

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Dr. Pilkington reports a good time at the druggists' convention in Asheville last week.

Miss Jennie Connell, who holds a position in Raleigh, was at home for the week-end.

Pete Powell, Russell Griffin, Billy Chapin, and Roland White are at Fort Bragg for a few weeks of military training.

Nathaniel Powell returned a few days ago from a two-weeks visit to his uncle Mr. Nat Hill in Kinston.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hinton and daughter Miss Gaynelle, of Clayton, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hinton.

Misses Josephine and Alberta Enell of Raleigh have been guests of Mrs. D. B. Noce.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wirtz and daughter Gloria, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hellen of Chapel Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Matthews and Miss Virginia Bean spent the week-end at Wrightsville Beach.

Miss Jane Allen of Troy, who came over with Dr. and Mrs. Irlie Farrell, remained to visit Miss Lucile Farrell a week, and is spending this week with Miss Cammie Hamlet. She is a sister of Mrs. Irlie Farrell.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Faison of Roseboro were accompanied on their peripatetic visit to the latter's parents here Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Alton Royal of Roseboro. Also, Miss Lucile Peterson returned with them for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Faison.

Mrs. Lula Jones is receiving treatment in a Raleigh hospital. Her niece Miss Pauline Taylor is with her. Miss Emily Taylor in the meantime is making her home with Mrs. W. C. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Weeks of Florida spent a day here last week with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weeks.

Mrs. Fred Jerome and children left Tuesday for Louisiana, in which state Mr. Jerome has been employed some time as a highway engineer. Mrs. Jerome will probably reside at Shreveport.

Miss Nannie Roberts Johnson entertained a number of her little friends one afternoon last week on the occasion of her eight birthday.

Don't forget the big Fourth of July celebration at Siler City. Attorney General Brummitt is to speak at 11 o'clock.

The Record failed to get a full account of the marriage of Mr. Will London for this issue, but is promised one with all the fixings in it for next week.

Mrs. R. R. Gordon returned a few days ago from a visit of ten or twelve days in Moore county.

Messrs. Newton Moore, Clyde Bland, Nyal Womble, Rufus Johnson, Jr., and Bryce Poe took a jaunt to Washington City a few days ago.

Mr. J. O. Bryant has a 25-acre field of corn that he is bragging on. From all descriptions it is fine.

Mr. S. D. Johnson is advertising an auction sale of goods to last two hours Saturday, from 2 to 4 p. m. There is a chance to buy at your own price.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Haley of Durham announce the birth of a daughter, June 11. Mrs. Haley will be remembered here as Miss Beatrice Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike London of Rockingham, Mrs. John Anderson and children were visitors at the home of Mrs. Henry A. London Sunday.

Mrs. Joe Wirtz sponsored a doll party for little Miss Gloria Wirtz one afternoon last week in which the latter, recently come from Connecticut to live with her father and her new mother, entertained sixteen of the Pittsboro children in what really was a get-acquainted party.

Work is progressing finely on the Geddie Fields brick building here. Give Geddie a half-chance and he would make a town of Pittsboro.

The addition to the silk mill plant is completed. When the additional machines are installed it will mean work and a greater payroll.

Rev. George R. Underwood, who has been very seriously ill and in a Sanford hospital for treatment, has recuperated sufficiently to be brought home Monday. Mrs. Underwood, it is understood, remained in Sanford in touch with her husband during his stay in the hospital.

Mr. Chaffin, an engineer of Sanford, was here Monday with a view to securing either the supervision of the street work to be done here or perhaps to put in a bid for the contract with the possibility of performing both duties, that of contractor and of engineer.

A thief cut his way into Mr. R. M. Connell's store on highway 93 one night last week and got four hams, a barrel of flour, candy, etc. The next night a ham was stolen from the smokehouse.

Sections of the county have been too wet for ploughing for the past two weeks with the exception of possibly a day or two. Big rains from Bynum eastward the first of last week, and a latter one that week, and then a general rain Sunday night have put the farmers in that section in a bad plight. Hall also injured some crops the first of last week in the Bynum section.

