NEWS AND COMMENT

The last two weeks have witnessed events of momentous import. The eyes of the world at the beginning of the period were upon England. concerned with the event of the general strike. The strike seems to have ended with loss of prestige to the effectiveness of the general strike and with Great Britain's credit enhanced, the pound going to par a few days ago for the first time in several years. The non-union folk of England did not tamely submit to having all transportation and industry stopped and themselves left on the verge of famine. Volunteers rushed to, take the place of strikers in the most essential positions, and this the most general of all strikes has failed in its purpose.

Two Parties Reach North Pole Since midwinter two parties had been planning flights to the north Lieutenant Commander Byrd pale. brother of the governor of Virginia was ready to hop off a few days earlier than Roald Amundsen, the intrepid Norwegian discoverer of the south pole. Byrd, as reported last week, flew successfully to the pole and returned to Spitzbergen within fifteen hours. Amundsen, good sport that he is, was among those who cheered him on his safe return. Amundsen to begin to push him forward right Williams been so put on his metal and himself, with a party of seventeen, including young Ellsworth of New York who was the financial backer of the enterprise, set out in the Italianbuilt dirigible from Spitzenbergen, Tuesday, May 11, and sailed straight for the pole without mishap. The radio reported his arrival at the pole, but after his departure toward Alaska, for his plan was to fly across the top of the world, the radio lost him and the world wondered, and feared a mishap. But, true to form, Amundsen came out of the north, as he years ago came out of the south. and his great dirigible was landed at Terry, 75 miles north of Nome, Alaska. The only mishap was the cutting of the gas bag by ice throw from the Norge's propellers, which accident caused the loss of consider able gas and slowed down the prog ress of the airship. Into the nort country to report the result of th dirigible's flight and other arctic vents, Jack Lyon, a Greensboro bo now a lamous reporter, had gone and amid it all came news that h

The Perfection.

This week in the Record begins a series of splendid advertisements setting forth the merits of the Perfection Oil Stove by those who know them. You should read those advertisements and the single-column articles on cooking by six famous cooks.

We predict that it will not be long till you see the advantage of having a Perfection in your kitchen, Avoid the heat and the muss of the wood stove, and simplify the fuel problem during the busy, sweltering days of the summer months.

If you wish to know more of the Perfection than the advertisements tell you, come to our store and let us show the several sizes and styles. It will be a pleasure for us.

A Perfection and a can of kerosene will simplify the cooking business in your home this summer. We sell them.

There is hardly any news in the paper of more interest than the Stan- dard Oil Company's announcement of the marketing of its new preparation "Esso". Get some and see the old flivver kick up its heels like a young filly. The drought is becoming serious. Chatham has had two bad crop years in succession and has poor prospects at this writing for a good one this year. With over three millions in the treasury Governor McLean's business policy has been justified. Mmundsen now has to his credit visits to both poles. He should round out his experience by an aerial visit to the south pole, which he discovered several years ago under difficulties that would have discouraged a less courageous and persistent man. LOST, COLLIE $25.00 REWARD for return of pure white (female) Collie taken from Chapel Hill, May 16.
