

Town and County Briefs

The editor is sorry to learn that Mr. J. M. Marley of Siler City continues in bad health. He has been a-gain confined to his home after recuperating from a more serious illness during the later winter.

Miss Ruth Berry, accompanied by Mrs. Frank May, spent the week-end at her home in Statesville. Sunday Mr. George May, and Misses Etta Crook, Ethel Howell, and Ollie Berry motored to Statesville and returned with Miss Berry and Mrs. May.

Mrs. J. L. Griffin, president of the Pittsboro woman's club, and Mrs. J. M. Gregory, delegate from the club, are expected to leave today to attend the annual convention of the federation of woman's clubs in session at Asheville.

The music department of the woman's club met at the home of Mrs. V. R. Johnson Monday evening. Quite a lively discussion ensued, after which the hostess served ice cream and cake.

Cap Sanders and Joe Bryan are to answer before Mayor Ray next Saturday for possession of a jar of booze in a car they were driving Monday.

The promised rain for the early part of the week turned out to be too scarce to soften clouds. Another cool spell is doing its part to delay farming operations.

Mrs. O. W. Hamilton, of Winston-Salem, and little Bill, are visiting Mrs. Hamilton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fubanks.

Mrs. C. C. Hamlet was hostess to the civic department of the woman's club last Friday. After the business session the hostess served a delicious salad course. There was a large attendance and the occasion was a very pleasant one. The club expressed its desire that a stop in some way should be put to dumping of rubbish on the border of the highways. They suggest that landowners forbid such dumping.

The Record begins today the publication of a most interesting series of advertisements of the Perfection Oil Stove, also of single column by six famous cooks. Don't miss them, ladies. You can see the Perfection at the Chatham Hardware Company's store in Pittsboro, of the Hardware Store, Inc. Siler City.

The big advertisement of the Carolina Power and Light Company sets forth somewhat of the progress and development of that progressive corporation. It is destined to be one of the great institutions of the South, and one can hardly make a mistake in purchasing the stock they advertise.

The failure of the names of Messrs. Horton and Dorsett to appear in the list of senatorial candidates reported from Raleigh led some fear that they may have failed to make their proper registration, but it turns out that in a district in which the senators are allotted to the several counties as in this one the candidates for senator have to file only in their respective counties.

Messrs. W. B. Cheek and G. C. Poe went over to Bonlee commencement yesterday to hear the address of Rev. W. D. Moss, of Chapel Hill, and incidentally to look after their political fences.

Mr. J. O. Brown came in Wednesday from his new home in Harnett. He has a big crop started down there. Thirty-five acres of cotton is up; he has worked one field of corn, and has ten acres of tobacco to set. He is much pleased with Harnett farm lands.

Fear, Love, and Cow in Drama of Prison Escape

Ossining, N. Y.—Fear, love and a cow figured in the drama of Lawrence Hawthorne's escape from Sing Sing prison and his return to serve a sentence of 39 years.

Hawthorne fled from the prison because he feared another convict, he explained. The cow furnished him with food while he hid in a woods for ten days.

The convict went to Hollywood, Cal., where he got a job in the "movies." He fell in love with a girl who jilted him. Then he returned to prison to complete his term.

DOLLING UP THE HUMBLE POTATO

Four Unusual Recipes by Four Famous Cooks

Don't think that after you've served potatoes mashed, creamed, and fried you've put them through all their paces. You don't have to begin repeating the old story. There are many delightful ways of preparing the humble spud, as several famous cooks have discovered. They actually glorify this homely American vegetable.

Mrs. Belle De Graf

Tampala Potatoes

Tampala Potatoes. Doesn't the very name make your mouth water? This delicious dish, prepared from left-over potatoes, is a favorite with Mrs. Belle De Graf, San Francisco home economics columnist and writer.

Chop fine 2 cups cold boiled potatoes. Add 1/2 cup of cream, and salt and pepper to taste. Pack very solidly in buttered custard cups, or muffin pans. Set in a pan in a very hot oven. Bake 30 minutes, or until golden brown crust has formed which will hold the potatoes together. Turn out in individual molds.