Mr. Robert Connell is spending a few days with his brother William in Washington, D. C.

Messrs. Preston Carter and Sid Jordan, who have been located at Roxboro and employed in maintenance of state highways, are assigned to the Pittsboro district and will move here immediately.

Mrs. R. H. Burns, who spent the winter and spring with her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Winchester, at Monroe, and her son, Mr. R. H. Burns at Whiteville, returned to Pittsboro Monday. She was met here by Mr. A. M. Burns of Roxboro and Mrs. Norris of Raleigh. The latter will spend the summer here with her mother.

Messrs. Hall and Riggsbee are working day and late into the night in preparing for the opening of the Ben Franklin store, but the task is too great for them to get ready for the opening next Saturday. Hence, it is postponed a week. Look next for an announcement of opening. It will be a real store.

Miss Olivia Harmon is home from Radcliffe, Boston, for the summer. The young lady is getting close to her Ph. D. degree.

Miss Lina Burnett Moore of Bynum is spending the week with Mrs. Ed. Hinton.

Messrs. Harry Norwood, George Brooks, Jeter Griffin, and R. S. Thompson attended a Masonic meeting at Oxford Tuesday.

Miss Irene Moore, who holds a position with the American Banking and Trust Company of Charlotte, is visiting her sister Mrs. J. S. Waters. Also Mr. Water's sister Miss Marguerite Waters, who has been visiting her brother, will remain till the fall and attend the teachers' training class.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Horton and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Farrell left Tuesday for a visit to Asheville.

Mrs. Robert Pickard, of the Mammal community, died Monday and was buried Tuesday at Mt. Olive Baptist church. Revs. B. L. Gupton and Rabon Ellis conducted the funeral services. Mrs. Pickard was formerly Miss Bettie Buckner. She returned a few days previous to her death from a stay of two months at the Montrose Sanatorium.

Rev. R. G. Shannonhouse returned the first of the week from Hendersonville, where he performed the marriage ceremony for a nephew, Mr. J. M. Shannonhouse. Mrs. Shannonhouse, who accompanied her husband, is spending this week with a sister of her husband in Saluda.

Mr and Mrs. J. G. Goodwin spent two days last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fogleman near Staley.

Rain Sunday night and Tuesday night delays farming operations. Some sections of the county have been without an opportunity to plough for more than three days in three weeks. The crop situation again looks gloomy.

Each summer night may be calm, peaceful, undisturbed. Just by using FLY-TOX. Spraying the sleeping rooms. Killing the mosquitoes. Everyone knows mosquitoes are disease carriers. They must be killed. Health authorities advocate FLY-TOX. It is the scientific insecticide developed at Mellon Institute of Industrial Research by Rex Research Fellowship. Simple instructions on each bottle (blue label) for killing ALL house-hold insects. INSIST ON FLY-TOX. It is safe, stainless, and has a perfume-like fragrance.—Adv.

EXPLANATION IS EASY

(Elizabeth City Advance)
Catching up on the reading of some of our exchanges that stacked up on us during the press convention, we find the Gastonia Gazette at a loss to understand why the State press as a whole seemed less stirred by the shooting down of a police chief in Gastonia than by the destruction last April of the property of Gastonia strikers.

The explanation is easy. It is found, indeed, in the very issue and in the same column in which the query is propounded. There were 5 persons in jail charged with complicity in the murder of the Gastonia police chief. There was never an arrest made, if our memory does not fail us, following the destruction of the strikers' property. Certainly nothing of any consequence was ever done about it.

Not the crime of the killing of a police chief versus the crime of the destruction of the strikers' property is the issue but the indifference to crime on the part of those charged with enforcing it in the April instance as compared with the prompt jailing of more than three score charged with complicity in the shooting of a police chief some two months later—that is the question.

In the first instance, crime was going unpunished. In the second, crime had been followed by vigorous action by the authorities. It was the first case, therefore, that was unusual in North Carolina and that called for vigorous expressions from the State press.
