Wilkie-Webster Marriage.

Miss Della Beamon Wilkie and Mr. Roy Street Webster were married Saturday evening at 7:30 at the Baptist parsonage, Bonlee, by Rev. E. W. Byerly, the pastor of the groom.

In the living rooms where the vows were spoken, quantities of spring flowers and potted plants were used. The ceremony was staged in front of a beautiful improvised altar of spring flowers.

The bride was becomingly attired in chic ensemble suit of blonde tweed with accessories to match.

The day attendants of the bride were: Miss Martha Webster, of Bonlee, a sister of the groom, and Miss Swannie Jones, of Bennett. The groom's attendants were: Dewey Barber, of Goldston, and June Meredith, of Greensboro.

Mrs. Webster is well known in this part of the county. She is a daughter of C. H. Wilkie, formerly of route one, Bear Creek, but now of Chapel Hill, route three. She has been operator of the Central Carolina Telephone Company for several years. Mr. Webster has held a position with the State Highway for some years, and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Webster, of Bonlee. We join their friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

out by the committee, however, there will be no chance of failure.

It will be remembered that the Seaboard club four years ago was quite an attraction for baseball fans throughout this section and Hamlet was given some excellent games. Other divisions of the Seaboard are also organizing teams and there will probably be several inter-divisional championship games during the season.

The bill designed to force every voter to declare allegiance to some party and denying right to participate in the primary of any other party, was killed in the house last week. After several hours debate Representative Kerr, who introduced the bill, moved to table it. Restrictions on candidates will remain about the same as at present; just a moral obligation to support the nominees of the primary or convention in which one participates.

Seaboard Baseball Team Is Assured

(From The Hamlet News-Messenger)

Hamlet in particular, and other towns in this section, will be assured of some high class baseball this summer in the reorganization of the North Carolina division baseball club among employees of the Seaboard. A conference of interested officials was held here last Monday and plans set in motion for placing the team on a solid financial basis.

It is proposed to play only bona fide employees of the road, the team to be financed by contributions among employees and the gate receipts at games. Under the plans worked

Hall's Dress-Up Sale

It's Dress Up Time and Hall has the stuff. He spent the larger part of last week in the northern markets and the goods have been coming in and will be arriving all the week. In fact, we have bought so many of them that an extra effort must be made to sell them. The temptation to buy the many beautiful fabrics and lovely dresses was rather too much for us. But if we made a mistake, it is to our customer's advantage. You have a greater variety to select from, and we must sell at a price that will make it to your advantage to buy here.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Dresses, very latest fabrics and styles. Prices range to suit the purses of buyers.

Piece Goods in Beautiful Patterns.

Spring Millinery—Well, we have it.

Dress-up Shoes just arrived.

Men's Wear—We can fix up the men and boys too.

Come along and let's make Friday and Saturday great dress-up days. Anyway, it will not hurt you to see and price our goods.

Respectfully,
