

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Captain John London, of the U. S. Navy, visited his mother recently.

Rufus Johnson and Lloyd Nooe were home Sunday from Campbell College.

Mr. Frank Pierce, Pittsboro sailor-man, with Mrs. Pierce, has been visiting his mother here.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hunt is about complete and they will soon be moving in.

It is probable that the new grocery, one of the Progressive chain, will open next week.

Miss Lucille Farrell left Saturday to teach in the St. Paul school, of which Prof. Franklin, formerly Pittsboro principal, is head.

Mr. W. J. Durham had the pleasure of visits Sunday from his son, John R. and wife, of Winston-Salem, J. M. Durham and sons of Orange county, and Henry Johnson and family.

The ladies of Mt. Pleasant Methodist church will sell ice cream and other good eats, such as fried chicken, next Saturday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. Will Norwood. You are invited.

Mr. Lester Farrell, who was reported as having gone to Mars Hill College, returned and decided to enter Wake Forest, which he did this week. He was accompanied over to the college by his parents and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Griffin.

We call attention to Dr. G. H. Kirkman's advertisement. He is a Chatham county man and an experienced eye specialist.

Miss Bernice Shields of the White's Bridge community, a young lady of fine musical talent, has gone to Dover to take charge of the musical department in the Dover school.

The demand for more room at the Pittsboro school has led to an attempt to secure funds from the state loan fund to build two additional rooms. Mr. J. J. Blair, supervisor of buildings for the state board of education, was here Saturday to suggest the location of the needed rooms. The enrollment at the school is over six hundred and the rooms are crowded, and some grades so full that it is almost out of the question for justice to be done the pupils.

The following named young men are matriculating at the University: Will Morgan, Lewis Carroll, Lucy Harper, Jake Harper, Lawrence and John London, Billie Norwood, Raymond-Avent, C. C. Hamlet, Lee Powell, Brooks Petty, Albert Powell, Ed Ferguson, Vernon Durham, Joseph and Josiah Ferguson, Fred Thomas, Wade Goldston, Bryan Dunlap. There are perhaps others from the county but this is as complete a list as we can get at this writing.

Messrs. Walton Gilmore and Lester Johnson, accompanied by their fathers, Ivey Gilmore and Jack Johnson, left the first of the week for Dayton, Va., where they will enter college, making music a specialty. Walton Gilmore had just returned from Tennessee, where he visited his sister, who has a responsible position as proof reader in a publishing house. The fathers while gone will visit Mr. Johnson's uncle, Mr. Rufus White, who is superintendent of the Royal Orchards on the Blue Ridge in Virginia.

Flies are dangerous. They are also the filthiest insect known. They deposit germs in three ways. By contact, vomit spots and excreta. They taint everything they touch. FLY-TOX kills flies. It is safe, stainless. Simple instructions on each bottle (blue label) for killing ALL household insects. INSIST ON FLY-TOX. FLY-TOX is the scientific insecticide developed at Mellon Institute of Industrial Research by Rex Research Fellowship. FLY-TOX brings health, comfort and cleanliness with its perfume-like fragrance.—Adv.

The new candy kitchen has been named the Norbrook, a combination of the names of the proprietors.

Henry and Armand Fell of Trenton, N. J., have been visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Henry A. London.

Rev. R. B. John, formerly a pastor in this county, spent Tuesday night with Mr. Ed Fearington for the first time in twenty years and one may know that there was some old-time talking.

The U. D. C. had a pleasant meeting Friday at the D. L. Alston home. Also the Woman's Club held their first meeting of the fall in the club room. When these meetings are ancient history we shall probably receive a full account of them. It is a pleasure to give space to them, but we much prefer news before it is hoary with age.

VALUABLE traveling bag found by Lonnie Cooper, Pittsboro, route 1. Owner should see or write him.

UNION RATES "But," expostulated the movie star, "this divorce will cost me almost double what you told me it would."

"It's this way," explained her lawyer. "You people are giving the court so much work to do that they're charging time and a half for overtime."

PLAY AT BYNUM

The young people of Brown's Chapel will give a play Saturday evening, September 21, at the school building in Bynum for the benefit of Brown Chapel church and the Bynum school.

