NEW HILL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson of Wake county recently moved in our community to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Mann and little son, Paul, spent the week-end in the Mt. Gilead section with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mann.

Mrs. W. A. Mann and children during the week-end visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Lasater on Apex Rt. 3.

Misses Neva and Velera Sturdivant, Tallie Goodwin, and Flay Sturdivant spent the week-end at Lexington with Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Tysinger.

Mr. Roy Poole is in Watts hospital where he recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. A. M. Goodwin visited the peach orchards at West End one day last week. He reports peach prices rather high this season.

Mr. R. L. Trotter who is working at Dunn spent the week-end with Mrs. Trotter and Lacy, Jr.

Christian Chapel had a regular "Home coming" Children's Day and Rally day combined last Sunday. There was a large crowd in attendance, several counties being represented. The forenoon was given to the children and Mr. Joe McIver made a short talk. The children did exceptionally well for children of their age. The Cross children sang several songs. The quartet was composed of three little girls, the younger was only five years of age, and on eboy. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cross. We would not fail to mention the noon hour. There was a long table laden with everything imaginable good to eat. There was singing by New Elam singing choir and the home choir. The Benton quartet from Apex, was present and are brothers. The following men did some beautiful singing. They made short talks in the afternoon Messrs. C. N. Johnson, D. A. Mann, J. M. Craven, Rev. J. F. Johnson and Mr. Jeffries, Mr. B. N. Dickens is superintendent of Christian Chapel Sunday school and was master of ceremonies last Sunday. An offering was taken for Elon orphanage.

MOUNT ZION NEWS

It was stated last week that the Mount Zion revival would begin Monday following the first Sunday. Mr. Lance, our pastor, has made a statement since, that he would preach there Sunday evening at 8 o'clock for the opening sermon of the revival. The usual prayer service will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Let's make this prayer service be worth while by coming in a prayerful attitude for good prayer service for the revival.

Rev. Mr. Lance's brother who is to assist him in the revival will be present Monday. He comes highly recommended and we feel that we are lucky in getting him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gallian, and children of Greensboro visited Mrs. Gallian's aunt, Mrs. Joseph C. Harmon last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Stanford, an aunt, of the Misses Clegg is visiting them this week, also a cousin, Mrs. Oldham of Durham.

Master Marian Harmon is visiting in Raleigh for two weeks. He has also had the pleasure of going to the mountains for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Petty and children visited his mother, Mrs. N. B. Gunter, near Durham last week.

Why should you squawk? Nebuchadnezzar was stuck for one of them, too. They've just dug it up in Egypt—a vanity case—which one of his flappers left—we'll bet, in a phone booth.

This hard-to-suit age chooses Camel

MODERN people are hard to satisfy. But Camel has pleased them and they have made it the most famous cigarette of all time.

Present-day smokers are "tasty," and they recognize in Camel the choicest tobaccos grown, blended for smoothness and mellowness. Camel leadership in this modern world is an overwhelming tribute to the taste and fragrance of this quality cigarette.

Camel will prove itself to you. What a cool, satisfying smoke! When you try Camels, you will see why they are first and favorite with present-day smokers. "Have a Camel!"
