

MONCURE NEWS

Despite the continued showers, a large crowd attended the celebration of the opening of Moncure Bank, Monday, Oct. 3rd. The crowd was not one of loafers, but consisted largely of some of the most substantial business men of the county. Ladies were also well represented.

The well prepared barbecue was served from the Junior Order Hall, each one receiving a bounteous plate. So good was the barbecue, that the bandmaster of Apex said that if we had another barbecue that they would play free of charge in order to partake of it.

About 11 o'clock the band of Apex began to play and the town began to take on the appearance of the fourth of July celebration. Excellent speeches were delivered by Hon. Joe McCluer, Hon. A. C. Ray, and Editor Peterson. Mr. McCluer emphasized the significance of the Bank and its importance to the community.

Lawyer Ray outlined the present status of the bank and mentioned especially the high personnel of the board of directors and the cashier, W. W. Langley and he held up our beloved Capt. Wissler as the financial and inspirational father of the bank. Fitting tribute was paid to the late M. T. Bland, the founder of the bank and his sons, and daughter, who have successfully carried out his ideals.

Mr. Peterson extolled the natural resources of the county and of the Moncure section in particular.

Cashier Langley reports the deposits of the first day to exceed $10,000.00.

With the capital stock of $25,000.00 fully paid in and with Capt. J. H. Wissler, president, W. F. Bland, vice-president, O. C. Kennedy, second vice-president, W. W. Langley, cashier, and Miss Mary Bland, assistant cashier, backed by the merchants and best business men of Moncure section and some of the best from Pittsboro, success is assured.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Chamberlain of Lincolnton, spent the week end with her brother, Mr. P. V. Budd.

Dr. J. E. Cathell, who has been in Sanford hospital for sometime is now at his home here. He is much improved but will not be able to resume his practice for a few weeks.

Next week, Oct. 11th, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, the Odd Fellows Orphans will give a concert at the school auditorium. We hope that this good cause will be well patronized.

Mr. E. E. Walden, our progressive furniture dealer and efficient funeral director, has built him a brick funeral parlor, which he expects to make up-to-date in every particular.

Our patrons seem very appreciative of the enlarged post office lobby, which has been increased to 10 by 16 feet in size.

The Epworth league last Sunday evening was called to order by the president, Miss Ruth Womble. Miss Emma Lee Mann was leader for the evening. She is the leader of the Juniors, and most of them had a part in the program and they responded readily.

There were services at the Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. Jesse Blalock, last Sunday morning and evening. All enjoy Mr. Blalock's good sermons.

The B.Y.P.U. met last Sunday evening with an interesting program.

Mr. Edwin Cathell has returned to Atlanta, Ga., where he is taking a medical course at Emory university.

Miss Catherine Thomas is teaching in a school near Durham. She spent last week end at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Thomas. She is liking her work.

Moncure school will attend the fair at Siler City Tuesday. The school has an exhibit and several of the students will take part in the athletics. Mr. Milson Womble is the champion jumper of Moncure school and Miss Lois Ray the champion runner.

Mesdames Sprower and Schreider and Mr. John Sprower of New York City, who are guests of Mrs. Phoebe Womble, spent today at Durham.

One of the best services was held at Providence Methodist church, four miles of Moncure, last Sunday evening at three o'clock, Mr. B. Cole of Sanford made such a deep, an excellent talk, "prayer." Miss Annie Murchison also of Sanford sang an impressive solo, "Why Should God Love Me So?" Miss Murchison also made a sweet talk. The duet which was sung by Misses Murchison and Ray was enjoyed very much. Rev. Mr. Mengenhall was also present and made a good talk. We wish to thank Hanks' Chapel choir for their presence and good singing.

A special service will be held at Providence once a month by the evangelistic club of Sanford. The third Sunday afternoon in November, will be the time for the next service.

There will be a mass meeting of citizens of Chatham county, Friday, October 14th, at 7 p. m., at Moncure to see about putting in a knitting mill. All interested are requested to be on hand and say what we can do.

Mr. R. H. Fitchett, Mrs. Florence Wilkie, Mrs. J. J. Haekney, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Powers, attended the association at Sandy Branch church last Thursday and Friday. Messrs Fitchett and Powers were delegates from Moncure Baptist church.

Rev. and Mrs. Jesse Blalock and son Loyd spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Powers.

The Cottage prayer meeting of the Baptist church will meet with Mrs. Florence Wilkie Monday afternoon, October 3rd.

Rev. Jesse Blalock who has been living at Aberdeen will move to Lillington, but will remain preaching at Moncure.

BRICKHAVEN

Master Craig Harrington and Miss Frances Thompson were guests of Master Benj. and Miss Louise Ward at Norwood for the week end.

Friends were glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Nash, and family for a few hours Sunday afternoon. They visited quite a number of friends during their brief stay. We are glad to know that they still remember old friends though they are finding their new home so interesting and attractive.

Mr. Clinton Seawell, Miss Cecil Seawell and Miss Pauline Brown spent several hours in Raleigh Saturday visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harrington and Miss Mildred Harrington spent the week end in Bonsal.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Marks recently welcomed into their home a new son, Master Kent Marks.

Friends of all denominations are delighted to know that Rev. Jesse Blalock of Aberdeen who has been called to the work at Lillington, will continue to be pastor of the Baptist church of Moncure. Mr. Blalock has endeared himself to many in this community and he and his family carry with them our best wishes in establishing themselves in their new home.

Quite a number from our village attended the bank opening at Moncure. It was a festive occasion and we rejoice with Moncure in their good fortune, feeling sure that we will inevitably profit by it. After experiencing the shock of the former bank failure we commend the courage and shrewd business insight which has made possible this venture. Remember this time it is a "Chatham Bank" and it is bringing with it to Moncure two splendid Chatham county products, in the persons of Mr. Will Langley as cashier and Miss Mary Bland, assistant cashier.

Here's to Capt. Wisler the "go-getter" whose indefatigable efforts have made this event possible and who is making it a gala day for his town.
