

CHATHAM BRIEFS

Vote early.
Bailey and reform.
Nooe for the legislature.

Vote for Bailey, Person and Reynolds.
If you do not forget to register before Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Boone were recent visitors to Apex, Rt. 4.

Vote for Louie Nooe for the legislature and be satisfied afterwards.

Read the article in this paper about flowers for insurance commissioner.

Reports from all over the state are to the effect that Bob Reynolds will carry the state for lieutenant governor by an overwhelming majority. Let's give him a big vote in Chatham.

There is an old saying that "it is wiser man that knows his own father" and we believe also that it is a wiser man who knows who will be sheriff next November, much less in 1926.

You will find many things in this paper worth reading. Something on every page of it to interest you and we hope you will take time to read and hope thoroughly before the primary on Saturday.

For the information of our readers who may vote in the primary Saturday, we call your attention to "The Citizens Ticket" printed in this paper. All of the candidates named thereon are anti-machine candidates. Use your discretion.

If you must take advice from someone as to how to vote, consult a local man. Don't let the little professional politician sent from another section of the county dictate to you. Look to your friends and those interested in you for advice.

If you have not read the editorial in this paper about the million dollars in bonds that Chatham owes, do so now. It is your duty to be informed. After you have read it, explain it to your neighbor so that every taxpayer will be fully informed.

Mr. W. S. Durham, of Matthews township, who was nominated by the Chatham county republican executive committee for sheriff at the November election, in the place of Mr. June Norwood, has qualified and will run for the office in the general election.

Mr. Carl C. Thompson, of Siler City, complains that our correspondent on page one of that place did not give the correct name of his bride. Instead of Miss Nellie Thompson, it should have been Miss Margaret Thompson, a young lady originally from California, but more recently from near Wessonsville.

From information we get from friends who visit our office and from letters we receive Chatham county will give Mr. Bland and Mr. Hester, the two new candidates for county commissioners, a tremendous majority. There is a great desire to have county affairs in new hands for the next two years.

Mr. Walter A. Horton, who has been running the shoe fly through Moncure as engineer for the past fifteen years, died at his home at Raleigh last week. Mr. Horton has been running as engineer on the Seaboard for 43 years. He was 64 years old. Many in Pittsboro will remember him as having relieved Captain Alston on the Pittsboro line for several weeks, just a short time ago.

There are just a few who have not renewed for The Chatham Record and whose time expired with May. Some of these have sent us letters and told us to continue the paper and they would send in their renewals in a few days. All who do not send in their renewal or ask that the paper be continued will be stopped after this issue. The paper is now strictly $1.50 in advance.

This is our last issue before the primary next Saturday. We hope to be able to print the returns complete in our next issue if it is possible to get them tabulated by that time. From every source over the state comes the word that Mr. Bailey is in the lead and he will win by a big majority. We look for Chatham to give him the biggest majority of any county in the state.

In this paper will be found a card from Col. W. M. Person, candidate for congress. Bailey supporters everywhere are going to vote for Person because he, too, is for lowering the tax. Person has been fighting this tax problem since 1920. He appealed to the supreme court and our readers will recall to mind that a few weeks ago we published his appeal speech before that tribunal. Vote for Person for congress.

We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the marriage of Mr. Clawson L. Williams and Miss Margaret Judd of Sanford. Mr. Williams is solicitor of the courts for Chatham and is a most excellent young man. Miss Judd is the daughter of Mrs. Eugene Judd and is an accomplished and popular young lady. The marriage will take place in Sanford on Thursday, June 12th, in the First Presbyterian church.

Even up in Washington, according to the daily papers, there is great alarm. The "machine" politicians realized that Bailey is going to be nominated and they have sent out the word to every precinct in North Carolina for the workers to get busy. If you "hang" you will hear from them pretty soon. A house of canvas is being made in many particulars and they are desperate, but Bailey will pull through, despite the "machine". Let's vote for Bailey and reform.

Carey and Lila Horton, of Apex, Rt. 4, were recent visitors to Pittsboro.

Miss Emily Taylor of St. Mary's school at Raleigh, is at home enjoying her vacation.

Mrs. Viola Hornady, of Laurinburg, is visiting relatives and friends in Chatham county.

Your vote means much next Saturday. Don't disappoint your friends by staying at home.

Mrs. J. N. Bryan and son, of Apex, Rt. 4, were recent visitors in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jarvis Boone.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hatch were returned from their wedding trip to Washington and other northern cities.

Vote for Bob Reynolds for lieutenant governor and let's have a friend that have our interests at heart.

Our young people can watch for a puzzle next week. We want everyone to be prepared to take a chance at guessing.

Misses Ollie and Alma Dixon and father, Mr. Jacob Dixon, of Goldston, spent a few minutes in the Record office Friday.

Mr. M. H. Harris spent a short time in Pittsboro and the western part of Chatham visiting relatives and friends last week.

Honor the world war veteran, L. A. Nooe. Vote for him for the legislature. We can't afford to vote for one who stayed at home.

