

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Miss Christine Lassiter of Blanche is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Bob Farrell and other relatives in Pittsboro.

Miss Sankie Perry, who has been teaching at St. Paul, has been very ill at Watts Hospital. We understand that she has had to have blood transfusions.

Mr. T. M. Cross, a former resident of Pittsboro, made a business trip here Tuesday. He resides in Sanford.

Miss Mary Brewer is making an extended visit to her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Thompson, in Raleigh.

Lou Henry Harward announce the birth of a daughter Happy May, May 15.

Miss Fannie Beard, who has just completed her course in nursing at the Baptist hospital, Winston-Salem, visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Beard. Miss Fannie has already begun work as a professional nurse. She will remain in Winston-Salem.

Miss Ethel Lowery, former teacher here, spent the week-end with Principal and Mrs. Waters.

Mr. Billy Griffin came in from Roxboro to spend a few days at home.

Mrs. Geo. H. Brooks, Jr., spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Long, in Durham.

Several of the college boys were in for the week-end, including C. C. Hamlet, Lonnie London, Lester Farrell, and possibly others.

Miss Pearl Johnson and Margaret Brooks spent the week-end with Miss Sadie Brooks Johnson, Miss Dot Spencer, and Mr. Arthur York, who spent a few hours at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Johnson.

Several young people got slightly hurt in an automobile collision near here on highway 90 Sunday. However, no really serious injury resulted. Charlie Mills is said to have bitten the end of his tongue off. Two or three others got hurt about the hands, and all got a shaking up.

Miss Howard Morning Brooks of Hamlet spent the week-end with Miss Margaret Horne Brooks. Also Misses Frances and Kathleen Long of Durham were guests of Miss Brooks.

Mrs. W. P. Horton, Mrs. Robert Dixon and Miss Pauline Taylor made a week-end visit to Miss Coltrane, former teacher here, at Whiteville.

Attorney W. P. Horton attended a meeting of the trustees of the state institution for the blind Saturday. The editor of the Record made the trip with him to Raleigh.

Messrs. Geo. R. Pilkington and A. H. London were delegates to the diocesan convention which met at Cleveland in Rowan county last week.

Mrs. R. G. Shannonhouse, Mrs. Arthur London, Mrs. Victor Johnson, and Miss Pauline Taylor attended the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary held at St. Paul's church in Winston-Salem last week.

Mesdames J. W. Hunt, C. M. Matthews, A. H. London, W. L. London, and E. B. Hatch attended the state convention of the woman's club at Pinehurst last week.

The Ashbury male quartet visited Flat Springs church in Lee county Sunday, where they sang several selections appropriate to the homecoming and memorial exercises of the day.

Wednesday started out as a rainy day in May, but it was not "The cold rainy day". Much of the county and more of the state in general were suffering for rain. Pittsboro had its first rain early Monday morning and it was sorely needed. Cotton can now come up and tobacco be set.

The editor enjoyed having Judge Lyon in his home Tuesday evening and the talking over of old times. About 52 years ago Judge Lyon spent a night in the home of the Sampson lad. The writer can barely remember it, but the visit was as fresh in the mind of the Judge, who was then in the flush of young manhood, as if it had been only a few days ago. He remembered the little sister who died in 1879; so it was bound to have been when the writer was only seven or eight years of age. For many years now we have known Judge Lyon as lawyer, solicitor and judge, and we believe there is no cleaner, capable man on the bench in the state. Long may he thrive.

Miss Euphemia Bryan of Wake Forest spent Sunday here with relatives.

Miss Miriam Thompson of Jackson is visiting her sister Mrs. W. L. London.

Mrs. Bob Farrell has been quite ill for several days.

Thanks, Brother Dailey, for an invitation to your picnic Saturday as your guest, but if we come, be assured that we shall not confine ourselves to the lemonade, which we believe is your part of the menu. We shall dig deep into the rations brought by the sister'n.

A new Chrysler car was burned near Bonlee Monday. As the occupant, who had turned over, fled, it is rather apparent that it was a stolen car.

Those who paid subscriptions last week at court were very helpful. Don't forget that it takes money to get out this paper and keep the editor's family living. It is hard times, but try to spare us a dollar if your time is out. A part of a loaf is better than no loaf.

The delay of a batch of copy between the editor and the printer last week caused the omission of the later court news and other items, some of which will likely appear this week.

Better get ready to treat your young cotton with the molasses mixture. If you can kill the old boll weevil before the forms appear on the cotton, you should be comparatively safe.

Wheat in general seems small, though heading heavily. However, Mr. N. J. Dark has a real wheat field where he had that fine corn last year. Rich land goes a far way toward making all kinds of seasons good ones.

Two or three barley fields on the Siler City road look good. It is ripening early enough to be easily followed by another crop. Better think about planting barley next fall.

In connection with the big advertisement of the Carolina Power & Light Company, we should like to call attention to the expected demonstration of electric stoves in the Woman's Club room here. Ask about the date and attend.

