

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones of Greensboro visited the latter's mother Mrs. Thompson this week. Note the advertisement of chicken sale. Cash will be paid for chickens at good prices at Boone Bros. store next Tuesday. Mr. W. A. West has opened a barbecue stand and filling station in the new station erected by the Whites on highway ninety near the Williams home. Mrs. George Brewer has been at the bedside of her aged father, Mr. Sears of Durham, this week. Mr. Sears is about 85 years of age and his condition is reported as very unfavorable. Mrs. Henry A. London, Mrs. J. M. Gregory, Mrs. W. B. Chapin, Mrs. Victor Johnson and possibly other Pittsboro ladies attended the annual meeting of the State U. D. C. at Statesville this week. Rev. Mr. Hester, a young minister of the Christian denomination, whose home is at Fuquay Springs, preached for Pastor Maness at Buckhorn M. E. church Sunday morning. Pastor Maness filled the evening appointment and spent the night with Mr. J. W. Williams. The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church held its annual meeting in Roxboro last Friday. Those attending from St. Bartholomew church were: Mrs. Arthur London, Mrs. J. W. Hunt, Mrs. Laura Morgan, Mrs. F. C. Mann, Mrs. Henry London, Mrs. Shannonhouse, Mrs. James H. Cordeon, Mrs. Victor Johnson. County Agent Shiver and Mrs. Shiver and child have returned from their vacation with relatives in South Carolina. Mr. Shiver reports cotton in bad condition in the Clemson College section, it was sprouting in the fields. He will be back with this section in the Record next week. Miss Minnie Bell left October 4 for Four Oaks, Johnston county, where she is a member of the faculty of the great school there. Four Oaks is only a village; yet the school enrolls pupils and has 35 teachers. A large number of trucks convey the pupils from a broad area to this school.

When the waters from up this way got down into Bladen they played havoc, breaking over a Cape Fear levee and covering thousands of acres of crops and surrounding hundreds of homes. Mr. T. D. Bynum, R. F. D. carrier on route 5 from Siler City, spent Monday night with his brother, Mr. G. L. Bynum, near Pittsboro. The latter has been quite ill with measles, though he thought that he had had the measles earlier in life. Mr. Howard N. Butler, superintendent of the Carolina Coal Company, and Mrs. Butler passed through Pittsboro Tuesday noon on their way north for several days. Mrs. Butler is visiting her parents at Kane, Pa., while Mr. Butler makes a business trip to New York. Mrs. J. L. Griffin was honored with election to the presidency of this district of the Woman's Club at the session of the district convention at Apex last week. Mrs. Griffin served exceptionally as president of Pittsboro club for several years, and is exceptionally well qualified to make a good official for the district organization.

Bear Creek News Mrs. Addie Rives Elkins died at her home on Bear Creek, Rt. 2, Friday afternoon, October 4th, following an illness of 10 days with pneumonia. She had been very sick but hope was held for her until a day or two before she died. She remained conscious to the end. She was a daughter of the late Mr. D. E. and Mrs. Julia Rives, being born March 13, 1883, therefore was 46 years, 6 months and 22 days old. She was married to Paul L. Elkins on December 25, 1906, and to this union were born 7 children, six boys and one girl, five of which survive, four boys and one girl. Two boys, David Jackson and Francis, died while small. Mrs. Elkins was converted and joined Rives Chapel Baptist church in girlhood, but later moved her membership to Sandy Branch Baptist church, where she remained a faithful member until death. It can truthfully be said, there has never lived a more consecrated Christian life than she lived. I recall when her son Francis died how submissive she was to the will of God. She relied upon the strong arm of God. She made mention of a song which was sung at his funeral: "Just When I Need Him Most," expressing that He was near to her that she could say God's will be done, not mine. The funeral was held from Sandy Branch Baptist church, being conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. W. Byler, of Bonlee, assisted by Rev. L. M. Chaffin, of Goldston, both speaking of faithfulness at their church services. She not only will be missed at her church, but at others as well, for she took part in the worship wherever attended. She is survived by her husband, four sons, one daughter, one brother, H. R. Rives, of Goldston, three half brothers, Messrs. Geo. E. and D. A. Rives, of Goldston, and C. J. Rives, Bear Creek, Rt. 2, one half sister, Mrs. W. B. Cheek, of Rt. 1, Chapel Hill. There were many floral designs, which were very beautiful. The interment was made in the church cemetery. May God, in His wise providence, comfort the bereaved in their sad hours. The surviving children are: Lindon, of Greensboro, Harold, Clarence, Woodrow, and Pauline. Mr. Quincy Moore and Mrs. J. H. McIver, both of Siler City, Rt. 5, were married recently. Mr. Moore is a son of Wesley Moore, of Siler City, Rt. 5, while the bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Emerson, of Siler City, Rt. 5. We wish for them a long and happy life. Mr. John Robert Snipes, son of J. H. Snipes, of Rt. 2, and Miss Lelia Justice, of Pittsboro, Rt. 2, were married last Thursday, October 3rd. They immediately left for a bridal tour to Pilot Mountain. We join their many friends in wishing this fine couple a happy life together. Mrs. G. B. (Stella) Emerson has been appointed Postmaster here to fill the vacancy that has existed since Rev. G. C. Phillips resigned in April, 1928, to take a rural route from Altamahaw. Mr. H. J. Elkins, of Greensboro, was a week-end visitor in the home of P. L. Elkins.