Those who shed tears and uttered words of "wisdom" when the boys left for the army, should now vote for Nooe for the legislature. The other candidate did not give his services as a soldier.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morrow, who have been visiting in this section, have returned to their home in Hendersonville. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. J. Jenkins, of Siler City.

Mr. W. G. Fields has bought the Square Filling Station building from Dr. W. B. Chapin. Mr. James May will continue to serve his patrons there, having continued his rental of the property.

Children's Day exercises will be held at Pleasant Hill on the third Sunday in June, being June 15th. Dinner will be served on the ground and the public is invited to be present, and to carry a basket.

Mr. Monroe Bland delightfully entertained a number of his friends Thursday night, May 29th, at the home of Miss Mary Bland. After playing interesting games, Miss Bland served delicious cream and cakes.

The Siler City Fair will be held on October 7th to 10th and the State Fair follows on October 13 to 17. Be ready to have an exhibit for each of them. Make your plans to do this while you are planting your crops and canning your fruit.

Little Etta Goodwin, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Farrell, was bitten on the foot by a highland moccasin snake one day last week. While the effects of the bite was painful, no bad results have followed. She has entirely recovered.

His friends will be glad to learn that Mr. Charles Burns, of Oakland township, whose leg was broken just above the ankle, when a cross tie he was loading slipped and fell on him some time ago, is able to walk about his home with the aid of crutches.

R. B. Reeves of Pitt county, county agent there, reports that C. C. May, of Grifton, set 200 eggs in January and hatched 170 chicks. He raised 165 to nine weeks of age and sold the entire lot for $118.25. His total expense was $54 leaving a net profit of $64.25 which is a profit of 39 cents per bird.

The Chatham Record will not at any time intentionally make a false statement. We always endeavor to state facts, and as we have often printed, this paper is always willing to be corrected. We will gladly give our columns to any communication to this effect. We are not morally responsible for statements made by our correspondents, but we stand squarely behind them at all times.

So they intend to harass the editor by threat and withdrawal of patronage? Well, folks, and statement that we may make that will boomerang us, will be taken with as much pleasure as we would a dose of castor oil, but there is one thing that we shall never do. That thing is to submit to a minority dictation when we know that we are right. It may become necessary to let the sheriff tack a bill of sale on our front door, and we can be jeopardized, but our spirit will never be conquered. The only actual schooling that we ever received, was in a little one room school house down in Cumberland county, of a very few weeks duration, but we learned one thing and that was "be sure you are right and then go ahead."

The Children's Home Society, at Greensboro, sends The Record a report of the work done by them for the month of May. It is indeed creditable the showing that is made by this institution. They have saved more children within the past few years than any other like infirmity in the south. The Society now has 18 boys and 21 girls to be placed in christian homes in North Carolina, ranging in ages from 2 months old to 12 years of age. Applicants are solicited for homes for this orphan and unfortunate children. Those desiring to adopt them must agree to give the child full advantage of educational and religious facilities; furnish three references, one of which must come from the pastor of their church and the child must be accepted as a member of the family and given love and protection. Anyone interested in taking one of these children may write to John J. Phoenix, Children's Home Society, Greensboro.

Mr. W. B. F. Johnson, of near Asbury, was a visitor in Pittsboro during the week.

Bailey will win in Chatham county by a large majority. The county is overwhelmingly in favor of Bailey.

J. Bailey Gilbert, Siler City, recently subscribed for The Chatham Record. He writes that it is the first time he ever subscribed for The Record and he likes it fine.

Miss Lelia Justice, of Hadley township, spent the week end with Mrs. S. C. Foster and family, near Bells, and was accompanied home Sunday by some of her friends of that community.

Inasmuch as Mr. Hackney has withdrawn from the race as county commissioner, everybody should support Mr. E. E. Wilson, present commissioner, along with Bland and Hester, so that each section of Chatham will have representation.

The Durham Morning Herald will have headquarters at The Record office next Saturday afternoon and will get the returns from the election in Chatham and also from the state at large, until a late hour on Saturday night. The price of admission is 10 cents for children under ten years of age and 20 cents for adults, plus the war tax for the grown people, of two cents.

Fish Fry at Buckhorn Honoring Little Miss Louise Nash.

Corinth, June 2.—Mr. Ray Cross and Miss Clyde Snipes, of Raleigh, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cross at Corinth.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Dickens, of Raleigh, spent Sunday with relatives at Corinth.

Mrs. C. W. Cross and Miss Carrie Lee Cross are spending a day or so with Mrs. R. O. Buchanan at Jonesboro.

Miss Audrey Cross is spending a week with relatives in Durham.

Mrs. R. A. Chappelle suffered a badly sprained ankle at her home near Corinth last week and is not able to be about for awhile.

Miss Helen Thomas, of Raleigh, is making an extended visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Nash at Buckhorn. Helen is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Clair Thomas, who most people will recall was often among us in connection with the community service work a year or so ago.

