

Town and County Briefs

Whoever took the upholstering out of our old coupe had mighty little regard for meum. Mr. P. T. Farrell tells us that Mrs. Farrell and two of the children have been quite ill with influenza, but are now up. Mayor and Mrs. A. C. Ray visited their daughter, Mrs. J. E. Well, at Rocky Point, Pender county, the first of the week. Mr. Well is manager of the Hugh McRae stock farm near Rocky Point. Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Poe and Mr. C. H. Lindsey visited Mr. A. P. Poe at the Chatham church community is quite ill. Mrs. H. A. Bondora and Miss Carrie Bondora attended the district meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy at Rocky Point Tuesday. A number of other Pittsboro ladies had planned to attend but were prevented by the inclemency of the weather. Mr. John Obie Harmon of Chapel Hill met the week-end with his sister, Mrs. Cordie Harmon. Fland and Mr. Roe Bland went fishing at Buckhorn last Thursday night. A bump of a truck by the cars at the depot Tuesday did no damages but indicates that folk should be careful at the railroad crossing there.

Wisconsin Man Buys Home Here

Mr. Ferebee of Milwaukee, Wis., spent a few days in Pittsboro recently with his wife. They bought the old Denison place opposite Mr. A. H. London's, and will remodel the house and occupy it some time in the near future. Mr. Ferebee helped lay out a railroad to go through Pittsboro twenty odd years ago, and has always since then wanted to make his home here. He is a member of the American Society of Engineers, and a successful contracting engineer. They have two sons ready to enter college. Very desirable new neighbors and citizens the Record would say.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore of Smithfield, N. C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Susan, to Mr. John Bryan Havens Bonner, of Siler City, N. C. The wedding will take place in June. The announcement is of special interest throughout the State where Miss Moore and Mr. Bonner are widely and favorably known. Miss Moore is a charming young lady, a graduate of Peace Institute, and at present a member of the faculty of the Laurinburg High School. Mr. Bonner is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Bonner, of Raleigh, a graduate of the University of North Carolina and is connected with the High Point Bending and Chair Company, of Siler City, N. C.

MRS. CATHELL BEREAVED

Mrs. J. E. Cathell, of Moncure, has recently been bereaved by the death of her brother Mr. Gray Sowers, who died at Spencer on March 27, after suffering two years from cancer of the liver. He was 38 years old and was most highly esteemed where he was known. He was a member of the Churchland Baptist church and an active worker, being superintendent of the Sunday school at that

With profound gratitude to you for the generous support heretofore given me in the primary, and for your loyal aid and cooperation during the one term I have served, I solicit your active support for a second term. In the crusade against crime our cause has grown stronger. With a little of the same enthusiasm, we shall again have a great victory, and I pledge myself to continue to discharge the duties of Solicitor and vigorously prosecute crime, to the best of my ability. Respectfully, CLAWSON L. WILLIAMS.

RUPTURE

EXPERT HERE F. H. Seely, of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will personally be at the Washington Duke Hotel, and will remain in Durham Thursday only. Mr. Seely says: "The Sprague Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Being a vast advancement over all former methods—eliminating instantaneous effects immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position no matter the size or location. Large or difficult cases, or incisional ruptures (following operations) specially so-called. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions. CAUTION—All cases should be treated against the use of any elastic or web truss with understraps, same rest where the lump is and not where the opening is, producing complications, necessitating surgical operations. Mr. Seely has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. He will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fee them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section. N. B.—Every statement in this notice has been verified before the Federal and State Courts.—F. H. SEELY, Home Office—117 N. Dearborn St., Chicago P. S.—Fraud Warning—Many complaints have reached me from dissatisfied purchasers that certain parties have been traveling about under misrepresentations—imitating my ads and claiming to be associated with me or my establishment. Substituting an inferior imitation for my goods and improperly fitted, all of which is false and fraudulent and an imposition on the purchaser.

Mr. Seely will also personally be at the Sir Walter Raleigh Hotel, and will remain in Raleigh Sunday and Monday only, April 18-19. Mr. Seely says: "The
