Dangerous Business

Our stomach and digestive systems are lined with membrane which is delicate, sensitive and easily injured. It is dangerous business, then, to use medicines containing harsh drugs, salts or minerals, when we are constipated. In addition to the possibility of injuring the linings of our digestive system, these medicines give only temporary relief and may prove habit forming. The safe way to relieve constipation is with Herbine, the cathartic that is made from herbs, and acts in the way nature intended. You can get Herbine at Pittsboro Drug Co. Adv.

Brown's Chapel News

"Divide" was exactly what was in Pastor Dailey's theme that was mentioned in our last news letter, and he made it plain enough that sin does divide any person, from righteousness, and he got up and going in it enough to be on the highest tom-walkers ever ridden, and anyone committing the sins he referred to could not help feeling slashed. Come and hear him next Sunday at 11 a. m.

(Editorial Note: We do not yet believe Brother Durham has stated that theme correctly, even when we use "divide" instead of "devide". The reason we tried to think of another word he was striking at was because the theme as expressed didn't make sense.")

The children of the two smaller classes in our Sunday school, who are taught by Mesdames C. H. Lutterloh and R. G. Perry in the class rooms, came out before the crowd Sunday and rendered a very appropriate song during the devotional exercises. Miss Christine Perry plays nicely in accompaniment with children.

Little Miss Merl Lutterloh had little Miss Emma Dell Dark as her guest last Sunday, her birthday.

We were glad to see Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Lutterloh back with us after being absent several Sundays. Mr. Lutterloh says Simmons has had a job for 38 years and that Bailey has wanted one for 39 years.

(A little wrong there Brother Lutterloh. Bailey graduated only 37 years ago.)

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Mann, accompanied by their father Mr. J. T. Mann, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Cheek in Carrboro

Sunday, where Mrs. J. T. Mann has been spending some days with her daughter Mrs. Cheek.

Last Friday evening H. F. Durham and family closed up the house, turned all the stock into the pasture, together and went to Carrboro to spend the night with relatives and to attend at the bedside of Mr. Durham's mother Mrs. I. W. Durham, who had been sick