On last Tuesday after the rain had let up, a dozen little girls and young ladies of the neighborhood enjoyed a fish fry at Buckhorn in honor of Louise Nash, on her 11th birthday, and incidentally in honor of Miss Hilda Utley, of Brickhaven, on her 11th birthday. Those in attendance were: Hilda Utley, Eunice and Frances Thompson, Ruth Kennedy, Louise Harrington, of Brickhaven, Elizabeth and Esther Stephenson, Zephie and Clyde Cross and Eloise Mims, of Cozith and Helen Thomas, of Raleigh.

A delegation from the Evangelistic Club of Sanford, visited Buckhorn church Sunday afternoon and spread real, genuine religion, joy and enthusiasm in a way that has seldom been seen in the old church. All the talks were from laymen—some who three months ago had never thought of attempting such a thing, and they were good talks. They brought a response from the people that is seldom witnessed, except in the fervor of a revival meeting. Come again, gentlemen, you are doing a good work and will be welcome anytime. The group conducting the service was composed of Messrs Palmer, Moffitt, Farley, Gilliam, Beverly and Dr. Matthews.

Last Saturday night a party was given by Mrs. W. J. Stephenson at their home in honor of their daughter, Elizabeth, on her 14th birthday. Ice cream, cake, apples, candy and a good time were enjoyed by all those attending. Those present were: Zeb and Louise Harrington, Eunice and Frances Thompson, Ruth Kennedy, Harvey Skipper, Lawrence and Zephie Cross, Charles Cross, Leo and Hugh Buchanan, Louise Nash, Helen Thomas, Earl, Gilbert and Esther Stephenson.

Sadie Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Clark, underwent an operation for tonsils and adenoids at Badin last week, which proved to be quite serious but this morning the little girl is reported doing nicely.

Last week's Record carried an article, copied from a Greensboro paper that has caused some comment. It was clipped and sent to the parties most interested. The article in question was a Greensboro paper's unguarded and harsh editorial treatment of a sermon on crime by a Raleigh pastor who had the facts and knew what he was talking about. We happen to know that when Mr. Hudson had completed his fearless exposure of the sordid lives of some of the members of his own church, he was then and there accorded the hearty approval of the active membership of his own congregation. The exposure was not of the city of Asheville or the people of Charlotte, not even the members of the Baptist churches of Greensboro, but of Raleigh—the pastor's own town, his own church, delivered from his own pulpit and to the members of his own congregation—his own flock. Then the Greensboro paper stands off in the distance in total ignorance of the facts and conditions, throws up his editorial hands in holy horror when Mr. Hudson says he cannot censure a group of fearless, determined citizens for "beating the hound" out of degenerate men that know no moral restraint, that do not hesitate to practice their infamy among the members of the pastor's own church—men that stand ready to take every advantage of any young woman church member that they can lure into their clutches; men that the law never did, never can and never will control.

If the unfortunate church member victims in question happened to be members of the editorial writer's own church or acquaintance, we wonder what his attitude would be then.

It so happens that this morning's Raleigh paper carries the lurid account of the arrest of a minister of the gospel, of a church in Greensboro—the editor's own home, on charges of immorality. So this week he will not have to go outside of his own city to find some church scandal to write about. We wonder if he will feel inclined to write in abuse of any organized group of christian citizens who would put a stop to such immorality in his own town?

Misses Gladys and Pattie Stone, of Apex, Rt. 4, have been visiting Miss Ruby Hunt near Chapel Hill.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS. Last Sunday afternoon Mrs. Bennett Nooe, was stricken with paralysis at her home here and for awhile it was thought she would not live through the day. Even at this time her condition is precarious and little hope is entertained for her recovery.

Mrs. Nooe has been in feeble health for several weeks, especially since suffering an injury from a fall a short time ago, during her stay in Allendale, S. C. Soon after going to South Carolina, Mrs. Nooe improved greatly in health and she enjoyed the best of health until she received her injury.

She had yearned to return to Pittsboro for the past few weeks and had just moved back with Capt. Nooe and her boys, reaching here on Friday. The hundreds of friends of the family sorely sympathize with them in the illness of Mrs. Nooe.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF CHATHAM COUNTY.

I am much gratified at the almost unanimous support assured me by the representative men of the Eastern counties without regard to state or local factions, and I shall very much appreciate a big vote in Chatham. I feel that the backing of such men as John A. Oates, McGougan, McNeill, of Fayetteville; Carr, Judge Roundtree, of Wilmington; Ward, Judge Guion, Thomas and Dawson, New Bern; the Connors, Finch, Lucas, Wilson and scores and scores of other representative men in my section are sufficient vouchers both of the progress of my campaign and of my ability and character. Accordingly, I frankly ask you for your support for Commissioner of Labor and Printing, and assure you that it will not only be appreciated, but also that I shall do my best, if elected, as I expect to be, to prove that you have made no mistake.

Respectfully, O. J. PETERSON. Clinton, May 20, 1924. jun3.p
