

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

C. C. Hall made a business trip to Charlotte Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gregory spent the week-end in South Boston, Va.

Mrs. L. E. Farthing of Wilmington has been a guest of Mrs. J. L. Griffin.

Miss Miriam Chapin was home a few days from Richmond. Also Rev. Archie Ray, a Virginia pastor, has been on a visit to his parents.

Mrs. H. H. Hackney and children of Cary are spending this week with Mrs. Hackney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Murdock, on route 3.

Dr. Pierce of New Hope township was in Pittsboro Saturday accompanied by his son, Mr. N. S. Pierce, who is a senior at Catawba College.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Moffitt, Holt Moffitt, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Hamilton and son Billy, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs. W. M. Eubanks.

Tax advertising time is at hand, and listing time for another assessment. Death and taxes are certain, but fortunately death does not come as often as taxes, though it lasts a mighty long time.

Mrs. D. B. Bryan of Wake Forest came over with Rev. and Mrs. Paul Caudill Saturday and spent Sunday with her brothers and sister here. Miss Mary Griffin, of the school for the blind, also spent the week-end here.

Rev. C. H. Henderson, pastor of Lystra Baptist church, who now lives in Raleigh, was a Pittsboro visitor Monday. His other pastorates are Caraleigh and Ephesus in Wake, and Mt. Carmel in Orange. He preached at Lystra Sunday.

While Leon Ray did not win in the oratorical contest held at Wake Forest the other day, he won the distinction of being one of the eight out of a large number of contestants from all parts of the state to attain the finals, and received a pin in recognition of his feat in reaching the finals.

At a meeting of the Chatham branch of the cotton growers' association April 19, N. J. Dark was chosen president and H. J. Straughan secretary. It is the general sentiment that the morale of the membership is higher than ever before. Arrangements have been made by the state association to insure the lives of members at a surprising low rate.

The meeting of citizens called for Monday evening resulted in the renomination of Mayor Ernest Farrell and Councilmen Fred Nooe, Newton Moore, Jeter Griffin, S. D. Johnson and Tom Hackney declined to be candidates, and Dr. R. M. Farrell and Mr. C. A. Matthews were nominated to succeed them. There will probably be no opposing ticket.

The B. Y. P. U. of the Pittsboro Baptist church held a fine meeting Sunday evening, when it was decided to have Miss Harrison of Wake Forest, a state B. Y. P. U. worker, spend a week here at an early date. The Gum Springs B. Y. P. U. will be asked to cooperate in the work of the week, as the two churches have the same pastor.

Her friends and neighbors celebrated the birthday of Mrs. Nannie Pilkington with her at her home in Gulf township Sunday. Fifty or sixty were present for the occasion, despite the rain. The latter, however, somewhat marred the occasion, as the guests were confined to the house and the table in the yard had to be abandoned.

If the Record had 2000 subscribers like the brothers J. W. and L. R. Jones of Siler City Route Four, it would be fun to run the paper. Every year since we have been here about this time they come in and send their subscriptions a year in advance. Mr. J. W. was here a while ago, two weeks before his time was up, and now he is ahead till May 15, 1930.

James D. Hart, a native of Chatham and long an employee of the Cummoek coal mine, died at his home in Sanford Sunday night, April 28, at the age of 85. He was a brother of Mr. Charles Hart of this county. He was highly esteemed in Sanford. He leaves four daughters and one son, the Misses Sadie and Ema Hart, Mrs. Edith Poe, of Sanford, Mrs. J. S. Mungo, of Columbia, S. C., and James D. Hart, Jr., of Norfolk.

Bonlee commencement had Rev. Z. H. Dixon as preacher Sunday and Dr. D. B. Bryan, Wake Forest College dean, as speaker Monday. Both these gentlemen are Chatham county product, we believe, and are sure about Doctor Bryan. The Moncure sermon was preached by Dr. R. T. Vann, who was pastor at Wake Forest when the editor of the Record entered college in 1888 and who yet refuses to be put upon the shelf. There are few better men than R. T. Vann.

Dr. John A. Knight, who graduated last year at the Atlanta-Southern Dental College, writes the Record from Manchester, Ga., stating that he located there after graduation. He says it is a "good place, but still old Chatham is hard to beat." Dr. Knight is only five miles from the famous Georgia Warm Springs, owned by Governor Franklin Roosevelt. Since February 1, he has been dentist for the patients of the Roosevelt institution, which he says is doing a great work. Dr. Knight will keep in touch with his old Chatham friends from now through the Record.

Miss Annie Moore of Gulf is visiting relatives in Pittsboro.

Robert Connell and Billie Griffin, who have been employed with rock crushing forces in various parts of the state, have spent a few days at home.

Mesdames Pierce and Wilkerson, the latter now of Charlotte, have given their father's family Bible to the Baptist church for the pulpit. The handsome volume was bought just before the death of their father, Mr. Moore.

The marriage of Mr. Clarence Dickens of Siler City to Miss Nonie Moore of Jonesboro, which took place March 31 at Chesterfield, S. C., was announced only a few days ago. The couple will reside at Siler City, where Mr. Dickens is engaged in business.

Why Is the Engagement Ring Worn on the Fourth Finger?

The custom of wearing engagement and wedding rings on the fourth finger of the left hand originated in an ancient belief that a very delicate nerve ran directly from that finger to the heart. According to Aulus Gellius, this belief was mentioned in the Egyptian writings of Applanus in the second century A. D. During the Middle Ages the connection was supposed to be a blood vessel instead of a nerve. Henry Swinburne, an English ecclesiastical lawyer who died in 1623, left a quaint observation on this subject in his "Treatise of Spousals." "The finger on which this ring (wedding ring) is to be worn," said Swinburne, "is the fourth finger of the left hand, next unto the little finger; because, by the received opinion of the learned and experienced in ripping up and anatomizing men's bodies, there is a vein of blood which passeth from that fourth finger unto the heart called vena amoris, love's vein."

Mrs. Methusaleh sighed wearily. "This servant question is getting on my nerves," she said.

"Well, what's the trouble now," asked Mr. Methusaleh. "Our cook has just left us—that makes the 746th servant in the last 600 years."

ASBESTOS ROOFS NEVER NEED REPAIRING

It is hard to make all the home builders believe that a good, permanent roof can be had for the same price that an ordinary wood shingle roof will cost. Yet, this is true.

Asbestos roofing in roll, shingle, or built up, can be had for very moderate prices. And the cost of repairing and re-roofing is eliminated altogether. Asbestos can't burn, and it combats successfully all weather elements.

Before you roof or re-roof let us show you samples of asbestos roofing and make quotations on cost.
