It is very encouraging to Moncure girls to win first game played this season. The score was 69 and 20 in favor of Moncure team. Miss Berta Holoday, a teacher in Moncure team and was referee also.

Moncure boys basket ball team also played Fuquay Springs boys basket ball team the same afternoon, Moncure boys also won.

Mr. J. M. Gaston of Connelly Springs was in town several days last week in the interest of real estate. On his way here he stopped over in Charlotte on business, from there he motored through Sanford and was nearing Moncure about 8 o'clock last Thursday evening when as he met a car, another car tried to pass the car he met at the time the car was passing him so he was struck by the wedge between car and knocked off the concrete into a ditch, turning his car over on him. Mr. Gaston's car was completely demolished and he was bruised up badly, although hoping that he was not hurt internally. He returned to his home Saturday morning to be examined by his home doctor.

Good number of other prospects were in town last week in the interest of real estate.

Her many friends are glad to see Mrs. J. L. Andrews back at home at Moncure. She has been in Denver, Colorado, for her health. We are glad to state that she is improving and looking well.

We are glad to state that Miss Virginia Cathell, who was operated on for appendicitis one day last week is getting on nicely. We hope that she will continue to improve and will soon be well again. She is now at Carolina Hospital, Sanford.

We were glad to greet Rev. J. A. Dailey back last Sunday morning at the Methodist church here. This was his first sermon on the new conference year.

Mr. Dailey always preaches good sermons and he has his work at heart. Moncure church paid its full quota, both pastor's salary and conference collection last year.

Miss Camelia Stedman, president, presided after calling the meeting to order and a short song service, the meeting was turned over to Prof. H. G. Self the leader for the evening. We hope Moncure League will have several participants. Then he took up the book, "Jesus Teaching on the Use of Money," and lectured on the first chapters of the book. His subject was "Tithing." Old Testament teaching on tithing and Jesus teaching on tithing.

The secretary, Mr. Lewis Burns, was also present. After a song, the meeting closed with the league benediction. Armistic Day, November 11th, passed off as usual in Moncure, only, Moncure Bank closed for the day.

Sheriff and Mrs. S. W. Womble of Sanford spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Barringer.

WILKIE-HANCOCK

(Contributed)

Sunday afternoon, November 3, Mr. James J. Wilkie, youngest son of Mr. R. M. Wilkie, of Goldston Rt. 1, was married to Miss Clara Hancock, the charming daughter of Mr. John Hancock, also of this route, at the home of Rev. John Kidd at Bennett. Present were a few of the Bennett people and their witnesses, Messrs. Glennie Dunn, of Bear Creek, Selma and Myrtle Gaines, of this route, and Messrs. Joe and Leon Hilliard and Troy Hancock, all of this route.

After the ceremony, the four couples motored to the home of the groom to eat their wedding supper, a very delicious one, served by the sisters of the groom, Mesdames W. I. Gaines and E. W. Beall. A short while after supper the guests bade farewell to the new couple and returned to their homes.

The bride and groom planned a brief honeymoon trip to the Blue Ridge. After their return they will be domiciled in the new residence at Gaines' Grove. The groom will follow his vocation of sawyer.

Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

The Best Purgative for

Relieves the congestion, reduces complications, hastens recovery.

Miss Mary Garden of Raleigh has been a guest of Mrs. J. W. Hunt.

Miss Elizabeth Blair came in from Louisville College for the week-end.

Policeman Wrenn Gilmore is the dad of another girl, named Elsie Rachel.

Miss Aima Dailey is home from Greensboro College on account of illness.

Miss Frances Long of Durham has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. George H. Brooks, Jr.

Lennie Neal, son of J. W. Neal of the Mt. Gilead community, has been ill with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gunter will occupy the Hayes residence vacated by Mr. A. M. Riddle.

Mr. J. G. Goldston, of Goldston, is in a Greensboro hospital for treatment for a nervous trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Fields returned the first of the week from a visit to their son in Brunswick county.

Mr. Henry King and Miss Callie Howard of Bynum hid away to South Carolina ten days ago and were married.

There was no public recognition of armistic day anywhere in Chatham county, we believe. However, many were mindful of the memorable occasion.

Bun Thrailkill has returned from Royston, Ga., where he visited his brother, and is very much gratified at the cordiality of the Crackers. They treated Bun just like folks.

License was issued Tuesday for the marriage of Mr. Harvey Lee Brown and Miss Magdaline Johnson, both of Matthews township. The bride is a daughter of Mr. R. H. Johnson.

