DEATHS

MR. ORREN DOWDY

The country has lost one of its best citizens in the death of Mr. Orren Dowry, which occurred Monday morning at 3 o'clock, at his home near Cummock.

M. Dowry was in his usual health Saturday and worked on the farm. He was taken ill Saturday night with hemorrhage from the lungs, and passed away at the hour noted above.

The burial was at Asbury Methodist church, Tuesday afternoon. The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Chaffin.

Mr. Dowry was married twice. His last wife, who was a Miss Johnson, survives him, together with three sons and two daughters, namely, Messrs. Will Dowdy, of Sanford, Curtis and Everett Dowdy, of this county, and Mesdames Mack Lennon and W. A. Robinson, of the vicinity of Pittsboro.

GILLIAM BROWN

His many friends in Chatham county regret to learn of the death of Mr. Gilliam Brown, proprietor of the Brown-Buick Service Station in Sanford. Mr. Brown died Monday night at the home of his sister in Carthage and the funeral service was held at the Carthage Presbyterian church Thursday.

MRS. KERNODLE

Mrs. Kernodle, mother of Mrs. Dailey, wife of the Methodist pastor here, died early Monday morning at the Dailey home, where she has been with her daughter for the last few months.

Mrs. Kernodle had been married twice. Her first husband, and the father of Mrs. Dailey, was Rev. Edward Howland, who has been dead many years. She next married Mr. L. L. Kernodle of Alamance county, father of the editor of The Alamance Gleaner.

She had lived with a niece in Burlington till coming to Pittsboro a few months ago.

Mrs. Kernodle was in her 77th year. The funeral service was held at Graham, in the Methodist church, Tuesday, and the burial was in the Burlington cemetery.

RAIN VS. 50-50 ACME

HEAR YE! The decision: "It has been found, by the testimony of hundreds of farmers—men of character and ability, standing high in their community:

THAT—Best results are obtainable when Fertilizer is made 50 per cent mineral, to start the crop growing; and 50 per cent organic, to offset the loss of fertilizer by rain, and to strengthen and continue the plant life.

This organic nitrogen (ammonia) stays in the ground, dissolves slowly and makes the farmers' chances of a good stand, and a good yield, much more certain and sure.

THEREFORE: OLD RELIABLE ACME MANUFACTURING COMPANY, of Wilmington, North Carolina, continue to make now—as has for the past forty six (46) years, only 50-50 quality goods.

Ask the man who uses ACME. Ask your dealer or write. ACME MANUFACTURING CO., Wilmington, N. C.

IN MEMORIAM

On February 11, 1929, God sent the angel of death and took from our midst one of our best young women, Mrs. Beulah Jones Johnson.

Although Beulah was married to Colon Johnson and the mother of four bright children, and in her twenty-ninth year, she seemed but a girl, she was so quiet and Christ-like in her demeanor.

She professed faith in Christ when a child and joined Emmaus Baptist Church and lived a consistent Christian life as nearly as she could. She attended church and Sunday school all that she could, getting her four children ready and bringing them to Sunday school each Sunday. She wanted to train them by the Lord.

She was secretary of the women's class in Sunday school. We miss her presence so much already. She told some of her dear ones before she died that she was going home to heaven.

She was the daughter of George W. Jones and wife, and leaves five sisters and three brothers as well as her husband and children, and many friends to mourn their loss.

Not now, but in the coming years, it may be in the better land, we'll catch the meaning of our tears, and there, sometime, we'll understand.

We'll know why clouds instead of sun, Were over many a cherished plan; Why song has ceased when scarce begun, 'Tis there, sometime, we'll understand.

Written at the request of her class. MISS DORA DAFFRON, MRS. G. M. CLARK, MRS. W. F. JONES, Committee.
