

SUMMER IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER

A wood stove or range means a sweltering kitchen for the next four months, and the trouble of keeping stove wood during the busy farm months.

An Oil Stove means a cooler kitchen and economy in fuel.

We Sell the Nesco, the Perfection, and the Air-Gas. One of these will suit your needs and your purse.

Miss Emily Taylor attended St. Mary's commencement at Raleigh this week.

Mrs. R. I. McDaniel of Durham is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Latt Poe near Siler City.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Connell of Raleigh spent the week-end with Mr. Connell's home folk.

The supreme court denied a new trial to Pearl Mitchell, under sentence for the murder of Wm. Fogleman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Connell of Washington, D. C., spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Connell last week.

Miss Mary Griffin, a teacher in the school for the blind at Raleigh, is spending the holidays with her brother Mr. J. L. Griffin.

Mr. Carlyle Brooks, who is a member of the highway engineering force located here, visited home folks at Roxboro Sunday.

Miss Meriel Grove, of New Bern, who taught the past session at Mooresville, came in Sunday to visit her friend Miss Coltrane.

Mrs. W. F. Crutchfield, of Hadley township, last week underwent what is thought to be a successful operation for incipient cancer, at Watt's hospital.

Mr. J. J. Reynolds of Merry Oaks was over here Monday and reports crops in good shape over there. He served as Federal court jurymen last week at Raleigh.

Since buying the Cornwallis Filling Station, Mr. J. T. Bland has improved the appearance of the place much by erecting a neat fence about the flower plat in front of it.

Mr. Walter Poe and family of Cheraw, S. C., came on from the Poe Reunion and took supper with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bland and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Poe.

Chatham has a good crop of peaches and apples this year. Fine Chatham grown peaches were on the Pittsboro market Monday, less than three months from the time a two-foot snow covered the county. Frying-size chickens are also getting ripe.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Bartholomew's will be held in the church Monday afternoon, June 6th at four o'clock. Every member is urged to be present, this being the last meeting till September. The president wishes to formulate plans for fall work.

Miss Lucile Farrell is visiting her grandmother at Moncure.

Moore's Bridge is open for traffic. It has been made a road bridge.

Mrs. Mattie Thompson visited her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Jones in Greensboro during the week-end.

Former Principal Nolan is moving his household goods this week to Old Fort, where he is to be principal of the school.

Messrs. Roy Guinn, "Red" Robertson, Jim May, Billie Johnson, and Joe Wertz visited Wilmington and Topsail Sound during the week-end.

Mr. Edgar Moore of Edenton spent Sunday night with Mr. J. T. Poe, on his way to Greensboro, where his daughter Elizabeth was to graduate from Greensboro College this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bland ran down to Salemburg Thursday of last week to bring home their niece Miss Carrie Guinn, who was one of the graduates of Pineland College. Miss Essie Peterson took the opportunity to go with the Blands to Sampson, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. J. Faison.

Mr. L. E. Thomas of Wilmington was up last week making plans to build a brick-veneer cottage on his father's old homestead near Gum Springs Baptist church. Mr. Thomas has bought the interests of all the other children in his father's farm and will build the residence suggested with a view of returning one day to the old home county. Chatham folks will be glad to have him come back home.

The date for the beginning of paving work on the Pittsboro-Chapel Hill highway is bringing several good men to Pittsboro. The rock crushing and sand hauling had already engaged a number of others. Arriving last week were Mr. H. C. Hennigh, superintendent of the paving work, who wish his family will occupy the house vacated by Principal Nolan. Mr. F. F. Killian is here as bookkeeper and is at the Blair hotel.

Mr. James L. Griffin is quite a busy man this week. He has had to attend a meeting of the board of trustees of the Eastern Carolina Training school at Greenville and a similar meeting of the trustees of Wake Forest College. He was particularly concerned with being at Wake Forest today when President Poteat is to deliver his final baccalaureate address to the graduating classes of the old college. Of course, he is also exercised by the problem of a successor to Dr. Poteat, who resigned to retire at the age of 70.

A small paper again, but each subscriber can better afford to miss the general reading matter on the usual four additional pages than we can afford to lose $25 a week. We want the paper to have a future as well as a present, and with the plant burned every precaution must be taken. But the paper has every item of county matter in it that it would probably have had if it were full size.

TO THE ESTATE OF MRS. W. D. HOOKER: This is to notify you that 116 acres of land located in Hickory Mountain Township, Chatham county, North Carolina, listed in your name, was sold for taxes for the year 1924 at the court house door in Pittsboro on September 6th, 1926, when the undersigned became the purchaser thereof and holds receipt therefor. Unless such taxes, cost and interest, as by law provided, be paid to me, I will as soon hereafter, as by law permitted to do, apply to the Sheriff of Chatham County for a deed therefor. This May the 12th, 1927. A. D. DORSETT.

With Cash in Hand

Them as has gets. The man with money in hand, is the man in position to meet opportunity half way— and usually he is the man who puts things across—because he is ready.

You make no mistakes when you resolve to adjust your affairs so that income is greater than outgo. You will be surprised how quickly you have cash in hand to make investments—which in turn will bring you more cash in hand.

Once you become acquainted with the many manners in which we can serve you, you will thank the day when you needed friendly suggestion and started to build for the future.

for Economical Transportation

CHEVROLET

A car for her, too!

In thousands of average American homes there are now two automobiles—"a car for her, too," so there may be transportation for the family while "he" drives away to work.

And the family car has such an infinite degree of usefulness! Downtown shopping, taking the children to school, afternoon calls, meeting trains and the many additional trips that must be made to and from the house as a part of every day's routine.

No other car is so admirably suited to a woman's requirements as the Most Beautiful Chevrolet.

With striking new bodies by Fisher, and finished in pleasing colors of lustrous, lasting Duco, it provides in abundant measure the comfort, charm and elegance that women admire in a motor car. It is easy to start because of its Delco-Remy electric starting system—famous for the world over for its excellence. It is easy to stop because of powerful, over-size brakes. And it is easy to drive and park because of a modern three-speed transmission, smooth-acting disc clutch, and a semi-reversible steering gear that gives finger-tip steering.

Visit our showroom and see the Most Beautiful Chevrolet. Note the wide variety of body types. Mark their sweeping lines and carefully executed details. And then ask us to explain the easy terms on which a Chevrolet may be purchased—terms that include the lowest combination of handling and financing charges available anywhere.