Working in relays, 35 men resuscitated two-year-old Elmer Royon of Chicago, who had been under water for 25 minutes.

MR. READER, have you noticed the difference in the flavor of fruits freshly gathered and that of those kept on hand for some time? The same thing applies to candies. NorBrook candies are fresh. They have a distinctive flavor.

CLUB NOTES The music department of the Woman's Club held its second regular meeting for this year on Monday night, October 7th, at the home of Mrs. W. B. Chapin, with Mrs. Chapin and Mrs. Mattie Thompson as hostesses. Miss Emily Taylor, chairman, called the meeting to order, after which the club hymn was sung and the collect read. The minutes were read and the roll called. Fourteen members were present and a new one added to the department's roll. Mrs. V. R. Johnson gave, in a most interesting manner, an outline of the district meeting that was held at Apex last week. The chairman appointed Mrs. W. P. Horton, Mrs. H. A. Bynum, and Mrs. V. R. Johnson as a committee to select some objective for the department to accomplish this year. They will give their report at the next meeting. At the close of the business meeting the following program was much enjoyed. Sketch of the life of John Howard Payne, author of "Home, Sweet Home," Miss Margaret Siler. The chairman had a copy of the original manuscript of this song, and a picture of the author's home. "Home, Sweet Home," vocal solo, Mrs. H. A. Bynum. The new verses to "Home, Sweet Home," Mrs. Mattie Thompson. "Clippings From Home," reading, Mrs. V. R. Johnson. "The One Hour When We All Meet," poem, Mrs. W. F. Bland. "Homing," vocal solo, Mrs. W. B. Chapin. We were delighted to have our newly appointed president of this district, Mrs. James L. Griffin, as a guest. The hostesses served a delightful sweet course at the conclusion of the program. Miss Emily Taylor, Chm., and Miss Frances Johnson, Sec.

