Sunday in the home of Mr. W. A. Coggins.

Mr. C. J. Rives is visiting in Leaksville and Burlington this week.

Miss Clara Brooks is visiting in Siler City.

OBSERVATIONS.
By Rambler.

"Let me see your tongue," said Dr. Chapin to a young man patient. "Ah! ha! you have the shirt waist tongue. You have no coat on it, but you are all right."

One of our young men was asked the other day what love was. He replied that "love was an itchy feeling around the heart which could not be scratched."

"Preachers look for safety first as well as anybody else," remarked a young lady. "I noticed a car Friday as it slid into a ditch on West Street and was about to turn over, and the first man that hopped out was a preacher. I didn't blame him, tho."

"At last Pittsboro is on a boom," remarked a citizen Saturday. "I noticed workmen were digging up the rotten sidewalk on the north side of West Street. That was the worst sidewalk in the town and has been an eyesore for years. Let's thank the town commissioners for the improvements they are making."

"Young bobbed haired girls are all right," remarked a citizen, "but when married women bob their hair it's all wrong. I knocked on the door of a house here the other day as I wanted to see a person who lived there, when a lady with bobbed hair, a dress cut short at both ends, a stranger to me, came to the door. I said 'good morning, young miss, thinking she was a young girl. Then she turned red in the face and remarked, 'Thank you, I am a mother and have a daughter two years old.' Well, sir, I was so taken aback that I forgot what I went to that house for."

BOYS, IT'S CHRISTMAS TIMES.
Christmas has rolled around again and ain't you glad, boys and girls? We older people are glad for you. But, say, old folks, let's you and I go back to our childhood days again. Have you forgot how you peeped out from under the kiver to see if old Santa had come down the chimney and brought you a present? Don't you recollect how you used to eat so much candy and raisins, peanuts and apples that you could eat no breakfast?

And how we little boys tooted our horns and our little sisters played with their dolls? Can't you turn your mind back and see yourself when Santa Claus came and how happy you were. How happy mammy and daddy were! Can't you see the picture of yourself in your children today? You were happy in your young childhood and you are happy today because your little children are happy.

Ain't it a blessing that once a year we can forget our troubles and sorrows and look back and see ourselves as we see our children today.

Good old Christmas. Happy days for the many kids today, who will be grown tomorrow with their children looking for Santa Claus as we looked for him in our childhood.

But go to it, you old folks. Get young again. Let the women get their dolls or babies and the old men their horns and let's all be young with the children of today.

JOE SNYDER, who doesn't care today whether he has any job or not. This is Christmas.

Jailed in Sanford.
Sanford Expresses.

Sam Dorsett who hails from Chatham County, and Marie Withers, who is thought to have come to this place from Greensboro, were arrested here last Sunday night by officers, charged with immoral conduct. They were placed in the city lockup and given a preliminary hearing before Mayor Fitts Monday morning. In default of a bond of $200 each they were sent to jail to await trial at the next term of Lee Superior Court.
