TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Mrs. A. H. Bright is very ill. Mr. J. R. Copeland had on display here Monday an eleven-ounce Japanese persimmon, one of a few produced by a two-year old tree. The editor is much appreciative of a gift of some of Mrs. Sarah E. White's lovely chrysanthemums. More beautiful ones are probably not grown in Chatham county. Rev. Mr. Maness of Moore county will preach at the home of Mr. Luther Eubanks next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Neighbors are invited. Rev. J. A. Dailey left Tuesday to attend the annual conference at Kinston. He has served his charge well this year and the Record hopes that he will return to the field. A Halloween play will be given by some of the Moncure high school students in the school auditorium at Moncure Friday evening, November 1, at 7:30. An evening of fun is in store for you.

Miss Gladys Peterson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Faison to their home in Roseboro Sunday for a visit of several days. Mrs. J. W. Goodwin of New Hope township underwent an operation at Mary Elizabeth Hospital, Raleigh, Tuesday. She is recuperating satisfactorily. James Thomas Johnson, colored, who came a few years ago from Pennsylvania to live with his brother-in-law, E. H. Butler, died a few days ago. He was 76 years old. Butler states that he was a quarter Indian. Shortness of advertising this fifth paper in the month, cuts us down to a small paper, but it has the county news in it so far as we should have had it in an eight-page paper. Besides court news there wasn't much to develop. Mrs. D. L. Bell continues ill. Others on the sick list are Mrs. Gardner at the home of Mrs. W. F. Beard and Mrs. Fred Riggsbee. Also little Eleanor Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson, was quite ill Monday night. It was surprising how few of our subscribers from a distance were here at court last week. Evidently, our subscribers are not the folk that are pulled to court for trial. Let them be sure to squeeze the Record out a dollar or so and get it to us some way. Colored folk are invited to the McKendree Long meeting here. The balcony of the theatre building, in which the services are held, affords comfortable seats for a hundred or two. However, there are two colored meetings in progress in Pittsboro this very week, the Record is informed. The editor was pleased to have a call from Dr. Ernest Branch, in charge of dental work for the state in the schools, Monday. Dr. Branch was a pupil of the editor's at Lumberton nearly 30 years ago. He was on his way to Asheboro to give this week to work with the pupils of Randolph county. Mr. A. B. Womble of Lockville spent last week with his daughter, Mrs. H. O. Well at Hickory. While up there he visited Blowing Rock and other points of interest. Mr. and Mrs. Wall returned with him and spent the week-end at the Womble home, where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Boone of Pittsboro, Mrs. Boone being another daughter.

Prize-Winning Show Windows (Sanford Express) The Express has from year to year emphasized the fact that Mr. H. C. Roberts, of the Lee Hardware Company, is an artist of no mean ability when it comes to dressing a show window, especially a window that carries all kinds of hunting goods, such as are manufactured by the Winchester Repeating Arms Company. His show window this season is more attractive than any one he has ever dressed. The arrangement of the goods and trophies of the chase is more effective than any window he has ever prepared before. Mr. Roberts has won several prizes from the Winchester Repeating Arms Company for the most attractive window in territory covering parts of several states. The window is decorated with moss, hickory leaves, pine straw, in the midst of which is a lake on which rests a boat and a number of ducks sporting in the water. The decorations are embellished with five or six deer heads, an opossum, squirrels, hawks, eagles, and many other kinds of game to be found in the woods of North Carolina. To view this scene gives one a strong "call to the wild."

CLUB NOTES The music department of the Woman's Club held its October meeting last Friday night at the home of Mrs. H. A. Bynum. In the absence of Miss Emily Taylor, chairman, Mrs. Victor Johnson, former chairman, presided over the meeting which was opened by a unison reading of the club collect. The minutes were read and the roll called. The committee appointed at the last meeting to select some objective for this year, gave their report. They suggested that the music department sponsor the "Music Memory Contest" to be given at the school. The department accepted and approved their suggestion. The business division of the meeting closed with a discussion of the Bazaar which will be held in December, and the following program was then rendered: "Second Valse", piano solo, Mrs. Will Bland. A clipping, Mrs. Victor Johnson. Every day events in music, clippings, Mrs. R. M. Farrell. The event of Miss Alma Walden being a contestant in the Atwater Kent radio contest in Charlotte was of particular interest since she is a Chatham county girl. "His Lullaby", vocal solo, Mrs. R. G. Shannonhouse. "Musical Smiles", humorous clippings, Miss Cordie Harmon. "The Shepherd Boy", piano solo, Miss Frances Johnson. The members brought along their fancy work baskets and, at intervals during the meeting, sewed. Before the departure of her guests, Mrs. Bynum, assisted by Mrs. Shiver, served a whipped cream course.—Frances Johnson, Sec'y.
