

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Mrs. J. W. McIntyre, of Gulf, was business visitor to Pittsboro Monday. Mr. A. H. Parrish, a student at State College, spent the holidays with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Parrish of the Cumcock section. Mr. John H. Kennedy, Jr., a student at the University, was with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy of Cumcock during the holidays. Mr. J. P. Ward and two sons of the Staley section were here Tuesday on business. Miss Charlotte Copeland came in from the E. C. C., Greenville, for the holidays. Mr. Ed. Brown of Spencer was a guest recently of his sister Mrs. Overacre. Roland Wright was home from Durham for the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Hamilton of Winston-Salem, with their son Billie, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Eubanks during the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Reid S. Thompson rejoice in the arrival of a daughter last week. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gunter received a radio as a Christmas gift from the latter's father. Mr. Henry Bynum of Columbia, S. C., spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bynum. Mr. O. Lee Horton, an attorney at Morganton, spent Christmas with home folk in New Hope township. Wyeth Ray was home from his school and Archie from his Virginia pastorate. Mrs. R. A. Glenn visited her brother, Mr. W. P. Griffin, in Durham last week. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan were visitors at the Williams-Gregory home during last week. Mr. R. E. McIver killed two fine wild gobblers during Christmas week. Dr. Pickington visited his daughter Mrs. Louis Nooe at Ridgeway, S. C., during the Christmas season. The county court, the county commissioners, and the board of education will be in session next Monday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones of Greensboro and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson of Asheville were Christmas guests of the mother of Mr. Thompson and Mrs. Jones. Mr. O. J. Peterson, Jr., made his home folk here happy Christmas by coming up and bringing an Atwater Kent radio as a Christmas gift. Also he was the bearer of a box of cigars from the son-in-law for the dad. Santa was pretty good to the editor's folk. Rev. C. H. Henderson has resigned the pastorate of Lystra Baptist church and the other churches of his field and moved last week to Oriental, on the coast, where he becomes pastor. Mrs. J. C. Lanus of Spartanburg, S. C., spent several days with Mrs. Mattie Lanus here. She and the children returned the first of the week. Mrs. Henry A. London has as guests during the holidays her son Capt. John London, of the U. S. S. Vega, I. S. London, of Rockingham, and Mrs. Anderson and children of Chapel Hill. Mrs. Fred Jerome and children of Shreveport La., were also with her still, but are leaving today for their Louisiana home. Mr. Abram Cockman, a native of the county but now a resident of lower Sampson county, visited Mr. E. M. Phillips in Bear Creek township and was a Pittsboro visitor Monday. He made a good crop, and says he got from forty to sixty-seven cents a pound for the most of a five-acre field of tobacco. Rev. Sidney Womack, new pastor of the Stanton Temple C. M. E., informs the Record that the presiding elder of his district will be with him next Sunday. Services will begin 11:30. Services also that evening at 7:30. Rev. Dalton, pastor of the A. M. E. church here, will preach at the Temple at 3 p. m. the same day. It is a little late, but we wish to call attention to the striking fact that a son of a Chatham man led the freshman class at Wake Forest, and a son of another Chatham man ranked third. The former is R. H. Burns, Jr., of Whiteville and the latter is Robert L. Lineberry of Harrelsville, the son of Rev. R. B. Lineberry. The one receiving second rank was from Apex, a mighty close neighbor to Chatham. James Woodson Petty, a native of Chatham county, died the night of December 27 at Staunton, Va. He had been living in Danville, Va., for 35 years. He is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters, also a brother. The burial was in Danville, December 28. Vernon and Melvin Snipes, two colored boys, sons of Sam Snipes came up Monday to pay their father's subscription. Sam had run behind four months and they sent it up to read the Record regularly. You watch them and see if they do not make good citizens. The fact that their father is reliable will go a far ways in making them so.

