
TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Mrs. W. R. Bracey of Richmond, Va., is visiting Mrs. R. H. Hayes for several days.

Mrs. R. M. Connell spent the weekend in Raleigh with Mr. and Mrs. Graham Connell.

Miss Camilla Powell of Raleigh spent the week-end with home folk.

Several of the University boys and other college students have been at home for the week-end.

Miss Elizabeth Blair of Louisburg College has been home during the spring holidays.

Miss Lucy Farrell, aged fifty-eight, died at the old Farrell home-stead near Hanks Chapel Sunday evening. She had been long an invalid and her going is possibly a relief to her. The funeral and burial was at Hanks Chapel Monday afternoon.

It is gratifying to learn that Mr. J. L. Griffin was able to sit up last week. He is at Watts Hospital. He is very much missed in Pittsboro.

We regret to note that the child of Mr. and Mrs. Rencher Campbell which got something on its lungs two months ago is still in a Durham hospital with very little encouragement for complete recovery. It was very ill last week, but improved somewhat. Mrs. Campbell remains in Durham during the illness.

Messrs. Joe McIver and Paul Farrell visited Simmons headquarters in Greensboro last week and come back reporting the Senator's campaign encouraging. Mr. Joe thinks maybe Chatham will go for Simmons. This indicates that the gentleman can make a joke, whether he can take one or not.

Miss Elizabeth Burns, professional nurse, has returned to New York, accompanied by her brother, John Lee Burns, who will work with a taxicab company, though we are not informed whether it is with the "Fresh Air Taxicab Company of America, Incorporated."

The death of Sheriff Harward, of Durham county, removed from the scene of a long activity a distinguished son of Chatham county. We presume that he was reared in New Hope township, as that seems the home of the Harwards. Several brothers survive the sheriff but none of them lives in their native county.

It would seem that Silk Hope has a coming baseball pitcher. Young Buckner over there struck out 21 men in a game between the Sier City and Silk Hope teams last week. Silk Hope won 7 to 4.

Of Mrs. Norman Hilliard of Durham who died at Scotts Hospital, Sanford, and was buried at Gaines Grove church, near Goldston, the last day of March, a Sanford dispatch had the following good words to say: "Mrs. Hilliard, who was 22 years of age, was before her marriage, Miss Gertie Gaines. She was formerly connected with the city clerk's office in Sanford, and was universally loved by a large circle of friends. She was a daughter of Mrs. Gaines and the late Robert Gaines of Chatham County. Surviving are her mother and a number of brothers and sisters."

Says last week's Sanford Express: "Rev. and Mrs. George Underwood came down from Pittsboro and spent Saturday with the family of their son, Mr. Earl Underwood. On Sunday morning they went to Shallow Well and had a most pleasant experience in attendance upon the annual reunion of the Thomas clan. Mr. Underwood had the pleasure of shaking hands with many people of that community who attended Shallow Well when he served as pastor of that church. They were glad to see him looking so well and to learn that his health is better than it has been in four or five years."

The Progressive Stores, Inc., of this place plan to open stores at Troy, Liberty and Goldston at an early date. This will make 12 stores opened and put in operation by this company in the short period of a year or two. The company has been doing a good business since it decided to branch out and put stores in a number of places. —Sanford Express.

Lizzie Waddell, colored, died Tuesday. She had been sick for two years. She was 42 years old.

Mrs. James Cordon attended the funeral of her cousin, Mr. C. W. Worth, in Wilmington. Mr. Worth was a first cousin of Mrs. Cordon's mother, Mrs. H. A. London, and a grandson of Governor Jonathan Worth.

Mrs. Ruth McCormick, daughter of Mark Hanna, has walloped Senator Bienen for the Republican nomination for the senate in Illinois. She is already a member of the House of Representatives. Her deceased husband was beaten for the senate six years ago by the man she has now beaten. If that is not poetic justice, it is at least poetic.

RALEIGH AND DURHAM

Mr. Charlie Poe has been home from Mars Hill College.

The flag pole on the court house square fell Monday and came near hitting some one.

Mrs. O. J. Peterson, who has been visiting her sister in Greenville, S. C., is expected back this week.

The Parent-Teacher Association will meet at the school building Friday evening, April 11, at 8 o'clock.

The Winnie Davis Chapter of the U. D. C. will meet Friday afternoon, April 11, at the home of Mrs. J. M. Gregory, with the Misses Clegg as joint hostesses with Mrs. Gregory.

There will be a fiddlers' convention at Sylvan high school nine miles east of Liberty next Friday evening. A number of prizes is offered for the winners with the various instruments.

The members of the Young Woman's Evangelistic Club, of which Miss Frances Johnson is president, gave Mrs. R. H. Dixon, their secretary, a miscellaneous shower last Tuesday evening after their regular meeting. Mrs. Dixon, who is a recent bride, was most pleasantly surprised when all the members of the club walked into her living room and each placed a useful and attractive gift on the table.

Gulf News

George Washington McDaniel, a Confederate veteran, died at the home of his son, Charlie McDaniel, in Bear Creek, Sunday night just after 8 o'clock, following an extended illness. He had been in poor health for a long time. Had he lived until July 24th, next, he would have been 84 years of age.

In early life he was married to Miss Sallie Fullen Williams and to this union were born 10 children—eight sons and two daughters, one daughter died while small and all the others children survive. Mrs. McDaniel preceded her husband about 24 years.

