Moncure News

Miss Pauline Ray, who has been teaching in Mt. Airy schools reached her home here to spend the summer. She was accompanied home by her brother, Mr. Evan Ray, and his wife and little daughter.

Prof. and Mrs. H. G. Self took supper with Miss Olivia Harmon at Chapel Hill last Saturday evening and then attended the play, "Romeo and Juliet."

Misses Lois Ray and Lucile Wickler who have been students at Appalachian Teachers' College, Boone, reached home last Saturday for the summer.

Miss Mary Womble, who has been teaching near Lenoir, is also at home for the summer.

Mr. J. V. Womble, who has been teaching in White Plains high school, Mr. James B. Utley, who has been teaching at McLeansville high school and Mr. Robert W. Utley, who has been principal of a school near Liberty reached home for the past week-end. Moncure is alive now with girls and boys who have been off to college and with some who have been off teaching. We welcome them back home and to Moncure.

Miss Elizabeth Thomas, who will graduate in a few weeks at N. C. C. W., Greensboro, spent last week-end at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Thomas.

Mrs. H. D. Strickland returned last Saturday from a visit to relatives at Fayetteville.

Mrs. John L. Sprower, Sr., who has been visiting Mrs. J. J. Hackney, returned to her home at Freepport, N. Y., one day last week.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Y. Seymore and family, of Buie's Creek, moved to Moncure one day last week. They are occupying the John Bell house on Main street. Rev. Seymore is pastor of the Baptist church in town, also Gum Springs and Flat Spring churches near here. His churches gave him a pounding recently. We welcome them to our town.

Mrs. J. F. Brady, who has been visiting her daughter in Raleigh, returned to her home here last Saturday.

The Junior Epworth League met last Sunday evening and gave an interesting program.

Also the Senior League gave an interesting program at 7:30 o'clock with Miss Emma Lee Mann as leader. The subject of the lesson for the evening was "Bible Stories That Inspire." The devotional was held by Mrs. W. W. Stedman. Misses Margaret Strickland, Roberta Lambeth, Dorothy Lambeth and Camelia Stedman assisted the leader in presenting the lesson. After the meeting, the regular monthly business session was held, with the president, Miss Camelia Stedman, presiding. Much business was transacted and the financial success of the league was discussed. The members were requested to bring their mission pledge money to the meeting next Sunday evening, for the remainder of the mission pledge money is to be sent in this month. Miss Lois Ray will be the leader for next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. All members and visitors are requested to be present.

Miss Dorothy Poe is visiting Miss Ruth Stedman this week.

Mr. J. W. Tally of Bonsal was in town last Saturday on business.

Mr. F. K. Borden and son, Kernon of Goldsboro, are in town today, Monday, on business.

Mr. W. W. Stedman reports a pleasant trip to the District Conference at Roseboro, Sampson County, N. C. He went with Rev. J. A. Dailey, H. F. Durham, and Lacy Womble, of Pittsboro. Mr. Stedman was elected as delegate to the annual conference at Henderson to be held this fall and Mr. Lacy Womble was elected alternate.
