

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Miss Elizabeth Blair left yesterday to attend Louisville College.

Harvey Harmon, son of Mr. J. W. Harmon, killed 27 snakes in one day recently.

Miss Nenah Jones will teach this session at the Eli Whitney school, Alamance county.

Wyeth Ray, who graduated at the University in June, has gone to Mount Ulla, Rowan county, to teach the coming session.

Miss Clara Hearne has returned to Rosemary to take up her responsible work as supervisor of the elementary grades of the great Rosemary school.

A free-for-all fight at a colored meeting place near Siler City Sunday created some commotion. Officers had a lively time making arrests.

There is always considerable personal news of farmers, 4-H club boys, and others on the Farm Page. Always read that. It is one of the best features of the Record.

Misses Catherine Johnson and Louise Brooks are teaching at Bell's this fall. The school opened Monday. Miss Johnson is music teacher, and has been for the past two or three years.

Tax sales were on the double-quick Monday. The county was purchaser of the most of the advertised lands. Delinquents can redeem the lands within 18 months, but it will be an expensive deal.

Shine Green, colored, was captured a few days ago while transferring four sacks of sugar and two of meal to vessels ready for making beer for a still. He lost meal and sugar and will be a candidate for the roads.

Mr. D. L. Burns brought about two score of ripe strawberries Saturday. In the strawberry belt berries are not unusual in the late fall, but this is unusual. The freakish weather of this summer, however, can account for almost anything.

The Sanford Express states that the Carolina Coal Company had last week 135 hands at work, divided into two shifts, and that they are taking out large quantities of coal. Many of the 135 are experienced miners and getting good wages, states the Express.

Mr. W. L. Farrell and Mr. A. P. Terry have swapped residences. The change will put Mrs. Farrell near her mother. The former Farrell place, now Mr. Terry's, is near the court house and may one day be business property. Mr. Farrell gets the advantage in acre, his new place contains about three acres.

Mr. Willie Morgan is at home this week. He is a student at the University, where he acts as assistant to Mr. Harmon at Swain Hall. The job has held him during the summer school, and his vacation is accordingly short.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon and Mrs. Henry A. London and Miss Carrie Jackson will return today from an extended visit in New York and Trenton, N. J. The London home has been closed for several weeks, and it will be pleasing to have these good folk at home again.

His friends welcome Dr. George Kirkman back to the county. The doctor is an eye specialist. He has practiced in Kinston a number of years, returned two or three weeks ago from McCormick Medical College, Chicago, where he has been taking a special course, and has located in Siler City, his office being over the Chatham Bank.

Mrs. C. M. Lance, wife of the former pastor of the Pittsboro M. E. church, after undergoing a successful operation at Watts Hospital, has been here at the Blair Hotel a few days in order to be convenient to the hospital. Her sister, Miss Eva Culbreth, has been with her. Mrs. Lance had to receive blood transfusions in order to strengthen her for the operation, and several Pittsboro friends furnished the blood. Mr. Lance is pastor at Ellerbe.

Many a dream is a nightmare with her make-up off.

There is a "Death Chamber" in the FLY-TOX factory. This chamber is about the room size. It is used to test the quality of FLY-TOX as a spray to kill flies, mosquitoes, bed bugs, roaches, etc. During a test a large number of young, healthy insects are raised in incubators for testing purposes. While the insects are flying and crawling around in the "Chamber of Death," FLY-TOX is sprayed inside. Less than a teaspoonful is used. Instantly there is a change. Within five minutes not a buzz is heard. All insects are dead. To make sure they are really dead, the insects are carefully removed from the "Chamber of Death" and placed in incubators in an effort to revive them. If a wing flutters, the FLY-TOX tested never leaves the factory. This test is your guarantee of FLY-TOX quality. It does what you want it to do—kill insects in and about your home. Yet, FLY-TOX is positively harmless to people. FLY-TOX was developed at Mellen Institute of Industrial Research by Rex Research fellowship. It will not stain. Has a delightful perfume-like fragrance. There is only one FLY-TOX—insist upon the genuine in bottles with blue labels.—Adv.

Miss Jennie Connell was home from Raleigh for a day or two.

Mr. W. H. Griffin, who has spent several weeks at Connelly Springs, is back home.

Messrs. Rufus Abernathy of Bynum and Nyal Womble of Pittsboro entered Elon College this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Glona A. Charles and daughter, of Aberdeen, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Crews Sunday.

Mr. L. O. Curtis, who recently took over the ice business here, will move his family from Siler City to Pittsboro next week.

Mr. Tom Burke and family of the White's Bridge community, accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Fields, spent Sunday at White Lake.

Hon. W. D. Siler, after spending some days in a Richmond hospital for ear trouble treatment, spent a few days in Chatham last week and this.

Mr. H. B. Jones and family, of the White's bridge community, had as guests Mrs. J. A. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holt, Jr., Miss Mildred Holt and Mr. Rupert Powell.

Mr. W. B. Perry, manager of the Jones department store here, has moved his family from Siler City into the residence of the 'Squire J. R. Blair.

Miss Melba Austin of Raleigh and her guest, Miss Mary Kyle of Washington, D. C., visited Miss Essie and Gladys Peterson Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Frances Rawley of Winston-Salem spent a few days with Miss Bernice Shields of Pittsboro, route 3, before her school opened at Siler City.