This is the play recently given at Gum Springs under the auspices of Mrs. E. J. Dark and Mr. J. R. Goodwin. The title is "Darktown Garden Party," and is negro minstrel. The "True Workers" class will have refreshments on the grounds at 6 o'clock. The play will be given at 8 o'clock. The Saxapahaw string band will furnish music. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Bear Creek News

Roger Abbott, who has lived in Goldston for the past few months, has moved to Mrs. W. L. Goldston's place on route 2, where his father, Rufus Abbott, formerly lived. We are glad to welcome this family back to this route.

Miss Mamie Burke, who works in Burlington, spent the week-end with home folks, near Meroney church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Womble and daughters, Belle and Sue, of Apopka, Fla., are visiting relatives around here. Mr. Womble and family moved from Chatham to Florida over 20 years ago. He lived before moving away from this county, where F. C. Straughan now lives. Their many friends will be delighted to learn that they are back for a visit.

Chas. H. Wicker of route 2, near Goldston, had the misfortune to lose his home last Friday by fire. The fire had gained so much headway, very few things were taken out of the house. Mr. Wicker's friends will sympathize with him in this great loss.

The children, relatives and friends of Mrs. R. R. Dunn gave her a birthday dinner at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Ivey, of Bear Creek, last Sunday, September 15. All her children were present except R. C. Dunn, of Goldston, route 1, and Mrs. L. J. Rives, of Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Griffith and son, of Greensboro, were week-end visitors in the home of O. G. Tysor.

Mrs. T. P. Beaver is visiting her son, W. B. Beaver, of Durham, this week.

Mrs. T. C. Vestal is slowly improving at St. Leo's Hospital, Greensboro.

S. G. Norwood, of Greensboro, is spending sometime with his father, M. F. Norwood.

Mrs. H. F. Baldwin, after spending sometime visiting her stepmother, Mrs. J. H. Lane, of route two, has returned to her home in Reno, Nevada.

Mrs. S. T. Coggins, of Greensboro, is visiting in and near Bear Creek.

RINGING THE BELLE

Bill Bradford, prize dancer among the Hollywood camera fraternity, took a girl to a dance in Pasadena and owing to the fact that his car was laid up, was forced to use a taxi. A pleasant evening was had by all and Bill was in a happy frame of mind until the taxi driver presented his bill.

Promising Career

"I remember you," said the good old friend, "when you were considered a very promising young man." "Yes," answered Senator Sorghum, "and I think I have made good. My hopeful constituents will bear me out when I say I have been promising one thing or another ever since."—Washington Star.

HIS WAY WAS ROUGH

He—Are you going my way? She—No, not from the little remarks I hear about the way you're going.

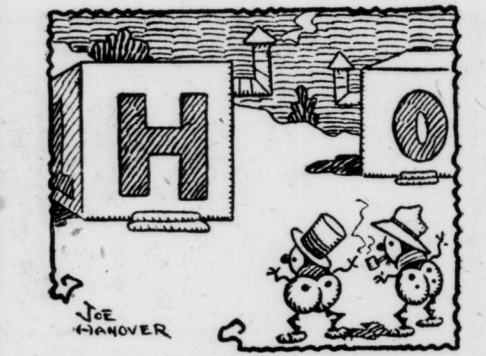

Time's Change Beside the filling station now The village smith he stands, And many dollars fall into His large and sinewy hands.

Selfish Man Mr. Knagg—I dreamed I bought a new seven-passenger car and we were starting off on a trip, but before you were ready I woke up. His Wife—If that isn't just like your selfishness! And you had plenty of time to dream till I'd got into my clothes and made at least a start with you.

His Bright Future "Has my boy," wrote the proud parent, "a natural bent in any one direction?" "He has," replied the schoolmaster. "He gives every indication of being an industrial magnet some day. He gets the other boys to do all his work for him."

Said in Its Favor Her Husband—Is that the evening gown that cost me $600? Mrs. Upstyle—This is it. Isn't it a dream? Her Husband—Well, I'll say this much for it; at that rate I sure couldn't afford to cover you decently.

WONDERS OF THE WEST

Eastern Bug—What funny looking houses. Western Bug—Didn't you ever hear of block-houses?

Idle Fishermen A loafing day fulfilled their wish. Through streams they did not care to roam. What was the use of catching fish? They'd left the camera at home.

Beats All Others Cole—They say that Jabber's son could talk when he was three weeks old. Dole—That isn't in it with Job The Bible states he cursed the day he was born.

