

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Capt. Alston was confined several days with influenza.

Mr. W. A. Griffin, who is located at Yanceyville, where he is engaged in the lumber business, was a Pittsboro visitor Tuesday.

Mr. Hornady, a citizen of Pittsboro a number of years ago, was here Tuesday.

Miss Agnes McDonald of the Pittsboro school spent the weekend with her brother in Winston-Salem.

Miss Cordie and Mr. J. O. Harmon, the latter of Chapel Hill, spent Sunday with Mrs. W. E. Vaughn in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. R. H. Hayes has been quite ill with influenza, but was much better the first of the week.

Miss Camilla Powell has returned from a visit to her aunt in Leakesville.

Miss Bessie Caviness of the Caviness Shops, Siler City and Pittsboro, has returned from a buying trip in the north.

The editor has heard since the publication of last week's paper quite a bit of talk in favor of a change of court house officers. Incidentally, too, opposition to the sending of lawyers to the legislature this time is not wanting.

Capt. N. H. Heritage was a Pittsboro visitor Monday and gave vocal utterance to his desire to see some women sent to the legislature and maybe put in the courthouse offices. He is outspoken for a change of officers with the exception of Sheriff Blair.

Rev. Geo. R. Underwood has been seriously ill for several days.

Mr. Hugh Farrell killed a fine gobbler the last day of the hunting season.

Little Margaret Tatum entertained a number of her little friends one day last week, the occasion being her sixth birthday.

The purchasers of the Hall stock of goods seem to have bought it on a speculation. They put it up at auction Wednesday at noon. A few dealers in such things were here from a distance. There was no advertisement of the sale within the county.

Pennell and Harley of Spartanburg, S. C., got contract for paving the 4.9 mile section of highway 50 from Haw River, near Haywood, to the Wake county line. The contract price is $89,976.60, about $18,000 a mile, which shows a great drop from earlier paving rates.

Mr. W. D. Talley, of Gulf township, was taken to the Wesley Long Hospital at Greensboro Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stinson and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cheek. Mrs. Stinson will remain in Greensboro to be with her father, who will be nursed by Miss Argie Stinson, a professional nurse with Greensboro as headquarters.

Mr. C. C. Hamlet, who was reported sick two weeks ago, has not yet regained his strength. He was quite ill the first of the week.

Captain Heritage, here a few days ago, said that he had been watching presidents for more than fifty years and that he believed that Mr. Hoover would go down in history as one of the least, or poorest, presidents the country has ever had. And this in spite of a recent carload of Hoover prosperity shipped in over the S. A. L.

The child of Mr. and Mrs. Rencher Campbell, who was reported a week or two ago as in critical condition from getting something down its windpipe and upon the lung, has been suffering ever since at the McPherson hospital, Durham. Mrs. Campbell has been with the little fellow, who is only sixteen months old. Mr. Campbell reported Monday that it had been resting better for the last few nights.

Miss Lucile Peterson has returned from Roseboro, where as professional nurse she attended her sister, Mrs. Faison, during her convalescence after the birth of her daughter. Miss Gladys is now down with her sister.

A note from Mr. C. E. Griffin of Durham says: C. Horton Poe, who came to this city four years ago, and has done well and made good with the people and for himself, was ordained as a deacon of Temple Baptist church here Wednesday evening, with impressive services, in which four pastors took part.

Mr. J. J. Campbell killed a 17-pound gobbler on the last day of the hunting season. Mr. Loving, of the Progressive Grocery, went out and killed his first turkey last week, invited his kindred to visit him and help eat it, but to a dog got it that night and he had to recall his invitations. Hard luck that.

The many friends of Mrs. J. W. Burke of Goldston will be pleased to learn that she has returned home much improved after an operation, on January 10, at Rex Hospital, Raleigh. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Miss Winnie Lee, who is spending a week with her, but will return to Raleigh the last of this week.

Mr. C. E. Durham, one of Bynum's two really progressive merchants, is a great friend of "Old Man Henderson." He says that Mr. Henderson's chain store campaign is helping his business. Both Mr. Durham and Mr. R. J. Moore believe in advertising, and they are doing, each, a fine business at Bynum.

The United States census is to be taken in April and Mr. Thomas C. Council, supervisor for the Fourth Congressional District, requests that, in case a family plans to be absent from their home during the month of April, leaving no one qualified to give the information demanded by the census enumerator, such family will send to him for a schedule provided for such cases and to fill it out and leave it with some one to give to the enumerator. By the way, the enumerators seem not to have been appointed yet, and readers of The Record desiring to make wages during the month of April and capable of doing the work required of an enumerator, should apply to Mr. Council. His address is Federal Building, Raleigh, N. C.

We appreciate a call from Mr. G. H. Hancock Monday, and his running up his subscription two full years. It is such acts as that that makes us have confidence in the character of our subscribers. If we have a jackleg occasionally among them, he will make himself after a while and we shall have received compensation for what we have lost on him by finding him out. Mr. Hancock was accompanied by Mrs. Hancock, his son Rev. William Hancock, a young minister of much promise, and by Mr. C. L. Oldham. Mr. and Mrs. Hancock have raised thirteen children, and they are all living. Mr. Oldham married one of the five daughters.

SALE OF VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon us in a deed of trust executed to Brant Alston and wife Lula Alston on the 20th day of July, 1925, and recorded in book AC, page 15, we will on at the courthouse door in Pittsboro, N. C., Chatham County, sell at public auction for cash to the highest bidder the following land to-wit:

All that certain piece, parcel or tract of land containing 88 1/4 acres more or less, situate, lying and being just off the Siler City-Pittsboro Highway about three miles from Pittsboro, the same being bounded on the North by the lands of Harlow Taylor heirs; on the East by the lands of Aruth Alston; on the South by the lands of Martha McClenahan and on the West by the lands of Joe Alston, and being the same land conveyed to Brant Alston by the executors of W. L. London by deed dated January 15th, 1917, and recorded in Book F. J., page 277 in the office of the Register of Chatham County, North Carolina.

This sale is made by reason of the failure of Brant Alston and wife Lula Alston to pay off and discharge the indebtedness secured by said deed of trust.

A deposit of 10 per cent will be required from the purchaser at the sale.

This the 13th day of February, 1930.

Spring Is Here

Or almost here. And what is new to wear?, is the question that is being asked every day.

JUST BACK FROM NEW YORK AND HERE ARE A FEW OF THE NEW THINGS.

We know it is new to wear suits for Spring and will last into the Summer. We know it is new to be tailored. We know it is new to be fully feminine. We know it is new to wear the lovely fashions in Frocks; those graceful fashions of another day and age brought back to a waiting fashion world. The little puff sleeve, the capelet, the frills, the high waist and wide skirts and the little flowers printed fabrics that go with the uplifted brims of Hats. It is new to wear the new Audacious and Alluring Hats that flatter the face. And you would never dream how becoming these new Hats are until you try them on.

AND IT IS NEW to be able to purchase these NEW THINGS at such nominal prices. The Caviness Shop has determined that they will secure Real and Correct Fashions that will meet the needs of the most moderate purses and that the requirements of this economical period of our life.

You do not have to stop to think where you will buy your outfit.
