Listen to only one knocker—Opporunity.

It costs more than double to live a double life.

A flat pocketbook and a flat tire are about the worst combination.

Famous last words—"Watch me pass him on the next corner."

Go to church and learn about the hereafter, or go autoing and see it.

Epitaph: "He didn't have time to stop at the crossing; he has plenty of time now."

Some people have made a decided access in life by attending to their own business.

Health hint to motorists: A lighting bug is about the only one that can get along with just a tail light.

A man is but a worm of the dust when he comes along, wiggles about a while and finally some chicken gets him.

Who can remember the good old days when every man, woman and child in Pittsboro knew how to hitch up a horse.

Often when the wolf comes around the door, says Wrenn Gilmore, he finds the family out driving in an automobile.

Correct this sentence: "It was only a nut that needed tightening and the auto mechanic, and a quarter will be enough.

M. Bland says when the road runner encounters boulders or rocks he does not let them swerve him from his course. Do you?

One trouble seems to be that the girl who has the initiative to make a leap year proposal probably will turn out to be a back seat driver.

Ben Higgins never would be passed,

he bragged his cars endurance.

He passed six cars with backward

glance—

His wife has his insurance.

There are three classes of motorists: Those who know how to use the horn properly, those who view a horn simply as an ornament and those who retain their childhood attraction for noise and lots of it.

An old resident of Alaska had never

BOONE-WOMBLE.

At the Methodist parsonage on the evening of Saturday, March 1st, Mr. Jesse Boone, of Pittsboro, was quietly married to Miss Altie Womble, of Lockville, Rev. J. J. Boone officiating.

The bride is the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Womble and has many friends here. The groom is the son of Mrs. James C. Boone, and is a young man of fine character and sturdy manhood. The happy young couple will make their home with Mr. Boone's mother, two miles north of town.

People who forget to remember invariably remember to forget.

Won in Spelling Contest.

Charles Livengood, a 13-year old Durham boy, won in a spelling contest in Raleigh last Friday over 24 contestants. He spelled three hundred words without missing a single one. The last competitor he had was Miss Elizabeth Keyes, of New Hanover county, whom he downed on the word "cycle."

Rooster: "What makes you think you're an all-round athlete?"
Wild Duck: "I'm not crowing about it, but I can swim, fly or walk, while all you can do is walk."

Damages and Repairs. A negro woman of mammoth proportions and inky complexion was in an automobile accident. She was taken to the hospital where she soon regained consciousness. The doctor came to comfort her a bit, said to her undoubtedly will be able to pay a considerable amount of damages. "Ah, Johnson!" said Mrs. Johnson. "Ah, what wif damages? Ah, what damages now. What Ah is repairs."
