

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Miss Mary Thompson was called from her home in Oxford to Pittsboro last week by the illness of her sister, Miss Fannie. The latter was quite sick for several days, but was better the first of the week. The weather for several days was unexceptionally warm for March. This for the benefit of fur-off readers. It has been more like May than March. But farmers are away behind, as the rains prevent ploughing. The Woman's Club will not meet at the regularly appointed time, April 3, but on Thursday, April 18, when Dr. Taylor of the State Board of Health will lecture at the club room on the subject of indigestion and heart diseases. The American Legion Auxiliary, of Pittsboro, will give an Easter Egg hunt, for the children of the members of the Pittsboro American Legion and Auxiliary, on Saturday, March 30th, 1929, at 3:30 o'clock, p. m., on the Bell lot, which is located between the residences of W. P. Horton and W. C. Johnson. Twenty-five years ago the editor of The Record, then editor of the Lumberton Argus, carried advertisements for the Weinstein stores of that good town. This week we found sons of the older Weinstains in charge of the big bankrupt sale at Siler City, men who were told when we last saw them. But, fellows, they have been raised up to the selling business, and they are selling goods like forty over there. See their advertisement. Rev. Paul Caudill, student pastor of the Pittsboro Baptist church, took unto himself a wife last Saturday. Accordingly, he was not here for his appointment Sunday. In his stead came Rev. L. R. Dixon, a Chatham boy who is studying for the ministry. He is a son of the late Joe Dixon, and a nephew of Postmaster R. H. Dixon of Siler City. The young man has a fine personality and gives evidence of making a strong preacher. His sermons were enjoyed by the large congregation.

In the recitation contest in the high school auditorium last Friday evening, Miss Louise Ray won the Horton medal. Other contestants were Misses Josephine Connell, Edna Snipes, Lillie Bynum, Elizabeth Blair, Myrtle Womble, Katherine Durham, and Elizabeth Lutterloh. In the story of the Manning family as related in this paper, by inadvertence Dr. Isaac Manning was located at Winston-Salem. He is head of Medical school at the University, and Tuesday morning's papers state that he has just undergone an operation for gallstone. By the time this reaches our readers it is probable that a sale of the Harmon place a mile or two south of town will have been effected. Mr. W. C. Hunt of Dunn, but a native of the Buckhorn section is the contemplated purchaser. He has been up here with Mr. W. W. Stedman who is engineering the sale. Mr. Ivey Harmon of South Carolina and Mr. Obie Harmon of Chapel Hill have also been here in connection with the negotiations. If the transfer is effected, Mr. Hunt expects to move at once. The Harmon place is one of the old stately country homes of the past, but is at present rather out of repair. Rev. R. G. Shannonhouse took an old violin he has owned for 20 years to Pinehurst to have it tested by an expert down there. The latter thinks it from the workshop of Joseph Stainer who died in 1578, and says that Stainer violins are selling at $900 to $1,500. Anyway, the expert declared the Shannonhouse instrument the second best fiddle he has seen since coming to Pinehurst. Brother Shannonhouse authorized him to sell for $1,000. The preacher man has already picked up a thousand dollars one time the past few months as the medium in the sale of a lot of valuable books. Maybe fortune will knock at his door again as it has learned the way to it.

J. Johnson & Co.

Pat, a Red Irish setter, belonging to Billie Johnson, came back from the A. K. C. dog show with fine ribbons. Note the advertisement of Overseize fertilizer. It makes out a good case for the brand. And they will bring it to the farm for you. Be sure to read and heed Hall's advertisement. He has just returned from a visit of several days to the northern markets and has the goods. A recitation contest open to the schools of the county will be held in the Pittsboro school auditorium next Friday evening. There is no admission charge. Hear the youngsters. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson of Asheville and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Jones of Greensboro visited their mother, Mrs. Mattie Thompson a few days ago.

CAN'T FLOAT UP STREAM

What is will power? Well, it is persistence of effort—unwillingness to surrender—dogged determination to carry on. These things decide human destiny.

It is always easy to follow the lines of least resistance. But one can't very well float UP STREAM. It takes effort. Many who have achieved greatness in life, financially and otherwise, developed WILL POWER early in life. You can do what you want to do if you really WANT to.