Miss Marian Curtis of Greensboro visited Miss Alma Dailey, returning home Tuesday. Miss Dailey herself left Wednesday for Greensboro to continue her studies at Greensboro College.

Meetings of the county commissioners and the board of education brought a goodly crowd of representative citizens of the county to Pittsboro Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lindley of Pittsboro, route 2, spent several days last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Fogleman near Staley. They also visited relatives in Greensboro and at Guilford College.

Revival services will begin at Goldston Baptist church next Sunday, September 8th. Rev. J. C. Canipe, pastor of the Siler City church, will do the preaching. Services Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend. Mr. Canipe is a good preacher and his sermons well worth hearing.

Messrs. Rufus J. Johnson, Jr., and Lloyd Nooe left Tuesday to matriculate at Campbell College, Buies Creek. Rufus is a basket ball player from away back and if the Campbell team takes him, we may expect to hear of its winning victories next winter. By the way, Rufus has lost, right here in Pittsboro, his basket ball watch charm and should like to have the finder return it to him. It was a gift from Supt. Waters and is therefore highly appreciated as a souvenir.

Miss Alice Bland, eldest daughter of Mr. J. T. Bland, was married in South Carolina Saturday to Mr. Roy McManus of Sanford. The young couple left for Gretna Green without a hint to the home folk, and the family was quite disturbed before their return Sunday night. They will live in Sanford. The bride is a fine-looking young woman and should make her husband a good wife. Her friends wish her well, but the next time she runs off to get married she should be generous enough to leave some hint—and this is a hint to other girls who should play the same trick.

NOTICE OF SALE

Under and by virtue of a certain decree made and entered in that certain special proceeding now pending in the Superior Court of Chatham County, North Carolina, entitled "Jas L. Griffin, Adm. of J. M. Bland estate and others, and described as follows: Bounded on the north by the lands of T. M. Bland estate; on the west by the right-of-way of the Pittsboro Railroad; on the south by the lands of Jenks estate; and on the west by the Newman lands, and containing 35 acres more or less, and being more fully defined in the title deeds by which J. J. Brooks held the same, SAVE AND EXCEPT, HOWEVER, the dower interest of Mrs. Sallie Brooks, which is described as follows: Beginning at the southwest corner of the above tract, Jenks line and running thence about east 163 yards; thence about north 160 yards; thence about west 180 yards; thence about south 219 yards, to the beginning. The purchaser will receive this EXCEPTION upon the death of Mrs. Sallie Brooks. This is a re-sale made upon order of the Court, for an advance bid having been filed. This 21 August, 1929. WADE BARBER, Commissioner (Aug 29, Sep 5) Siler and Barber, Attns.

Rev. George R. Underwood, who has been in a Salisbury hospital for several weeks, has returned home and is somewhat better.

Mr. June Goodwin of New Hope township had a mule killed Tuesday on the New Hope bridge on highway ninety by a truck driven by a son of Colon Booth, who is in jail here. Mrs. Booth and son were coming to Pittsboro to see him.

Miss Emily Phillips of Bennett and Mr. Garrell Bundren of Knoxville, Tenn., were married August 16, 1929, in Dillon, S. C., by Rev. J. D. Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Bundren are now making their home in Fayetteville, N. C.

Robert Burns had a rib fractured and was bruised somewhat in a car collision Tuesday night at the Burns filling station. He was coming out from the station when Rowland Farrell came along highway 75. A collision was unavoidable. Mr. Farrell was not hurt to count. Both cars were considerably damaged.

CERTIFICATE OF DISSOLUTION

State of North Carolina, Department of State. TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME—GREETING: WHEREAS, It appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the FARMERS MILLING CO., of GOLDSTON, INC., a corporation of this state, whose principal office is situated at No. Street, in the town of Goldston, County of Chatham, State of North Carolina, Jacob Dixon being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served), has complied with the requirements of Chapter 22, Consolidated Statutes, entitled "Corporations," preliminary to the issuing of this Certificate of Dissolution: NOW WHEREAS, J. A. Hartness, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 26th day of June, 1929, file in my office a duly executed and arrested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law. FORDFAX Volume 1 SEPTEMBER 5, 1929 No. 4 Published in the interest of the people of Pittsboro and vicinity by Weeks Motor Co. J. C. Weeks, Editor Several car deliveries have been made by us since last issue. Mr. A. T. Goodwin of R. F. D. No. 3, Apex, and Mr. E. L. Goodwin, same address, each bought a pickup job with closed cab. This makes a fine job for hauling tobacco. A friend, whose wife claims that he is a go-getter, is an individual who eats at a cafeteria. We are glad to see so many fine-looking school teachers in good old Chatham this year. We hope they are all interested in buying a new Ford Car. Have your new Ford greased here. If a man will talk, you can size him up quickly. Lost in Charlotte Monday, August 26th, one new Ford truck. The driver took it for granted that the drivers ahead would follow the first squad of good-looking girls that came along so he followed the girls and got lost. "Mother, I want to get married." "No, my dear, you are not wise enough." "When shall I be wise enough?" "When you get over the idea that you want to get married." Visit our show room. We like to know that you are interested in the new Ford car. "My dear," she gushed, "I nearly died when I was in the country last summer." "Were you ill?" he asked sympathetically. "Was I ill? It was awful. I gained five pounds." Boost Pittsboro.
