

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Little Eleanor Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson, spent last week with her aunt Mrs. Boris Benton at Apex.

Mr. J. B. Burns has fitted up the place recently occupied by Mr. Tuck Perry for filling station and calls it Four Points. He has a good-looking place.

Miss Etta Goodwin Farriell is visiting her aunt Mrs. T. W. Crowson in Fayetteville. We learn also that Mr. Dan Farrell has been with the Thomas Drug Company in Sanford for some time.

The Record welcomes Mrs. E. C. Narron and two boys to town. Mr. Narron has been here since the new owners bought out the Hall store, but the writer had not realized that he and Mrs. Narron both are of good old Johnson county stock.

Mr. Tuck Perry left the latter part of the week for treatment at the U. S. Hospital at Portsmouth. Editor Joseph Daniels had his car wrecked near Pittsboro Saturday afternoon. A truck ran into and the car had to be left here for repairs.

Mr. J. George Smith of Albright township, here Saturday, had already threshed 457 bushels of grain. 257 of wheat and 200 of barley. The barley was only about a half grown and Mr. Smith, who runs a threshing, says nearly all the barley crops in his section are poor this year.

Dr. Chapin, Reid Thompson, Ed Hatch, and Wade Barber are spending the week down in the Ocracoke section fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Peterson spent three days last week with their daughter, Mrs. H. J. Faison, down in Sampson and Mrs. Peterson had the time of her life nursing that.

Mr. Grady, who succeeded W. R. Oldham in the management of the new barber shop in the Fields building, has folded his tent and departed. He closed up Monday.

There will be a Sunday school rally at the Goldston Baptist church next Sunday, June 29. There will be all-day services and dinner on the grounds. Mr. D. B. Teague of Sanford will make talk. Others also are expected to speak briefly. The public is cordially invited.

Miss Margaret Brooks left a few days ago for Richmond, Va., where she is talking a course at a business college. She is living with one of her aunts.

The annual Sunday school day will be observed at Chatham Methodist church next Sunday morning. The program, beginning at 11 o'clock, will be rendered by the children and young people, who have been trained for the occasion.

Pastor Caudill is preaching some strong sermons at the Baptist church this week. The meeting is being fairly well attended. Mrs. Caudill is spending part of the week here also.

Mr. J. B. Darnell, here Tuesday, informed us that the very promising tobacco crop of his community was considerably damaged by last week's hard rains.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Johnson are visiting the latter's brother, Mr. William Connell, in Washington, D. C.

Mr. J. C. Andrews, our blind citizen, has been very ill the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Sturdivant are proud parents of a fine girl. See "Here Comes Arabella," popular musical comedy, sponsored by American Legion Auxiliary, Tuesday, July 1, High School Auditorium 9 o'clock.

Mr. Tommie Thompson showed us yesterday a 53-grain gold nugget found by his brother in his Orange county cotton patch. This is the third found in the same field. The nugget shown us seems to be pure gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Thompson and children of Littleton spent the week-end with Capt. Alston and Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Nooe.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bass and little Miss Nancy Bass visited the Peterson home during the week-end.

Mrs. Allen and her grandson William of Raleigh are visiting Mrs. D. B. Nooe this week.

Miss Pearl Johnson sailed from Shanghai, China, Sunday and will arrive home about the middle of July.

The London reunion turned out as scheduled and reported last week. Capt. Jack arrived with his lovely bride Friday evening. All the family except Mr. Fell and Mrs. Jerome, sons-in-law, were present.

The most of us forgot the township convention Saturday, but a few met and appointed 19 delegates to the county convention to be next Saturday at 11 o'clock. The chief business of the convention will be the election of delegates to the state convention to be held in Raleigh July 3 and the election of a county chairman.

Dr. Roscoe Farrell was elected Saturday as chairman of the Democratic committee for Center township, succeeding the late Mr. J. W. Griffin, who has served for several years. Other members are J. W. Johnson, Wade Barber, Victor Johnson. If there is a fifth name, it has not reached the Record.

A system of state constabulary, in which county lines are no barriers, with uniformed officers showing themselves in the most remote settlements, representing the authority of law, would certainly be a great improvement over the sheriffs, deputies and constables of the present general system.—The Pathfinder.

Moncure News

Miss Lucile Addison and cousin Miss Bobie Bush of Toccoa, Ga., are visiting Miss Elma Ray this week. Miss Addison is a graduate of Moncure High School.

Mr. E. W. Avert, Jr. of Bynum spent last week-end in town.

Mrs. C. D. Orrell and daughter Miss Barbara, are spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Barbara Watkins.

Miss Mary Womble is visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. P. Louthran in Washington, D. C. this week.

Miss Louise Womble is visiting her uncle at Hamlet.

Miss Elma Ray is taking a business course at Edward's Business College, High Point.