We noted the following school boys and girls home for the holidays: Elizabeth Blair, Louisburg College; Lloyd Nooe and Rufe Johnson, Campbell's College; Lawrence and John London, University; Nyal Womble, Elon College; Brooks Petty, University; Pete Powell, University; Frank Barclay, King College; Lester Farrell, Wake Forest College; Willie Morgan and C. C. Hamlet, University. Dr. Pierce, who since the death of Dr. Upchurch, has been located in New Hope township, goes this week to become physician, the only one, on Ocracoke Island. He will receive a salary from the United States government as physician to the life saving crews and other government employes and will serve the inhabitants of the island in private practice. Ocracoke has been for quite awhile, we believe, without a physician at all. It is a safe proposition to trade with the merchants who advertise in the Chatham Record. They tell you their prices and invite your inspection of the goods. They advertise in order to do more business and the more business they do the cheaper they can sell you goods. Make it a rule to trade with our advertisers if you wish to help the Record and to see Pittsboro become the trade center of the county. Mrs. A. H. London, president of the Pittsboro Woman's Club, announces that the club will hold its annual meeting next Wednesday afternoon. It was deemed better to postpone the meeting from the first Wednesday in January, which was New Year's Day till the date mentioned. You are invited out to attend the Pittsboro Sunday school next Sunday. Mr. Morgan and Miss Beck, who are here this week cooperating with the Sunday school forces of the church, will be there. New classes will probably be organized that day and plans for the year put into motion. We don't want anyone to have the Record who does not want it, or does not expect to pay for it, except such as know that it is being sent to them complementarily. However, we find it impracticable, these hard times, to keep strictly upon a cash basis and want to send the paper on to those good citizens who desire it and leave it to their convenience to pay. But we want nobody to be little enough to take the paper for a year and then refuse to pay for it, when all one has to do to stop it is to leave it in the mail box or tell postmaster or mail carrier. That is little and mean, and no self-respecting person can afford to do that way. We know that the most of our subscribers want to continue the paper and we are glad to favor them till it is more convenient for them to pay. But it is a shabby shout who will take advantage of the circumstances to take the paper and then refuse to pay for it. Mark on it "Refused", if you don't want it, and leave it in your box. Otherwise, if you take, and use it, you are expected to pay for it when you can. Those who can pay promptly should do so in order that we may the more easily carry our friends who are hard up.

Bonlee News

Miss Margaret Shaw spent the holidays with home folk in Wilmington. The Bonlee Woman's Club met Saturday evening, December 21. The regular program was omitted, and every one enjoyed a beautiful Christmas tree. Mrs. Howell, member of the Bonlee school faculty, spent the holidays with her people in Burlington. Miss Kathleen Wadell, a student at Duke University, spent the holidays here at home. Miss Omo Andrews, one of the teachers at Moncure, was home here for the holidays. Miss Clara Johnson of Maxton spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aster Johnson. Miss Ava Lee Andrews of Greensboro spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Andrews. Henry and Bryant Dunlap are spending some time at Charleston, Ill. They say they like the cold country fine, but haven't seen any sunshine in a month. Mrs. George Brafford was bereaved by the death of her brother Mr. Bud Flack. She and Mrs. Archie Andrews attended the funeral. Miss Hazel Hart, a student at Campbell College, was home for the holidays. The Bonlee Baptist church gave a Christmas tree Monday evening, December 23. The father of Rev. E. W. Byerly was stricken with paralysis at his home in Thomasville, Sunday, December 22. Mr. and Mrs. Byerly hastened to his bedside. Mr. Canady, Bonlee's druggist, and Mrs. Canady have taken rooms at the dormitory and will do light house-keeping. Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Porter spent the holidays at their old home in Columbus county. Mr. Stroud Brooks, a student at Elon, spent the holidays here at home. Misses Kathleen Brooks and Gladys Hester, students at Boone, came home for Christmas. Miss Neel Cheek spent Christmas with home folk at Chapel Hill. Boob—Ouch! I bumped my crazy bone. Nutt—Oh, well, rub some butter on your forehead and it won't show.—The Pathfinder. "Madam, your husband lies unconscious in the hall, with a piece of paper in his hand and a large box alongside." "Oh, then my new hat has arrived!"—The Pathfinder.

