

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Miss Jennie Connell returned home for the week-end after her first week as secretary for an official of the Industrial Commission.

It took some hard work to write that long editorial in this paper. It will take less to read it. Try it.

Mr. Jeter Griffin attended the meeting of the Embalmers Association at Greensboro last week. Mr. Griffin tries to keep in touch with the new ideas in his profession.

Miss Elsie Tyner is listed from Chatham county among the high school graduates of Buie's Creek, or Campbell College.

County Agent Shiver's articles this week are better than usual, and they alone would make the Record worth more to the people of Chatham.

Did you notice that Messrs. J. W. and G. M. Gilliam of Sanford want to buy pulp wood? Write them for specifications and prices. A dollar for waste wood is a mighty good dollar.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Straughan of Durham visited Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hamlet Sunday.

Pittsboro is offering bargains these days. Hall's sale preceding occupancy of one of his store rooms by the Ben Franklin Chain store, continues, and now Mr. S. D. Johnson is advertising a close-out sale. See both advertisements in this paper, and come to Pittsboro for what you need and save money.

Mr. Usher, representing the Jenkins Sale System of Winston-Salem, is here arranging for the Johnson sale which begins Saturday.

Pastor Dailey is conducting revival services at the Pittsboro Methodist church this week. Services, 10 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. You are invited.

Miss Harrison of Wake Forest is conducting a training class in B. Y. P. U. work at the Baptist church this week. Meetings are held at 7 p. m., and close in time for the services at the M. E. church. The Gum Springs B. Y. P. U. are cooperating with the Pittsboro organization.

Don't blame the Hen
if she doesn't produce eggs for you as you think she should. More than likely she's starving—not for want of enough feed, but for the RIGHT feed. Give your hens and you can't go wrong. For this feed has an oatmeal base—contains everything your birds need to enable them to lay regularly. Come in and see this great egg mash.

W. C. JOHNSON
PITTSBORO, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Faison of Roseboro spent Sunday with the latter's parents. Miss Gladys Peterson returned with them to chauffeur Mrs. Faison back to Pittsboro for a longer visit.

Born, Sunday night, May 19, to Mr. and Mrs. Royal J. Shannonhouse, Jr., a son. Mr. and Mrs. Shannonhouse live in New Bern, where the former is employed by the Montgomery Ward Company. This is Rev. R. G. Shannonhouse's first grandchild, and he is duly proud. Mr. C. C. Poe, father of the mother, is a long-time granddaddy.

Mr. Roy Riggsbee is to be manager of the Ben Franklin Chain store which is to open here early in June. Mr. Riggsbee is well known to many of the Chatham county people, having been employed in the Atwater and Lambeth store at Bynum for years. Recently he has been in charge of a store at Burlington, we are told. He is a home man, and the Record congratulates the new enterprise in securing him for the manager. It will make the business more like a home enterprise to have Roy Riggsbee in charge of it.

Mr. W. H. Leonard, now a prominent jeweler and optician of Salisbury, but who lived here forty years ago, was a Pittsboro visitor one day last week. He sought to locate the grave of an infant in the Methodist cemetery in order to have a stone put to it, but could not. Mr. Leonard built one of the old frame stores that was recently burned on the west side of Main street, and stated as he pointed to the rocks of the foundation that he gathered them himself. Mr. Leonard expects to be in this section before long on professional business.

Moncure News

Mr. R. Allen Moore, who has a position with Wachovia Bank at Winston-Salem, spent yesterday, Sunday, with his mother, Mrs. Daisy Moore. Mr. J. E. Bryan, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Bryan of Pittsboro and Mr. Clinton Moore, attended the funeral of his brother, Mr. Murphy Bryan of Buie's Creek last Tuesday, May 14th.

We are glad to state that Capt. J. H. Wissler was able to go to Goldsboro to visit his niece, Mrs. F. K. Borden, one day last week. Captain seems to be improving, but Dr. Cobb, of Goldsboro, who has been his doctor, thought the change would help him. Mrs. Doyle Wilkie accompanied him there as his nurse.

The revival at the Methodist church closed last Tuesday night. We had a gracious revival. There were seven additions to the church. Rev. J. A. Dailey, our pastor, who did the preaching, preached some splendid sermons and there was a real revival in the church and community. Miss Virginia Cathell, who is teaching at the Methodist Orphanage, Raleigh, spent last week-end at home with her parents.

Mr. Sowers and daughter, Miss Norine, of Lexington, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Cathell.

During the storm here last Saturday afternoon, lightning struck and killed one of Mr. J. A. Mim's hogs. The same afternoon lightning struck a tree in Mrs. Florence Wilkie's yard.

Miss Eleanor Ketchie of Merry Oaks is visiting Miss Dorothy Lambeth.

Mrs. C. C. Wheeler and daughter, Miss Jack, of Merry Oaks, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Thomas spent yesterday, Sunday, at Greensboro, with their daughters, who are students at N. C. C. W.

Rev. C. C. Wheeler of Merry Oaks is holding a meeting at Elm City.

Mr. R. S. Clark of Siler City was in town today, Monday, on business. "Children's Day," which has been changed to "Sunday School Day," will be held next Sunday night at Moncure Methodist church at 8 o'clock. The concert that will be given is entitled, "The Roses." The committee, who are getting up the program are Mrs. J. E. Moore, Mrs. Daisy Lambeth and others. The public is cordially invited.

Prof. H. G. Self conducted the Epworth League service last Sunday evening, May 19th, at 8 o'clock. The subject discussed was "Jesus Christ, Our Leader." There was a large crowd of young people present.

Messrs. C. J. Crutchfield and J. L. Womble, Jr., are attending the commencement of White Plains high school, where Mr. Jennings Womble has been teaching mathematics the past year. On returning they will come by Elon College to visit Mr. Glenn Womble, who is a member of the graduating class there this year.

Moncure Bank was closed Monday, May 20th, as it was a general holiday for banks and used as a memorial for the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Strickland of Providence Forge, Va., are visiting relatives in town.

Miss Annie Lassiter, the daughter of Mr. F. M. Lassiter, who has been a student at the Teacher Training School at Boone, is at home for a while. Miss Lassiter expects to attend the first summer school there which opens in June.

CHILDREN OF CONFEDERACY PRESENT FLAG TO COUNTY

A N. C. Confederate flag was presented the county Wednesday of last week by the Children of the Confederacy, of which Miss Carrie Jackson is leader. Court was suspended for the occasion. Mr. Daniel L. Bell made the presentation and the gift was received for the county by Judge Midyette. Appropriate talks were made by both gentlemen.

A smile is a good wrinkle eradicator.

MAKE YOUR MONEY WORK FOR YOU

The reason some people seem so prosperous under all conditions is often because they have money at work for them. They have saved a reasonable portion of their earnings and placed it in the bank on interest. They are then assured of a certain definite income every year.

You have to work for your money. Then make your money work for you. Two dollars per week placed in a savings account every year for ten years will amount with interest to over $1,300.00. Can you not save two dollars per week?

We pay 4 per cent interest and compound the interest quarterly. We would be pleased to have you open an account with us.

THE BANK OF MONCURE
MONCURE, N. C.

A PLEASED DEPOSITOR

The depositor has a right to expect his bank to return his money on demand, or pay it to some one else on his order.

Is he justified in that belief? He CERTAINLY IS. That's the one big aim of our Bank—to safeguard the funds entrusted to our care. We are ready at all times to pay our depositors in full, to justify the confidence reposed in this old, reliable Bank, and at the same time give our patrons the benefit of our modern banking facilities.
