

MISS MARKS MARRIED.Other Interesting Items From the Brickhaven Section.

Brickhaven, Dec. 31.—The holidays passed off very quietly and pleasantly here. Everyone seemed to be having a happy time, but there was no boisterous conduct. The boys and girls, who are away, came home for Christmas dinner and gladdened the hearts of their parents, thus adding greatly to the holiday cheer.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Kennedy and Miss Ruth Kennedy spent several days last week with relatives at Ahoskie.

Ben Utley of Milettsville, S. C., and Zeb Utley, of Miami, Fla., spent the holidays here with their mother, Mrs. J. W. Utley.

Miss Mary Rose Mims, of Durham, was the holiday guest of relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlowe Mims, of Raleigh, Misses Thelma and Edna Thomas and Nell Yarboro, of Broadway; Mr. Herman Mims, of Durham; Mrs. David Strickland, of Southern Pines; Rev. and Mrs. Dowell, of Franklinton; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Marks, and little Don Marks, of Chapel Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, McCullers; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. June Hackney, of Moncure; Miss Vera Richardson, of Apex, and Miss Kate Richardson, of Louisville College, were among the holiday visitors here.

Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Overby and little Jewell Lane spent several days last week with Mr. Overby's parents at McCullers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wicker spent part of last week with relatives at Colon.

Mr. W. A. Griffin was the holiday guest of his mother Mrs. Griffin, at Durham.

Messrs. Cliff and Albert Mims and Miss Lula Mims, of Raleigh, spent Christmas day here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mims.

Mr. Clinton Seawell and Mr. Wayland Hannan spent the holidays with relatives near Carthage.

Miss Annie Utley left Saturday for Yemassee, S. C., where she has accepted stenographic work with the Howard Lumber Company.

On Thursday night before Christmas the store belonging to E. V. Lawrence and Brother was broken into and over $700 worth of merchandise was stolen. The lower panels to the front door were knocked out and the latch and bars removed from the rear door. No clue to the robbery has thus far been obtained. People who were sitting up with a very sick child at the home of Mr. C. H. Marks not very far from the store, heard three cars stop but nothing was thought of the incident at that time. It is hoped that the burglars will yet be found and forced to suffer the penalty.

Miss Kate Marks and Mr. June Hackney were married in Carthage on Saturday, December 22. The bride is the youngest daughter of the late J. R. Marks, of this place, and is a young lady of splendid character. The groom is the oldest son of Mr. J. J. Hackney, a well-known merchant of Moncure. The marriage is the culmination of a pretty romance, which began when the bride and groom were mere girl and boy. Both young people have a host of friends who wish them a long, happy life together.

A BUSY WEEK.Judge Blair Tries Many Cases—Marries Several Couples.

Magistrate John R. Blair had a busy time last week, not only in trying many cases but marrying couples who came here to get license to marry.

From Saturday, December 22, to Thursday, December 27, he joined eight couples in matrimony. They were equally divided between white and colored.

Four stills were brought to town by officers, two of them being found in Bear Creek and two in Hickory Mountain Township.

At one of these stills, which was captured by H. G. Johnson, a man nearly eighty years of age, and four of his sons, acting as deputies, seven men were seen at the place at work. Six of these were colored and one was a white man. Three of these colored men were later caught, they being Attil Farris, Lessie Emerson, Ben Alston and a white man Ernest Wall. Wall was tried last Monday by Squire W. L. Johnson and was bound over to court. The others were tried last week and all gave bonds for their appearance at January court.

Jim Stover with a reputation as black as his skin, was tried Friday under a charge of disturbing the peace near Farmville. He was fined $50. During the day Sheriff Blair received a message to hold Stover as it was thought he was wanted for murder in an adjoining State. There are two or three more charges against this darkey which will come up for trial this week.

Judge Blair says he wants it distinctly understood that he has not forgotten to put the fines and bonds yet and violators of the law who come before him must expect a heavy bond or a fine.

Severe Indigestion

"I had very severe attacks of indigestion," writes Mr. M. H. Wade, a farmer, of R. F. D. 1, Weir, Miss. "I would suffer for months at a time. All I dared eat was a little bread and butter... consequently I suffered from weakness. I would try to eat, then the terrible suffering in my stomach! I took medicines, but did not get any better. The druggist recommended and I decided to try it, for, as I say, I had tried others for two or more years without any improvement in my health. I soon found the Black-Draught was acting on my liver and easing the terrible pain.

"In two or three weeks, I found I could go back to eating, I only weighed 123. Now I weigh 147—eat anything I want to, and by taking Black-Draught I do not suffer."

Have you tried Thedford's Black-Draught? If not, do so today.