The surviving children are as follows: J. W. McDaniel, of Siler City; James, Thomas, Henry and Graham McDaniel, of Greensboro; Oscar, of Lowell; Charlie, of this place; Robert L. of Durham; Mrs. T. H. Brown, of Burlington.

The funeral was held from the home in Bear Creek being conducted by Rev. J. W. Bradley, of Siler City Methodist church. The interment was made in the Antioch cemetery beside his wife.

Besides his children, he is survived by forty grandchildren and nineteen great grandchildren.

"Uncle George" seemed willing and ready to go.

May God's comforting spirit hover closely around those who have been bereft.

Kitchen Policemen

MAYBE you think I'm going to refer to the cop who comes around to the back door to make love to the cook and the apple pie. But that isn't the only kind of men you may stumble on in the kitchen.

Nor do I mean those poor dough boys who were set to the sink and made to clean the kitchen when they misbehaved in the army. The officers put them on kitchen police duty, but they couldn't make them love the frying pan or dishpan.

My idea of the men who does real duty in the kitchen is that of the fellow who does his share of house-keeping, as far as cooking is concerned. There are lots of men who have come to the realization that kitchen work is no picnic for a woman, and these enlightened men have begun to share the responsibilities of the gas range and dishpan.

With the old-style marriage, which is rapidly growing extinct, there was a "division of labor" whereby the man worked from sun to sun, or from whistle to whistle, while woman's work was never done, because she wasn't running on scheduled time.

With the new marriage, the man finds it both possible and agreeable to do a certain amount of work in the shadow of the gas range. His wife may be doing her part in meeting household expenses with the L'il pay envelope, so it's only fair for him to match her work with his. If she's in an office, he can be in a kitchen.

This arrangement changes the meaning of the rolling pin. Time was when this kitchen implement was only a sign of the wives' disapproval. Now it means that men, too, have some interest in the place where their food is prepared.

Do you think that kitchen duty makes a man effeminate? I don't. It doesn't change a man when he does woman's work any more than it changes a woman when she does man's work. It's just a case of turn about is fair play.

I know of a man who is about as far from being effeminate as a man can be, judged by his body and brain. And yet that man takes his place at the sink, and isn't half bad when it comes to performing on the kitchen range.

He says he learned the trick in camp, where it was his job to get the breakfast. The family used to have strong coffee, soggy cereals, and ro-bust muffins when he got the meal, but they liked the fun of seeing him play cook. Hall to the Chef!

Bear Creek News

Margaret, the 17-month-old daughter of the late E. H. and Mrs. Gladys O. Herman, passed out at the home of her grandfather, Mr. R. L. Oldham, near Goldston, April the second, after a few days illness with pneumonia. Funeral services were held at Bethany Baptist church here Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Mr. Chaffin of Goldston. She was laid to rest by the side of her father, who was buried less than a year ago. She was a bright lovable child and will be sadly missed by all who knew her. The sympathy of the community goes out to the family in their sad bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McIntyre, who have been on the sick list, are improving, we are glad to report.

Messrs. R. H. J. G. and W. A. Beal, and Mesdames W. H. Hill and Mary B. Devereaux attended the funeral of their aunt, Miss Augusta Beal, which was held at Burlington, Friday morning at 10 o'clock. She is well known throughout this section, having been born and reared three miles from this place, a daughter of the late Thomas and Darius Beal. She was a consecrated woman and will be missed by friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Jourdan of Durham spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Jourdan.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Oldham have moved into the home of Mr. W. A. Beal on Route 60, near Norfolk and Southern underpass.

Bible Thought and Prayer

A GOOD NAME THE BEST ASSET—A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold.—Prov. 22:1.

PRAYER—Enable us, we pray Thee, Thou Lord of Life, to seek the things that do not pass in using, but the things which abide.

CHILDREN'S CHAPTER MEETS

The Henry London chapter of the Children of Confederacy held its regular meeting for the month of April at the home of Mary Brewer. The meeting was called to order by the president. The Lord's Prayer was repeated in concert, after which the minutes were read and approved. The subject for the afternoon was "Stratford, Home of Lee." Interesting readings were given by Margaret Quinn, Bertha Lee Poe and Mary Brewer. Business of the chapter was discussed and it was decided that new officers are to be elected at the next meeting.

We regret to say that Mrs. Stanley Riggsbee, whom the chapter is helping support, is very ill at the Confederate Woman's home in Fayetteville. The corresponding secretary of the chapter was advised to send her a letter expressing our sympathy. After singing the last song, "Dixie," delightful lemonade and cake were served by the hostess.

A WORD FROM C. C. HALL

I wish here to express to my customers the appreciation I feel for each and every purchase made by them while I was in the retail business, as I realize the customers made my business. The fact is, for several months prior to the sale of my business I was working on the line of hosiery which you will soon see advertised and which consists of a complete line for men, women, and children, of all prices, colors and patterns. This line of hosiery will be known as "Hall's Tailored Hosiery, Knit Better for Longer Wear."

Trusting that every former customer of mine will purchase at least one pair of "Hall's Hosiery," as I sincerely believe if you wear one pair of my hose you will be a continuous wearer of "Hall's Hosiery."

I am respectfully,
C. C. HALL.

Add Contagious Diseases

A Saco (Maine) mother charged her small son never to go into the homes of any of his little friends if a placard was displayed, as he might be exposed to a contagious disease. The other day she sent him to a neighboring home on an errand. He returned immediately, saying, "Mother, I can't go in that house. The folks have hemstitching."