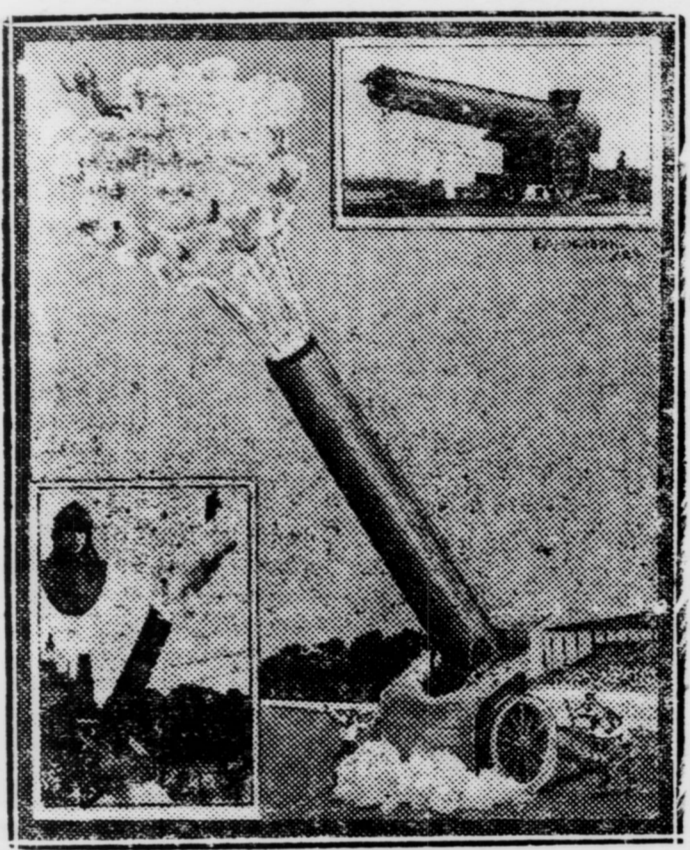

Goldston Goldston, Oct. 7.—The Goldston Book Club held a meeting of unusual pleasure on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. F. M. Barber and Mrs. James Goldston joined as hostesses at the home of the former. Colorful flowers added beauty to the room where the guests assembled. Current events were given in response to roll call. After the business meeting which was presided over by the president of the club, an interesting program on "Studies in Population" was enjoyed. The first paper, "Population Growth in North Carolina" was read by Mrs. F. M. Barber. The second "Race Ratios and Race Distribution" by Mrs. James Goldston and the third, "The Cityward Drift in North Carolina" was read by Mrs. H. A. Carr. At the close of the program, "a kitchen contest" was enjoyed. The prize, a lovely sugar and creamer went to Mrs. P. O. Barber. The hostess, assisted by Miss Beulah Abernethy, served a delightful salad course with cake and hot chocolate. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Iddings of Greensboro and Mr. J. H. Brooks of Bonlee were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dixon last week. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Goldston of Elizabethtown are visiting friends and relatives here. Mr. H. A. Burke was in Wake Forest last week on business. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Goldston are visiting his sister, Mrs. M. W. Harris of Forest City. Miss Alma Dixon has returned from a visit to friends and relatives in Greensboro. Mrs. T. W. Goldston visited her mother, Mrs. N. F. Barber at Hillsboro last week. Mrs. J. J. Harris visited her sister, Mrs. O. S. Alexander, last week. Mrs. T. P. Murchison visited in Chapel Hill last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Barber attended a radio show in Greensboro last Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dixon visited in Bonlee last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Veasey spent the week-end with his parents at Bullock. Mrs. W. M. Burns has returned from a visit to her sons in Concord. Miss Elizabeth Hester spent the week-end with her parents here.

On the Road to Destruction (From the Graham Messenger) Superintendent T. W. Andrews, of the High Point schools, in an address before a civic club at Lexington a few days ago said that the "revolt of modern youth is most-fiction." He said it was the same old youth with a few modern trimmings. Girls with dresses above their knees, painted lips and cheeks, curse and swear like a sailor, drink like a fish and the male of the species meeting them more than half way we presume is "fiction" in the eyes of this pedagogue. Part of the trouble today is not altogether with the parents. But with certain class of teachers as this High Point man pointed them out to be. If modern youth is not on the road to destruction then we have failed to read signs of the time aright. The life of Mrs. Elizabeth Flournoy of St. Paul was saved by a transfusion of blood given by her son.

Life insurance companies say that only three men out of every hundred are self-supporting at the age of 65. Apparently the other 97 get by selling things to each other. If you haven't seen the Town Sedan you should visit our show room. This is a real Automobile that is not out-classed by anything other than real high priced cars. Come in and look it over. Superintendent of schools, Mr. Thompson, says "Drive slowly past the schools and look both ways for children." One life saved in front of a school house is far better than one child in an ambulance. On Monday, October 21, it will pay you to be here and buy a good used car cheap. We are going to sell several cars and trucks at Auction and Mr. Bob Farrell will sell them to you cheap. Don't miss the sale. We will have to offer about twenty five cars and trucks and you can get them at your own price. We have several good cars and a few good trucks. We are prepared to give you as good SERVICE on your model A car as any garage in the State. "Boy, you sure has got a big mouf." "Huh, dat aint no keyhole in de front of your face."

HUMAN CANNON BALL RECOVERS The Human Cannon Shell act, featuring the Great Wilno, the human bullet, will play at the North Carolina State Fair, Raleigh, despite injuries which have cost one man his life, and another two broken legs, and two broken arms. Wilno, who was injured at the New York State Fair, will be recovered in time to appear at the N. C. State Fair, October 14 to 19. His double was killed when the mechanism failed to go off properly, at the Eastern States Exposition, Springfield, Mass. At Raleigh, Wilno will be shot 100 feet through the air, and land in a net.