How to Attain Perfect Figure

By RING LARDNER

To the Editor: Pretty near every place you go nowadays where they's a mixed gathering, the people that ain't talking about Mr. Coolidge's coat is disgusting their dig and how to get fat or thin especially the last named and whenever you walk in anywheres where the hostess don't expect no Co. you generally always can find a book on the living rm. table on how to get skinny and etc. so it seems like this is the most important problem outside the Yap questions, and the women folks is all spending hundreds of dollars on books that will learn them how to not look much like a group. Obesity begins at home like everything else and what I am getting at is that the only people who can learn you how to reduce or build up is people that did it themselves and is normal and can tell you what they done to get that way. Like for inst. you would not go to Babe Ruth for beauty hints like no more than you would ask Lillian Gish which cheek to park your tobacco in vs. a left hander. Well, friends, I don't like to brag, but it looks like they wasn't nobody better fitted to give advice on the fat and lean question than the undersigned and if I can be of any assistance to my friends that is worried about their weights why I'll overlook my prejudice in regards to bareing secrets of my private life and sacrifice myself on the altar of pro bono publico. Lest there be any doubts as to my qualifications along these lines, why here's the figures by which a person finds out how much they should ought to weigh according to their high. Multiply the number of inches you are over 5 ft. tall by 5 1/2 and then add that to 110. Well friends I am 13 1/2 inches over 5 ft. tall and multiply 13 1/2 by 5 1/2 and you get 74 1/2 and when you add that on to 110 it makes 184 1/2 avordupois which is exactly where I tip the old beam. In other words my weight is ideal like pretty near everything else. "How does the boy do it," you ask. "Well, friends, I am going to lay all my cards on the table and tell you the system I generally always follow in regards to diet and exercise and if my fat and skinny friends will also try and follow out a similar program, I don't see why not they shouldn't also get to be perfect. First we will take eating. I generally always eat in a rm. where they's a riot. I try and get to meals on time as I prefer my own napkin. I always set in a straight back chair and face east. I never talk at meals as when I talk I like to be heard. I never accept no invitations to meals at nobody's house unless I already been there and know that mine host is a good provider. Now in regards to exercises, I never let nobody feed me and I always dress and undress myself. I always shave standing up. Shaveing three or four times per week is enough to keep the jowls supple, but if I find I'm a couple oz. overweight I shave every day and reduce the flesh on the neck. In brushing the hair I can also generally manage to lose a little. When the door bell rings I always walk, not run, to the nearest exit. In the morning I always snatch the paper to quicken the eye. I hold it myself and turn the pages myself. When I see that my thumbs is getting too fat I roll my own cigarettes and I always smoke plenty of them as they's no exercise that brings more muscles into play than coughing and tossing in bed. I always wash my hands before retiring and my face when necessary, though one of my friends says it is silly to wash your face when you go to bed as they won't nobody be likely to see if its dirty or clean and it's just as foolish to wash it when you get up as you ain't been anywheres to get it soiled. But do it 2 or 3 times per wk. anyway to reduce the soap. Bathing as exercise depends on what kind of a tub you got. The madam picked mine out and bought it by the front ft. and I guess we mus. have been pretty near broke at the time. Anyway when I have took a bath I generally always feel like challenging Tunney. I go to bed pretty near every night at 9 or 10 o'clock but once in a while somebody comes in to play cards and I take setting up exercises. I generally manage to lose a little this way. But if a person really wants to limit their diet I don't know of any better scheme than to buy a car or take up golf. In a short while you won't be ordering no wheres near as much groceries or if you do the grocery won't send them. But as for golf itself making a person thin or fat it depends on who you are playing with. Most of the boys I play with is so rapped up in their own game that I can generally take off a couple of strokes. Personally it seems kind of funny to me why there should be so many people worrying these days about getting stout when they can't nobody afford to eat anything but roots and herbs. They must be something besides food that makes people bulge out. Maybe they's some truth in the old saying "Laugh and grow fat" and the combination of income tax and telephone service is too much for us.
