Editorials DIAGNOSIS AND PRESCRIPTION

Attorney B. C. Beckwith of Raleigh wrote us a few days ago that he happened to pick up a copy of the Chatham Record in the court house at Raleigh and read our editorial on "The Menace of Profit." He expressed hearty approval of it, and wishes us to discuss the remedies.

But diagnosis is often much easier than successful prescribing. We do not believe that we proved deductively that the sources of wealth will soon be in the possession of a comparatively few if the present accumulations continue. Mr. Beckwith says that such a result is inevitable, and it appears that he is right when one considers that the funds of the average citizen must go into temporary values, while the vast incomes of the multimillionaires must almost as necessarily be invested in permanent values, or in the sources of wealth.

But the proof of the tendency is not dependent upon deduction. Observation indicates the same thing. While the number of farmers in the country is steadily decreasing, it is a matter of record that the number of tenant farmers in North Carolina is increasing. Also when 15,000 men and women can go on a strike in one Tarheel community, the demonstration that the bulk of the population in many areas is already dependent upon wages, is demonstrated.

Till Mr. Beckwith wrote it had not occurred to us to pursue the subject further, but the challenge almost necessarily provokes thought upon the subject, and if we think upon it, we are almost bound to write upon it, sooner or later. Consequently, we can practically assure Mr. Beckwith that the matter will be discussed.

At the moment, we assume that the first matter for consideration would be the real effect of the few's getting possession of the bulk of the permanent wealth of the country, that is, whether it would be so bad as first thought suggests; then would follow discussions of various preventatives, or hindrances, of such a result. But such a series of articles requires mature thought, and that takes time. However, with us, writing is the surest means of thinking consecutively, and each article will make the next easier.

It sometimes occurs to the editor of a county weekly that it is almost a waste of time and energy to give thought to the serious discussions of matters of country wide-significance. Yet this writer consoles himself with the thought that it makes comparatively little difference at what point fire is struck in the prairie or in the woods. It will spread if conditions are right, and if they are not right a blaze started in the very heart of the forest will die out.

QUICK WAY TO END LIVER TROUBLES Free Proof!

Nothing else known to medical science acts so quickly and surely—and yet so gently—as Dodson's Levertone, to regulate biliary liver and bowels; to purge the system of the poisonous waste which makes people headachy, bilious, weak; with coated tongue, bad breath, no appetite or energy. Thousands say they have tried everything and never found its equal. You can prove its merit for yourself. Just write Sterling Products, Wheeling, W. Va., for a FREE sample bottle. Do it today.

DODSON'S Levertone TASTES GOOD - ACTS QUICK

A rumor has gone out from Boone that a suspicion has arisen that the graduates of the Appalachian school in that town are being discriminated against by school authorities because of the part that President Dougherty took in preparing the Hancock bill. The suspicion suggests a littleness and meanness hardly credible.

One of the most difficult things for a writer is to detect his slips in a manuscript, particularly when his mind is in the same state as during the writing. This writer finds it easy to detect errors which he has overlooked in his manuscript when he sees the proof of the printed article, but he hasn't the privilege of reading his proofs. Last week, he now finds, he inadvertently wrote the value of all property in Chatham county as fifty million dollars, when he had in mind $25,000,000, and followed the latter in the following estimates. He discovers, also, that he used 774 pupils conveyed by the school trucks instead of 794 in securing the quota of 32, instead of 33, pupils to the teacher if the conveyed pupils could have been taught in small schools without the expense of conveyance.

Making newspaper properties a matter of merchandise and concentrating the management of them into the hands of a few individuals or syndicates is a practice that should be discouraged. It is more difficult to set up a paper in opposition to one already well established than it is to open an opposition store or factory. Accordingly, when commercial interests have secured the papers existing in strategic centers they have the field until the sacrifice of many thousands of dollars has been made to set one agoing in opposition. It will be a bad day for the country when the newspapers are in the hands of a few syndicates. Made-to-order opinions are not in accord with the true spirit of a free press.

Mt. Zion Locals

To Identify Genuine Aspirin

THE increasing use of Bayer Aspirin every year is proof that it has no ill effects. It is the accepted antidote for pain. It always helps; it never harms. Quick relief when you've a headache, or cold; or are suffering from neuralgia or neuritis. Rheumatic pains yield, too, if you'll only give these tablets a chance. But you want genuine Aspirin, so look for the Bayer Cross on every tablet. The box always bears the name Bayer and the word genuine printed in red.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

Why Not Think?

It's a little thing to do, Just to think. Anyone, no matter who, Ought to think. Take a little time each day From the minutes thrown away; Spare it from your work or play— Stop and think! You will find that men who fail Do not think. Men who find themselves in Jail Do not think. Half the trouble that we see, Trouble brewed for you and me, Probably would never be If we'd think. Shall we, then, consider this? Shall we think? Shall we journey hit or miss? Or shall we think? Let's not go along by guess, But rather to ourselves confess It would help us more or less, If we'd think! —Grant T. Billett, Marietta, Pa. The Pathfinder.

They Should Worry

"They never walk back when I take 'em out," brags the local undertaker.—The Pathfinder.

After having reflected on the burden and anxieties carried by the president of the United States, most of us here in Hamlet have chosen not to run for that office this year.

It is claimed the American home is breaking down. It is surely in danger of doing so if they dance the modern dances on the parlor floor.