Baked Potato "Tips"

Mrs. Sarah T. Rorer, Philadelphia cooking expert, adds two or three artful touches to baked potatoes which make them taste unusually good.

"After scrubbing large, perfect potatoes, I soak them an hour in cold water," she says.

"I bake them on the upper grate of a medium oven, and turn them after 20 minutes. I let them bake another half hour, or until they feel soft when pressed in a napkin.

"Never try them with a fork, for this allows the steam to escape and makes them heavy. Serve in a napkin at once.

"The secret of good baked potatoes is a slow oven; for a hot oven hardens the skin at once and makes the potatoes soggy."

Stuffed and Browned

Miss Margaret Allen Hall, nutrition expert at the Battle Creek College of Home Economics, has a decided preference for stuffed potatoes. She fixes them like this:

- 6 medium-sized potatoes
1/2 cup milk or cream
3 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon salt

Select well-shaped potatoes about equal size. Boil until soft, then cut or break each potato at about the middle. Remove the contents, mash, add salt, butter, and sufficient cream or milk to cause the potato to beat up light. When very light, fill skins with the seasoned potato, piling it up in irregular shapes. Set the stuffed potatoes in oven a few minutes to brown.

at Pittsburg

Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughn, home economics director, of Los Angeles, teaches cooking to 100,000 women every year. Her Pittsburg Potatoes are rich enough to serve as the only cooked luncheon dish, she says. It served with a good salad they provide a delicious meal. Here is her recipe:

- 1 lb. potatoes
1 cup grated cheese
1 sliced pimento
1/2 cup bread crumbs
4 tablespoons butter
1 tablespoon sour
1 cup milk

Put a layer of potatoes in baking dish. Sprinkle with grated cheese, salt, pepper, butter and chopped pimentos. Add another layer of potatoes and repeat with cheese and pimentos. Pour over this one cup white sauce. Cover with buttered bread crumbs. Bake in oven until well browned on top.

Prepare the white sauce by melting the butter in a saucepan, and stirring in flour until smooth (2 to 4 tablespoons), then add one cupful milk and salt and pepper.

There you are! Four tempting potato recipes, all easy to prepare, favorites of four famous cooking specialists. Try them on your family. They will welcome these unique variations of the potato theme.

(Watch next week for another interesting cooking recipe.)

For Oil Stove Users

Women who cook with oil will appreciate one of the newer oil stove models with a reversible, easily filled glass reservoir. The hands do not come in contact with the kerosene at all.

Whitens Hands

Before using rubber gloves sprinkle baking soda inside. You'll find them easy to remove, and your hands will be whitened.

When to Use Salt

Underground vegetables, the roots or stems of plants, should be cooked in boiling unsalted water. They contain a certain amount of weedy fiber which is hardened by salt. Salt them when ready to serve.

"Top ground" vegetables, such as peas, beans, cabbage, and onions, are much better cooked in boiling, salted water. Cooked this way they retain their color, and their flavor is intensified.

IF HAIR IS DRY BLAME CONSTANT CURLING, WAVING

Girls just must curl and wave bobbed hair to appear their prettiest. But constant curling and waving burn and dry the luster, vitality and very life from the hair.

To offset these bad effects, just get a 35-cent bottle of delightful, refreshing oil counter and just see for yourself how quickly it revives dry, brittle, lifeless, and fading hair. "Danderine" is a dependable tonic and will do wonders for any hair. It nourishes, stimulates and strengthens each single hair, bringing back that youthful gleam, glint and vigorous luxuriance. Falling hair stops and dandruff disappears. "Danderine" is pleasant and easy to use.

A Cool Kitchen. When the sweltry days of summer come, it will be fine to have a Perfection oil stove in your kitchen. You will find it does not heat the room as does the wood stove, and there are no ashes to bother with and to muss up the floor. The Perfection makes it possible for you to enjoy a clean, cool kitchen, while the fuel problem becomes the simplest. A can of ordinary kerosene solves the fuel problem during the hot and busy weeks on the farm. Be sure you read the series of fine display advertisements of the Perfection that begins in this issue of the Record, and remember when you are convinced that you should have one of those splendid labor and heat-saving stoves, that you can find them at our store. Come in and let us demonstrate the Perfection for you.
