J. A. DAILEY, Pastor

IN HONOR OF BRIDE

Miss Lucile Pierce entertained a number of her young lady friends last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Carrie Guinn, who was to become the next morning the bride of Prof. Malcolm Franklin Biggerstaff. It was an enjoyable occasion. Delicious refreshments were served and a number of useful or ornamental gifts were presented to the bride-elect.

The marriage occurred as indicated before last week. It was at 10 o'clock in the Presbyterian church. A goodly crowd assembled for the interesting event. Miss Jennie Connell sang and Miss Catherine Johnson was at the piano. The ceremony was performed by Pastor Barclay.

Both these young people are held in the highest esteem and many good wishes attend them. They are at home at Forest City. Mr. Biggerstaff was principal of Bell's school for the past two or three years, and Miss Guinn was teacher of mathematics in that school. It is therefore evident that they enjoyed their positions and have received double compensation for their time.

Musical Program Here This Evening

Pittsboro people are reminded that the music department of the Woman's Club are giving its annual musical program this evening in the club room. The program will begin at 8 p. m. William Marshall, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Marshall who lives at Carolina plant, was carried to Mary Elizabeth hospital, Raleigh, and operated on for appendicitis one day last week. William was a member of the sixth grade and while at school was taken seriously ill. As Dr. Cathell was out of town Dr. Chapin of Pittsboro was called, pronounced it appendicitis, rushed him to the hospital and was operated on the same afternoon. We are glad to state that William is getting on nicely and hope he will soon be well again.

Mr. Seymour does not plan to live on this farm any time soon, yet this purchase shows that he is turning his attentions this way.

Rev. Offie Seymour as he is known in this section, has developed into a strong Baptist preacher and teacher and stands high in his profession.

Brown's Chapel News

The young people of Brown's church are not doing as much as they might as a league, but they are holding on against the ups and downs. We older folk do not give them the encouragement and help we should. One day they are to bear the burdens of the church. Our boys and girls should regard the church as a sacred and holy place and make use of every chance. They are becoming accustomed to doing some things and we should be proud of them.

The third Sunday in May is to be Children's Day and will probably be also recognized as a memorial day, when all the former members of Brown's Chapel are to be invited to return and share in the service that day. Dinner will be served.

Mrs. S. J. Henderson, who is about our oldest member, has been kept away from Sunday school some time, but we are glad she was able to be out Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lutterloh have begun to run around some with their new son.
