

CHATHAM BRIEFS

Child of Norman Murray, colored, father suddenly last week.

Paul Farrell has returned from pleasant visit to relatives in Tarboro.

Rain fell here Monday. Robeson Creek was higher than it has been for years.

Party of amusement and entertainment for you and the kiddies next at the county Fair, at Siler City.

Loula Jones and Miss Emily returned Sunday from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Holder in Durham.

Member of the Presbyterian church died Tuesday from Spray, where he conducted a week's revival service.

Alexander Wall, colored, caught a ground turtle in a rabbit box last night. That was an unusual thing.

Chas. Farrell left Sunday for Fayetteville. He has had a week of preliminary work at the university.

Elizabeth Burns, of the High School Hospital, Fayetteville came Sunday to visit her mother, Mrs. Burns, who was sick.

Miss Carrie M. Jackson and Mrs. A. London returned from a visit to Mrs. London's daughter Mrs. H. Anderson in Fayetteville.

Mr. J. J. Boone, pastor, will conduct services at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, at Mt. Zion in the afternoon.

Rufus Farrell carrier on route had a break down Thursday and accounts for failure of Record subscribers to get the paper Thursday.

H. M. London will deliver the address to the addresses of welcome to the Daughters of Confederacy at meeting in Rocky Mount Oct. 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Thompson returned to Charlotte N. C. after their visit to Mrs. Thompson's uncle, Lewis L. Woody, Mrs. Thompson formerly Miss Grace Woody.

L. C. Cooper, who recently returned from Bynum to Greensboro, has been running a cedar mill for C. Brown & Co. is finishing up at Bynum.

Reception to be given last Thursday evening at Mrs. W. P. Horton's home. The teachers were indefinitely postponed because of inclemency of the weather. Later the reception will be given Monday evening. Every one invited.

Goldston correspondent asks for opinion of an item in last week's news, to the effect that Dr. Fields has moved into a new house and that Mr. — — Fields is running a grocery business in the old house. At least this is the best we understand over the telephone.

Sheriff Blair, after mature deliberation, has decided to give a 50-50 decision in the case of Kennedy and Williams vs. Henderson, which was a matter as to the ownership of certificates. The hearing occurred some time ago and lasted for eight days. Each party got half the cross-examination and half the other costs.

Mr. Shover, of Harrisonburg, Va., and Sheriff G. W. Blair, of Pittsboro, formed a partnership in the live stock business. They now have a carload of Virginia and Tennessee mules on hand here that they offer at sale. On Tuesday of court Tuesday, October 21st, these mules will sell a carload at auction. It is their purpose to keep 25 to 50 head on hand at all times. Mr. Shover is an experienced stock raiser, having spent some 25 years in the business and few men know Sheriff Blair as a judge of good stock. The firm has an ad in another issue of this paper, read it.

New buildings on the new site greet you at the Chatham County Fair next week.

HIGH WATER STOPS TRAINS.

Southern railroad officials announced last night that the track between Selma and Goldsboro had been abandoned at 9:15 o'clock Wednesday night on account of high water which was even with the track at Little river, two miles west of Goldsboro, at 9 o'clock. The river was still rising late last night and was expected to continue rising until noon today.

Southern trains between Selma and Goldsboro are being routed via the Atlantic Coast Line.

MOVING DAY.

Mrs. Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carroll are moving out of Mrs. Hayes' residence and will occupy rooms at the Exline Hotel. The editor's family will occupy the Hayes home. Mrs. McManus has moved out of the "Jake Thompson House" and is, for the present, with a niece in Goldsboro. She will move later to Greensboro.

Saw Carolina Wake Forest Game.

The following Pittsborians traveled to Wake Forest Saturday to see the Carolina-Wake Forest football game: Messrs Dewey Dorsett, J. N. Peoples, W. L. and A. H. London, Jr., D. B. Nooe, Prof. Shirley Waters, J. L. Griffin, Mrs. Griffin, Miss Skinner, Sarah Griffin.

You can park your car in safety this year at the Fair at Siler City, October 7-10.

HERNDON FAMILY REUNION.

Chapel Hill Weekly.

The Herndon family, well known in this part of North Carolina, had a reunion at the Tom Herndon home in Chatham last week. There were 121 people present. Postmaster De Witt Herndon, his wife, mother, sister, and brother; the J. P. Nesbitt family, and the Walter Booth family went from Chapel Hill.

OUR SANFORD ADVERTISERS.

Every visit to Sanford confirms the impression that that growing town will ere long be a considerable city. Its location, together with its superior railway facilities, coupled with the enterprising spirit of its business men, makes steady growth practically inevitable. Positively, we have never met a more friendly, gentlemanly and forward looking group of business men than those of Sanford, and there is no clearer indication of the enterprising spirit of the town than the readiness of its merchants to spend money in advertising, a readiness to which our columns abundantly testify.

The Carter Furniture Company.

One of our stand-bys is the Carter Furniture Company. Here Messrs. Carter and May are the proprietors—both fine business men. They have built up a fine custom in Chatham county. Mr. Ben May makes weekly trips to Chatham, bringing truck load after truck load of their goods to their Chatham customers. We find our citizens have the highest confidence in the fairness and integrity of this firm. A survey of the stock Thursday convinced us that the firm is prepared to fill any immediate demand on the part of the trade for anything from the cheaper grades of furniture to as fine as any reasonable customers desire.

Dalrymple, Marks and Brooks.

These gentlemen have a fine line of men's and boy's clothing and are inviting your patronage in this issue. You will find them very pleasant gentlemen and their goods, we believe, thoroughly reliable.

The Page Trust Company.

This old reliable banking firm, with Mr. Jones in charge of the Sanford business, will present its claims for Chatham business to our readers in early issues. It has the capital and the facilities to serve our people, while its management is as clever as the cleverest.

Perry's Garage.

This firm is a regular advertiser in the Record and it will be a favor to us for our readers when in Sanford and in need of garage service to remember this reliable place. It is easily accessible.

Williams-Belk Company.

Very seldom does an issue of the Record appear without an advertisement of the good firm of Williams Belk Company. This firm has just secured a new manager in the person of Mr. Simmons, who comes from Wilmington. He is a capable young man, of experience, and may be expected to push the business forward. Always read their ad.

Stein Brothers.

This long established Fayetteville firm has opened an elegant establishment in Sanford, with Mr. Lazarus in charge as resident manager. See their big advertisement in this issue.

Casey's Warehouse.

Sanford has two open market tobacco warehouses. Casey's is asking you to bring your tobacco to it. The editor found the proprietors exceedingly genial. He noticed prices on tobacco sold and considered them quite good, considering quality of the leaf. The Sanford market should get no small share of the Chatham tobacco.

Lee Furniture Company.

We have previously written our conception of this company and a second visit, Thursday, confirmed our good opinion of the firm. See their advertisement.

Isaacson's

This emporium of ladies goods and millinery will keep its claims for Chatham trade before the readers of the Record. A glance over the millinery department would charm any of our lady readers.

Lee County Hardware Co.

Another strong, reliable firm that invites your custom is the Lee Hardware Co. Remember them when you buy hardware in Sanford.

BUILD A HOME IN PITTSBORO.

We call attention to two farms offered at bargain prices this week.