PITTSBORO CIRCUIT WIDE PICNIC

This final word is to call my people and other friends beside to the importance of the picnic occasion at the parsonage of the Methodist church in Pittsboro Saturday. This picnic, I'm happy to say, will reach beyond my own church into that of others, and this is what pleases most. So whosoever will, bring a basket, come and join us on the happy occasion. I am inviting and expecting all ministers who have work in the county to attend as our guests. I trust the local community will not only take part but show every courtesy possible to the many people, old and young, who are booked to be here. Prof. W. R. Thompson will be master of ceremonies and Rev. J. W. Bradley of Siler City will respond to address of welcome by Mr. Thompson and there will be others to speak. The people are requested to be here at 12 o'clock, hear the program through and lunch will be spread on the long table at 1 o'clock.
J. A. DAILEY.

NEW COLORS FOR YOUR ROOF

Johns-Manville has created several entirely new and different colors for roofs. Now you can choose your roof from a variety of colors and sizes to fit your individual taste.

Here are some of the new creations. CORNWALL BLENDS—brings to your roofs the warm gray reds, the Cornish Coast. COTSWOLD BLENDS—cool with the tints of the Gloucestershire countryside in spring. MULBERRY—a wholly new roofing color suggesting the pleasant tones of red granite. MOTTLED GREEN—a clever mingling of gray and green to produce a color like that of old lichens.

Call Budd-Piper for samples and estimates of cost.

TEACHER-TRAINING CLASS HAS COMMENCEMENT

There will be a special service at the Methodist church Sunday evening, May 25, at eight o'clock, for the student teachers, six of whom will soon be leaving for college. Rev. A. E. Brown and Rev. J. A. Daily will officiate.

On Tuesday, May 27, at 8 o'clock the kindergarten school will give a program and the student teachers will receive their certificates. Short addresses will be given by Mr. W. R. Thompson and Mr. J. S. Waters.

UPPER CAPE FEAR LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. David Goodwin and children of Durham spent Sunday with Chatham relatives.

Mr. Coley Goodwin and little sisters, Frances, Wilma and Imogene spent Thursday with their sister, Mrs. Robert Sauls of Asheboro.

Miss Nina Sturdivant of Pittsboro, Mr. Jim Sturdivant of Siler City, and Mr. and Mrs. Lassic Sturdivant and little son of Cary visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Sturdivant Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Drake and children of Wilson spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Drake.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sauls and children of Asheboro are visiting their parents on New Hill Rt. 2.

Mr. Charlie Goodwin and Miss Elizabeth Hinsley of Burlington spent a short while at the home of Mr. J. L. Goodwin. They were accompanied home by Mrs. D. L. Webster and children.

Mrs. Floyd Ellington and children Eugene and Josephine of Apex spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brown.

Mr. Archie Copland and sister, Mrs. Clarence Dezern and children of Raleigh visited their father, Mr. J. L. Copland Sunday.

Misses Bessie and Ethel Hearn of Bonaal were guest of Misses Rose Sturdivant and Vada Goodwin Sunday.

Mr. George Finn Carr Jr. of Durham spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Carr.

Mr. and Mrs. Famous Mann and children of Raleigh spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Mann.

Mrs. Iala Sharp and daughter of Raleigh are visiting friends in New Elam section.

We are sorry to state that Mr. Edd Partin is seriously ill at this writing.

A large crowd attended the annual memorial service at New Elam Christian church Saturday. It being the thirty-fourth memorial held at that place, people look forward to the day when they can visit the cemetery where their relatives and friends are buried and decorate their graves with flowers. Three hundred and twelve have been buried in the cemetery and all graves were decorated with beautiful flowers.

The children gave a very interesting program in the morning. The program committees Mrs. G. L. Mann, Mrs. R. L. Trotter and Miss Lola Jones spent a good deal of time in training these children and they all rendered their parts well. The singing by the choir was also good, directed by Mr. A. G. Mann.

The welcome address was made by Mr. J. W. Drake. Rev. E. M. Carter, the regular pastor, and Rev. G. R. Underwood made some excellent talks. Mr. Underwood was our former pastor for years and he always has a hearty welcome at New Elam.

Every Woman Knows

Every woman knows how easy it is to burn or scald herself while working in her home. Every woman knows that these burns and scalds are painful and sometimes very slow to heal. Every woman should know that the pain of burns and scalds will be quickly relieved, infection positively prevented and speedy healing assured if Liquid Borozone is instantly applied. Get a bottle of Liquid Borozone and keep it handy in your medicine cabinet. Sold by Pittsboro Drug Company.—Adv.

RECORDER'S CASES

Recorder's court in session awhile Monday received the submission of W. A. Thompson for driving car while under the influence of liquor, and on Tuesday heard a trespass case against a colored man of Gulf township for trespassing on Mr. J. B. Ivey's land.

KNEW HIS STUFF

Old Si Chestnut said: "That young feller has mighty good manners. When he pours his coffee in a saucer he never blows it like common folks do—he FANS it with his HAT."

Depends a good deal on what you're used to, doesn't it? You can probably get along with inferior banking service, but if possible you will take the best there is. That's why we maintain banking facilities equal to the best, and it is yours for the asking. We invite thorough investigation.