Prof. and Mrs. George D. Harmon and little daughter, Patricia of Bethlehem, Pa. and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith of Philadelphia, Pa. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stedman last Sunday evening.

Harmon is located at Duke University where he is teaching in the summer school. He has been teaching History at Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa. for several years and he will teach there next year. He has finished his "thesis" and it has been accepted. He also has taken his doctorate examinations and passed, so he received his Doctor's Degree this Spring.

Dr. and Mrs. Harmon took Mr. and Mrs. Smith to Raleigh yesterday. They left on 9:48 o'clock train for their home at Philadelphia, Pa.

Master J. E. Byron, Jr. of Pittsboro and Mr. John Overman of Bridgton are visiting their grandfather, Mrs. J. E. Byron this week.

Mr. Jennings Womble, who has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis, is at home now and getting on nicely his many friends will be glad to know.

Mrs. E. A. Brown, the wife of Rev. E. A. Brown of Bynum accompanied by Mrs. Cary Moore of Bynum met at the Methodist Church with some of the ladies of Moncure last Saturday and organized a Woman's Missionary Society. Mrs. Brown is chairman of one of the zones of Chatham Co. and has the Missionary work at heart. Before organizing, she made a splendid talk about the work. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. W. W. Stedman; Vice-president, Mrs. J. E. Moore; Treasurer, Mrs. G. F. Carr; Recording Secretary, Mrs. E. G. Broadnax; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Mary Bland. The July meeting will be held at the Methodist Church Friday before the Second Sunday at 3 o'clock. All the ladies, if not members, are cordially invited to attend the meetings.

The Junior League met at 7:30 o'clock last Sunday evening and enjoyed a good program. Miss Ruth Stedman was elected to represent the Juniors at the Summer Assembly at Louisburg July 7 to 11th.

The Senior League was called to order at 8 o'clock by the President, Miss Camelia Stedman. After a short song service, the meeting was turned over to Miss Pauline Ray, the leader for the evening. The subject, "What Have We Done This Year?" was discussed by the leader, and Misses Lucile Wicker and Lois Ray in an interesting way. There will be four girls to represent the league at the Summer Assembly viz., Misses Emma Lee Mann, Camelia Stedman, Lois Ray and Dorothy Lambert.

Moncure Chevrolet Co. has changed to Shell Gasoline. They have recently installed two gasoline tanks with a capacity of 1000 gallons each.

Mr. J. W. Johnson, Rural Carrier on Route 2 is taking his vacation this week and Mr. J. Lee Harmon substitute is carrying the mail.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Bryon of Pittsboro spent several days last week with his father, Mr. J. E. Bryon.

Mr. W. W. Stedman spent last Friday in Raleigh on business.

Mr. W. H. Foster of Greensboro was in town last Friday on business.

Mr. B. A. Moore of Winston-Salem spent last week-end with his uncle, Mr. B. J. Utley.

Mr. Evet Lassiter, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lassiter Route 2, entertained at his home last Saturday evening the young people of his community and also some from Moncure. A nice evening was spent by all those present.

CAUSE OF AFFINITY

Gertie—"Every fellow around here seems to consider Miss Rich his affinity." Maggie—"Yes; she's very wealthy."

JOB FOR NURMI

"Yes, sir," panted the new shepherd, "I got all the sheep in, but I had to run some to get those lambs." "Lambs? I have no lambs. Let's see what you got," was the answer. Looking into the shed, the astonished owner saw fourteen panting jack-rabbits.—Arcanum Bulletin.

Berlin, Germany.—One of the newest German inventions is the Bacchus-Eyeglass which is fitted with an electric bulb on each end of the frame. A cord joins the frame of the glasses with a battery which may be carried in one's pocket. It is expected to prove a decided aid to night workers. Photo shows a man reading a paper with the aid of the "electric glasses."

"HERE COMES ARABELLA"

The American Legion Auxiliary of Pittsboro will present one of the best musical comedies of the season when they present "Here Comes Arabella" at the High School Auditorium, Tuesday, July 1, at 8 o'clock.

There are fifteen characters in the play, but the story is centered around Arabella, the little Gypsy nobody, who falls in love with a famous artist. Having already pledged herself to Robin Redbreast, a stranger who makes it possible for her to have a home, Arabella refuses to marry the artist. In the end, however, the artist and Robin Redbreast turn out to be the same, and all ends well.

The cast of characters include: Bob Adair, Lester Farrell, Arabella, Mary Dell Bynum, Sidney Hopewell, Willie Morgan, Jack, John London, Bill, Sam Beard, Henrietta, Elizabeth Blair, Imogene, Alma Dailey, Crystabell, Gladys Peterson, Mrs. Waddles, Frances Johnson, Mrs. Meeks, Elizabeth Blair, Mrs. Lurkins, Betty Mae Harmon, Levisky, Frank Barclay, Aunt Dibby, Juanita Overacre, Aunt Prudence, Louise Petty. Admission 25c and 50c.
