Much to the joy of the art connois. seur genuine Czechoslovakian pottery is finding its way (reasonably priced considering its beauty), into America's yuletide displays. This ware is actually handmade and hand-decorated in the very peasant homes. The highly colorful designs are the same as in vogue as far back as eleven hundred years ago. Anyone would be proud to receive a gift of pitcher (note its unique convex handle) and goblets to match like the one in the picture

A Crepe Paper "Polly"

No, this one never says naughty words and does not "want a cracker" because it is only a papier mache parrot with plumage of bright green, yellow and red crepe paper. It looks, however, lifelike enough to talk. A "Polly" like this makes a most unique Christmas gift and a very acceptable one for it is really an ornament in the home bringing as it does a vivid note of color into the scheme of things. The papier r.ache forms are very inexpensive as of course is the crepe paper and wire required for making.
