A Cool Kitchen.

When the sweltry days of summer come, it will be fine to have a Perfection oil stove in your kitchen. You will find it does not heat the room as does the wood . stove, and there are no ashes to bother with and to. muss up the floor. The Perfection makes it possible for you to enjoy a clean, cool kitchen, while the fuel problem becomes the simplest. A can of ordinary kerosent solves the fuel problem during the hot and busy weeks on the farm.

Be sure you read the series of fine display advertisements of the Perfection that begins in this issue of the Record, and remember when you are convinced that you should have one of those splendid labor and heatsaving stoves, that you can find them at our store.

Come in and let us demonstrate the Perfection for you.

It seems that the Record failed to note the re-election of Hon. W. P. Horton as chairman of the Democratic county convention; also the re-election of Miss Margaret Womble as secretary. Those concerned, please take notice. Mr. Horton has served most efficiently the past two years, as has Miss Womble.

Already, the Record is informed by Mr. C. C. Hall, the local American Legion camp is making preparations for a great celebration July 4.

A Hawaiian concert company will give an entertainment at the court house Saturday evening for the benefit of the Pittsboro Fire Company.

Miss Grace Dark, who has served very acceptably as a clerk in the Pittsboro post office for several months, has resigned and returned to her home at Goldston. Miss Emma Johnson, of Goldston, succeeds her.

RECITES STORY OF FIRST U.S. HIKER

Explorations of De Vaca Told in Ancient Book.

Claremont, Cal.-A rare volume containing the story of what purports to be the first transcontinental foot journey for a white man in the conquest of North America, is the latest addition to the William S. Mason collection of Western Americans in Pomona college library.

The book tells of the adventures of Cabeca de Vaca, Spanish explorer, in journeying through the southern section of the United States between the years 1528 and 1536, and of his explorations in the River Plata countries of South America after his appointment as governor of the region in 1540.

An expedition, of which Vaca was a member, left Spain in 1527 headed for Florida and Louisiana. It was wrecked on the Florida coast. Fifty survivors drifted to the coast of Texas in rudely constructed boats and made shore November 6, 1628. All but 15 died of disease or starvation and these became slaves of the Indians.

By a stroke of good luck, Vaca staved off threatened death for himself and companions by posing to the Indians as a divine heater, usually being able to cure minor maladies.

After six years, Vaca, with two companions, escaped. They reached the coast of California and turned southward, arriving at Mexico City, July 24, 1536.

As a reward for his exploring services Vaca was appointed governor of the provinces of the Rio de La Plata in South America. Here he incurred the jealousy of his compatriots and was sent back to Spain in irons, remaining in prison six years awaiting trial. Eventually, he was exiled to Africa.

Two editions of the first portion of the book are known to be in existence-one in the New York public of Chatham County as a whole. W. B. CHEEK. library and the other in the British museum at Londop.