Mrs. George Brewer was called to Durham Sunday by the critical illness of her father. At this writing it is not expected that he will recover. All the lower part of his body is paralyzed.

Well, there is no question that the movies, or talkies, are here this week. The Monday night picture was an appropriate one for Armistic Day. Everybody in the county should come occasionally, even if the times are hard.

Those who wish to see Dr. Mann at Siler City should note that he will be there on Friday, November 29, rather than on his usual date of the fourth Thursday. This change is made because of Thanksgiving Day falling on the regular appointment day.

Dr. Palmer, who was ill for quite a while, seen Saturday at Goldston, wished it understood that he is in his office now every afternoon at Goldston from 2 to 4 o'clock. In the morning he will be found at his Gulf office. He has been back at work about a month.

Mr. W. A. Drake of Cape Fear township was over Tuesday morning to pay his taxes and remembered the Record. We regret to learn from him that his daughter is in very poor health. She formerly furnished us with an occasional interesting news letter from that community.

Dr. Laughinghouse, state superintendent of health, was the speaker at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of Siler City Tuesday evening. All the physicians in the county, the county commissioners, and the members of the board of health were invited to hear Dr. Laughinghouse.

It is gratifying to the friends of young John Anderson to note that he has been chosen as one of four salaried research assistants to the University faculty. John, who is a law student, has been assigned to Prof. Breckenridge for work in the field of corporations. He is to give twelve hours a week to research work.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hatch and Mrs. Annie Chapin have moved into their handsome new brick residence opposite the school building. The old home vacated by them is now occupied by Deputy and Mrs. John Burns, and by Mr. A. M. Riddle and family. Readers who may have occasion to call Deputy Burns, especially at night, should bear this in mind.

The editor broke his own record, if no one else's, in gathering a mess of roast'n ears on November 7. The corn was in a protected spot and stayed green till the big frost. It was starting to tassel when it came so near frosting September 19. It just kept trying to make, and a few more warm days would have given several messes of prime corn.

Bob Dixon attended the Republican executive committee meeting in Greensboro last week, and so they didn't come so far from endorsing him for the collectorship of the port of Wilmington. He was beaten by Mrs. H. J. Faison of Faison. However, Mrs. Faison hasn't the job by a jugful. McCaskill has had it two terms and will doubtless do all he can to continue his hold upon it.

Bell's School News

They appeared at the school Friday morning during the chapel period and delighted the pupils with about fifteen minutes of magic and singing.

FUNERAL OF FLETCHER JORDAN MONAY AT GULF

The funeral of Fletcher Jordan, whose tragic death is recounted in another column, was held at the Baptist church at Gulf Monday afternoon. The service were conducted by Rev. G. L. Merrill, assisted by Rev. G. L. Merrill, assisted by Rev. C. L. Wicker. A large crowd of friends and relatives was present to pay their last tribute of respect to the young man. He was a young man of fine character and was liked by all who knew him. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the family in their sad bereavement. Gulf, Nov. 12, '29.

MRS. BREWER BEREAVED

Friends sympathize with Mrs. George W. Brewer in the death of her father, Mr. A. A. Sears, which occurred in Durham Monday night. The funeral services and burial occurred Tuesday afternoon. In the absence of the Baptist ministers, who were away for the Baptist State convention, the services were conducted by one of the Presbyterian pastors of the city.

Mr. Sears was 86 years of age. He was well known in hte city of Durham, where he had lived many years and reared a large family of children, some of whom are prominent in business circles.

ONLY 1606 BALES

Mr. M. H. Woody, special census agent for cotton ginning in this county, reports only 1606 bales of cotton ginned in Chatham up to November 1. Last year, when the crop was short and late there were 2956 bales ginned to date. A normal year there should have been six or seven thousand ginned, as 11 to 12,000 bales is considered a good yield for the Chatham acreage.

WHITE RABBIT KILLED

We learn through the Sanford Express that a son of Mrs. Frank Knight, who lives just on the Chatham side of the Deep, killed a white rabbit a week or two ago. "The rabbit," says the Express, "was as wild as any varmint found in Chatham county."

14 GASTON RIOTERS ARE HELD FOR COURT

Judge McElroy went to the heart of the Gastonia butchery of Ella May Wiggins in short order. The result of the investigation was the binding over of 14 men on a charge of conspiracy resulting in murder. But the judge took pains to bind the accused over to the January term of court, when a new grand jury will have been chosen. The present six-months grand jury, it will be recalled, failed to make any indictment at all.
