SHAW-RIDDLE.

(Contributed)
In a quiet ceremony marked by beauty and charm and witnessed by only relatives and a few close friends, Miss Louise Ann Riddle became the bride of Curtis Gilbert Shaw on Monday evening, June 9, at the First Baptist Church in Chapel Hill, with Rev. Eugene Olive as the officiating minister.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Henry A. Bynum sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "I Love You Truly". She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Wm. F. Bland. The bride and groom entered to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin; while "To a Wild Rose" was softly rendered during the ceremony.

The bride who is of attractive blond type, was smartly gowned in a dark-blue chiffon ensemble, with harmonizing accessories, and wore a corsage of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Shaw is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton H. Riddle, recently of Pittsboro but now residents of Long Island, N. Y. She has a host of friends throughout the state.

Mr. Shaw is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Colon G. Shaw, of Raleigh. For several years he has held a responsible position with the Durham Herald.

After a short wedding trip to the western part of the state, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw will be at home in Durham.

Asbury News

The Children's Day and Home Coming will not be at Asbury Sunday June 14, but will be later.

●A terrible tragedy occurred Saturday Evening between 6 and 7 o'clock when Mr. Johnnie Stedman's truck turned over and caught Mr. Lewis Gunter under it, instantly killing him. Lewis, was 22 years old and was much loved by all who knew him.

He was buried at Asbury Methodist Church Sunday P. M. at 4:00 o'clock. He had been a member of Asbury Church for a number of years. He leaves his father and mother Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Gunter and the following sisters and brothers: Jereldine, Betsy, Mrs. Worth Rosser Olin, Lee and a half brother Dormie Williams.

The large crowd proved that he was thought well of. It was the largest crowd that has ever been to a funeral at Asbury. May God's Blessings rest with the bereaved family.

Mrs. W. C. Gunter and Mrs. F. Wood are visiting Mrs. J. W. Johnson and friends in this Community this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bent Reberson and Roy Rhodes of Pittsboro attended the funeral of Mr. Gunter Sunday P. M.

Several from Esbury attended the Quaterly Meeting at Jones Chapel M. E. Church Saturday.

Mr. C. F. McCormick happened to bad luck last week, when he got one foot mashed up while working at Mill.

Miss Margaret Johnson, our Epworth League president, who has been in school at East Carolina Teachers College, came home last Friday.

Miss Estelle Johnson is home from Culloree College, and Mr. Lester Johnson from Dayton School.

Mr. Porter Johnson is very ill with pneumonia.

PARTLY TRUE

"Why, you don't even know what economy is."
"Sure I do! It's a way of spending money without getting any fun out of it."

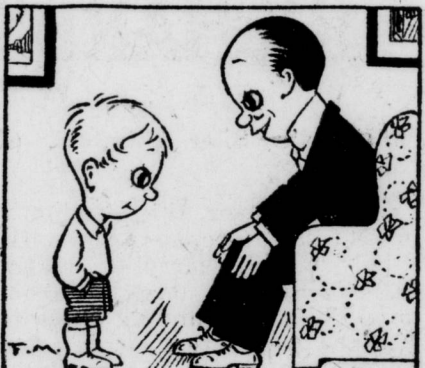

WIDOW'S WEEDS

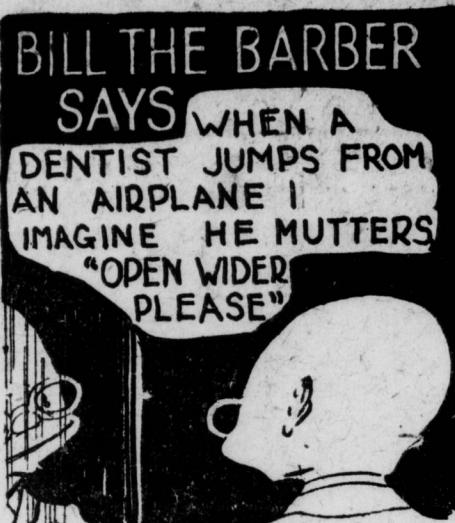

Miss Perch—How nice of you to trim your hat with widow's weeds in memory of your dear husband.

Mrs. Trout (a widow)—And so inexpensive, too. It's seaweed!

MUST BE A GIRL

Visitor—How do you know, Willie, that the new baby is a girl?
Willie—Ain't they powdering it all the time?

THANKS.

I wish to thank the friends who voted for me Saturday. I could not canvass the county and had little prospect of being nominated. Yet I appreciate the votes of the several hundred who did vote for me. I also wish to express my purpose to give the ticket nominated a hearty support, and hope to see it elected by an unusually large majority this fall.

Respectfully,
A. J. Boone.

Mrs. Nutleigh—How did your trial come out?
Mrs. Splash leigh—Well, the jury didn't seem to like my pink ensemble, but when I wore my mauve chiffon dress they readily came to an agreement.—The Pathfinder.

Stella—(at the seashore)—Look! Mary's sinking! County Bugsky's trying to save her! D'ja 'spose she's drowning?
Bella—No. I think she's just gone down for the count.—The Pathfinder.

Oshkosh—Why don't you like girls?
Kennebunk—They're too biased.
Oshkosh—Biased?
Kennebunk—Yes—bias this, and bias that, until I'm broke.—The Pathfinder.