In a Quandary Friend—Say, why don't you have your horse shod? Farmer—Well, when I'm using him I can't do it, and when I'm not, he doesn't need it.

A Practical Girl Cora—Why do you send out your wedding invitations so far in advance? Dora—Most of our friends keep their money in savings banks and have to give notice.

No Use Advertising Briggs—I've lost my new car. Griggs—Why don't you report it to the sheriff? Briggs—He's the one that took it.

It Could Be Worse Customer—It's tough to have to pay 50 cents for that steak. Cashier—Yes, but it would be tougher if you only paid 25 cents.

An Accident All Round The Mistress—Oh, Jane, however did you go and break the vase? Jane—Very sorry, mum—I was accidentally dusting it.

WANT ADS

EGGS WANTED at 40 cents at R. J. Moore & Company's, Bynum.

WANTED: Tenants for one and two-horse crops, A. B. Clegg, Moncure, RFD 1.

MILK—Better milk—Aerator cooled, bottles sterilized. No more complaints of sour milk. Let me furnish you. Lexie Clark.

BUY YOUR SHOES at R. J. Moore & Company's, Bynum.

HALF-GALLON Fruit jars at Poe and Moore's. $1.10 a dozen.

SUGAR: 100 pounds sugar for $5.50, 25 pounds for $1.45. At C. E. Durham's, Bynum. Jul25tf

LARD: Swift's Jewel, Southern Rose, and Hermitage, all for 12 1/2 cents a pound by 60 lb. tub. At C. E. Durham's. Give him a call.

GOODRICH SILVERTOWN TIRES —If you want a tire the quality and price of this famous tire fills the bill. C. E. Durham, Bynum.

TIRES AND TUBES, good quality at medium prices at R. J. Moore & Company's, Bynum.

BULK TURNIP SEED, Virginia Abruzzi, Vetch Seed, Crimson Clover, Seeds for all kinds of seeds. J. H. Monger, Sanford, N. C.

PROFESSIONAL nurse. I am located in Pittsboro and offer my services as a professional nurse to the people of Chatham county. Elsie Lucile Peterson, R. N.

WOODS' Turnip Seed in bulk at Chatham Hardware Company's store.

CHICKEN FEED, sweet feeds, oats, etc., wholesale or retail at lowest prices at Poe and Moore's, Pittsboro.

STAR BRAND SHOES—A new shipment, all sizes for men, women and children at C. E. Durham's.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The music department of the Woman's Club held its first regular meeting for this year in the club room last Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 with Miss Emily Taylor, chairman, presiding.

The meeting was opened by a union reading of the club collect, after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and the roll called by Mrs. R. G. Shannhouse. It was announced that eleven members were present and that three new ones had been added to the department's roll.

A motion was made and seconded that the department meetings be held on the third Thursday night in each month.

The chairman announced that Mrs. Mattie Thompson has invited the department to meet with her next month.

A questionnaire in which those present took an enjoyable part concluded the program, and the members then joined in a meeting of the entire club.

FRANCES JOHNSON, Secy.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

There has been a revival in the marriage line after a dull season of several weeks. The following couples have secured licenses this month: White—G. G. Cheek and Martha Lillie Jones, both of Pittsboro, route 1; Wade A. Holt and Dorothy Willett, Siler City; Willis J. Durham and Nannie A. Carter; colored—Verdie Headen and Madge Brooks, Siler City; Forest Caldwell and Vivian Headen, Siler City; J. Van Mitchell and Beatrice Eubanks, Pittsboro; George Haiselips and Nannie Taylor, Gulf; Jennings Edwards and Cozart Fox, Siler City; George W. Savoid and Tamar Smith, Haywood; Ed Mitchell and Lugenia Lane, Siler City; Alton Williams and Nannie Harris, Siler City.

There have been several notices given of intent to apply for license.

Advertisement for Dr. Geo. B. Kirkman, Eye Sight Specialist, located in Siler City, N. C. Includes contact information and a testimonial.

Advertisement for Galvanized Roofing and Goldston Hardware Co., featuring 5-V Crimp, 29 Gauge, rock bottom prices and various hardware items.

Large advertisement for CAVINESS Youthful CO-ED dresses, exclusively in Siler City and Pittsboro, inspired by Paris fashion.

Advertisement for FORDFAX, Volume 1, September 19, 1929, No. 6. Includes a list of articles and a subscription notice.