

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Miss Lucile Peterson accompanied Mr. W. A. Thomas of Siler City down to Southern Pines Sunday to attend the latter's sister, Mrs. J. E. Wilson, as professional nurse. Mrs. Wilson gave birth to twin boys last week, but it is regrettable to announce that one of them died and that Mrs. Wilson was serious ill Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Faison came up from Roseboro Sunday to spend the day with the latter's parents. Some fine old Sampson county collars were brought, but unfortunately they didn't bring any good old bacon to cook them with. However, we are hoping at this writing that some will be found before dinner time. They brought some good old "fat" pine for kindling too.

Mrs. Robt. M. Burns, who has been spending the past several months at her old home here, left this week to spend the winter months with her children. She accompanied her son, Mr. A. M. Burns, of Roxboro, to his home, where she will spend the holidays and several weeks to follow. Mrs. Burns is perhaps Pittsboro's oldest citizen. She has many friends here who will regret her leave-taking.

Mrs. Herbert E. Norris, who has been spending the summer and fall months with her mother, Mrs. Robt. M. Burns, has returned to her home in Raleigh.

Little Misses Flora Creech Norris and Elizabeth Edmunds Norris, who have had a delightful visit in Pittsboro, the guests of their great grandmother, Mrs. Robt. Burns, have returned to their home in Raleigh.

Mr. W. C. Johnson is telling our readers about his up-to-date grocery now on the point of opening. Walter knows the grocery business and in his new stand may be expected to match any prices in town.

Mrs. H. A. Bynum underwent an operation at Watts Hospital Tuesday morning. Her friends hope that she may soon recover and be back at her post as music teacher in the Pittsboro school.

Mrs. John D. White went up to Watts Hospital Tuesday for a tonsil operation, returning Wednesday.

Report for the remaining days of this week's court will be made next week. The report on the front page covers Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. A. H. Bright received a card from the nurse with his wife at the State Hospital Tuesday to the effect that Mrs. Bright, who was recently taken to that institution, is resting and sleeping well and seems to be improving.

Now the movie actresses have to talk. They will be asked to think next.—American Lumberman.

CAVINESS LINDLEY

The following account of the marriage of two popular young Chathamites, taken from Monday's Greensboro News:

"In a quiet but impressive ceremony Miss Grace Lee Lindley and J. Alton Caviness, both of Greensboro, were united in marriage Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Meacham Lindley, near Siler City.

Only a few intimate friends and relatives of the young couple witnessed the vows, which were heard by Rev. A. O. Lindley, of Siler City, uncle of the bride. He used the impressive double ring ceremony.

The bride was attended by Miss Grace Caviness, of Greensboro, sister of the bridegroom, and by Miss Edna Marley of Siler City. Newton P. Cox, of Greensboro, and Herbert Lindley, of Siler City, brother of the bride, attended the bridegroom.

Nuptial music was rendered by Miss Christine McPherson, of Siler City, pianist, who played as a prelude "Love's Dream." She used the bridal chorus from Lohengrin as a processional and during the ceremony sounded softly "O Promise Me."

The vows were spoken in the living room where an altar was improvised before the east window against a background of English ivy. At either side were baskets filled with white chrysanthemums tied with bows of white tulle and lighted tapers.

The bride wore a black chiffon gown fashioned princess style with softly draped skirt. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of Sweetheart roses and valley lilies. For travel she changed to a black ensemble with badger trimmings and accessories to match.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Caviness left for an extended motor trip through Georgia and Florida. After January 1 they will be at home at 2212 Walker avenue, Greensboro.

Mrs. Caviness, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Meacham Lindley, of Siler City, has made her home in Greensboro for four years and has many friends in the city. She holds a position with the Automobile Insurance Specialists.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Caviness, 306 West Washington street, and for three years has been connected with the Barroughs Adding Machine company in this city.

IMPERFECT RECORD

"My good fellow," said the warden of the asylum to the inmate he had called before him, "I'm sure I don't know what to do about your case. You've attempted suicide six times now."

"I know, but be lenient with me, chief," pleaded Silly Sam. "I didn't succeed only twice."

county farmer. Another optimist is Squire Gib Collins, who lives in the Faulks community, in Marshville township. Esq. Collins, I am told, states that he has purchased wheat for sowing and that he hopes to get it in the ground not later than April next.

Vol. 1 December 12, 1929 No. 18

Published in the interest of the people of Pittsboro and vicinity by Weeks Motor Co.
J. C. Weeks, Editor

We have several used cars that must be moved and we are going to give you the best value for your money ever offered in used cars. Come in and look them over.

Well, here it is almost Christmas week. By the way, we neglected to tell you what we would like for a present. Well—I'm not particular, anything will do.

Santa Claus talks over the radio every day. Get you an Atwater-Kent and hear what he has to say. Radios are cheaper now than ever before and they are a fine thing for keeping everybody home at night. A trial will convince you you should not be without one.

Luck is the thing that the other fellow has got.

Have a heater put on your new Ford car for Christmas. We have the kind you need and can install them in short order.

A hypocrite is a fellow that doesn't believe anything that he hears, even if he tells it himself.

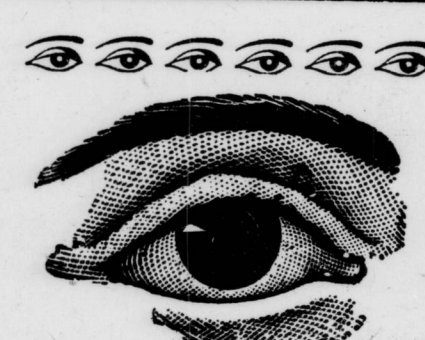

If you know someone expecting to buy a used car tell them they can get better bargains here.

Salesman told me the other day that his car would run 176 miles without filling the tank. I neglected to ask him how far it would run if he gave it gas.

If you car needs repairs bring it to us. We have some good men here that know how to do the work and can give you as good work as you could get anywhere, and our charges are in keeping with the town.
