

CHATHAM BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Dorsett and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Horton represented Pittsboro at the Pat Harrison speaking in Raleigh Thursday evening.

The Oxford orphanage singing class gave an enjoyable concert here Wednesday evening of last week. The income to the orphanage was considerably more than $100. A big crowd enjoyed the program.

Mr. J. L. Creed was a rainy day caller Monday. We are glad to have an opportunity to meet the good citizens of the county. Come in and make yourselves known. Mr. Creed came to Chatham from Surry County four years ago.

Sunday night the street lights were out and a thief or thieves took advantage of it. The store of Boone brothers was broken into and a few pennies left in the cash drawer were missed. The rogues seemed to be after money only.

Mrs. Walter D. Siler is home from a Richmond hospital where she has been for treatment the past several weeks. Mr. Siler went up to Richmond Friday, having stopped over in Raleigh to hear Pat Harrison, and returned with Mrs. Siler Sunday.

We are holding a few subscribers who under ordinary circumstances would have been cut off. The scarcity of money and the bad weather justify us, we hope, in retaining their names till some cotton is sold. But let them be as prompt as possible, and if any are not expecting to renew they would help us and those who are by dropping us a card to that effect.
