

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews and son have been visiting friends and relatives in New Jersey.

As an example of the injustice idle talk can do a person, we cite what has come to our ears about Dr. McBane and the case of Goley Mims who had broken his collar bone. The young man first called upon Dr. McBane and the way the bone appeared he did not know but what it would be a hospital case. Dr. Chapin being near, Dr. McBane called him to look at it and as the latter's office was on the ground floor and thus more convenient, the two physicians took the young man in there and together set the broken bone. Now, as we are informed, the talk in the section from which the case came is that Dr. McBane couldn't do it and he was taken to Dr. Chapin, which is certainly an injustice.

Mrs. James, son and grandson, of Wilmington, recently visited Mrs. James' nephew Mr. A. H. London.

The noted evangelist Rev. J. W. Ham is holding a revival at the Siler City Baptist church.

Mrs. R. L. Goldston, formerly of Goldston but now living at Wake Forest, has had quite a tour the past summer, including a visit to her son, daughter, and grandson, at Heddonfield, N. J., also her son in Brooklyn. She had the pleasure of touring New York underground and in the air. She also visited Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Mrs. Morgan, mother of Mr. Morgan, candidate for county commissioner on the Republican ticket, died at her daughter's home in Durham last Thursday and was buried at Martha's Chapel the next day. Rev. Mr. Farrell of Durham conducted the funeral services. A great crowd was present to pay their last respects to their old and respected neighbor.

Mr. Rennau Shannonhouse who has been employed by the Southern Utilities Company, Charlotte, will attend Davidson College this year. He has already had two years in the University.

Miss Virginia Beane has been visiting relatives and friends in New Jersey.

Miss Azzie Jenks, a professional nurse of Richmond, Va., visited her sister, Mrs. Wilson Wagner here during the last week end. Miss Jenks completed her professional course last June in a Richmond hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hawkins returned last week from a month's visit to their daughter in Annapolis, Md., and to relatives of Mr. Hawkins in southern Maryland. They will sojourn in Pittsboro a few weeks longer before returning to their Florida home.

Mr. Lee Powell has been visiting his uncle, Mr. N. M. Hill in Kinston.

Mrs. R. H. Hayes is visiting her brother in Davie county. The brother has been in bad health in recent months and is to have an operation this week. Mrs. Hayes has spent considerable time with him during his illness.

EPWORTH LEAGUE SOCIAL

The Mt. Zion Epworth League has had on a Membership Campaign for the last three weeks. It ended with the blues winning. During the campaign thirteen new members have been added to the roll.

A social was given last Saturday night, September 6th, by the losers in honor of the winners, at the home of Mrs. Clyde Griffin. A large crowd gathered on the lawn about eight o'clock, including both young and old.

Lots of different games were played, which everyone enjoyed. After hours of fun, delicious ice cream and cake was served on the lawn by Misses Irene Petty, Saddle Clark, Zeffie Petty, Fronnie Eubanks and Clatie Woody.

Followed a contest in word making, in which John Permenter and Atlas Petty were winners. The boys then sang a number of songs and the girls gave a yell for them. All seemed to enjoy the evening.

The following were present: Misses Clatie Woody, Juanita Clark,

Irene Eubanks, Saddle Clark, Fronnie Eubanks, Zeffie Petty, Mary Lilly, Mary E. Waggoner and Isabel Petty, Claiborne Harmon, Guss Clark, Jr., James L. Petty, Marion Harmon, J. L. Lilly, Ralph Riddle, John Thomas, Roland Farrell, John Permenter, Thalmage Farrell, Ike Bland, Raymond Ament, Floyd Harmon, and Atlas Petty, also Mr. and Mrs. Guss Clark, Mrs. R. F. Petty, Mrs. A. O. Harmon, Mrs. J. T. Petty, Mr. J. Lee Harmon and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Griffin.

Moncure News

Moncure School is moving along nicely under the leadership of Prof. H. G. Self and his faculty. The opening of Moncure School and other news was sent to the Record last week. As it was not published last week, hope it will be in print this week. Moncure school has the largest faculty and largest enrollment in its history, both in the grades and high school. Two new rooms are an addition to Moncure School for the home Economics department under Miss Annie Mae Goddell of Carthage. Those who are taking this course are liking the course and also the teacher.

Miss Ruth Clapp of the Piedmont Bureau, Asheville, was in town Monday on business.

Several in this community have received the following announcements:

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Eugene Lambeth announce the marriage of their daughter

Annie Maxwell

to

Mr. Armand Turner Daniel on Tuesday September the second, nineteen hundred and thirty:

Moncure, North Carolina

At home after September the eighth Mocksville, North Carolina.

Mrs. Daniel, nee Miss Annie Lambeth, is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lambeth, noted for her sweet personality. She was a graduate of Moncure high school and Louisville College, and would have graduated at Greensboro College for Women this year.

Mr. Daniel is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and has received his degree to practice law. He is now practicing law at Mocksville.

Although Mrs. Daniels will be missed in this community, her many friends wish for them a long and happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniels spent their honeymoon at Asheville.

Mr. L. E. Cole has returned from week with his daughter there.

MONCURE NEWS FROM LAST WEEK

Moncure Public School and High School opened last Monday morning, September 1st at nine o'clock with the biggest enrollment in its history. When all students have entered there will be over 350 enrolled, nearly 100 in the high school, with a large senior class this year.

The one-teacher school at Brickhaven joined Moncure school force Monday morning, so there are 13 teachers in Moncure School this year, namely: H. G. Self, principal, and Mathematics; E. W. Ament, Jr., History and Physics; Miss Hortense Honeycutt, Home Economics and Miss Lucy Boone, Piano and voice Miss Seawell, 7th grade; Miss Esther Martin, 6th grade; Mrs. Osbourne, 5th grade; Miss Margaret Mann, 4th grade; Miss Louise Petty, 3rd grade; Miss Ona Andrews, second grade; Miss Bland and Miss Kelly first grades. Miss Bland enrolled 45 children Monday morning so Miss Kelly, the teacher of Brickhaven, will assist Miss Bland in the first grade, so the writer understands.

Prof. Self extended a hearty welcome to Miss Kelly and her students of Brickhaven. Moncure school and town are glad to have them join the school.

Besides the largest enrollment of students and teachers for Moncure school, there was the largest crowd to attend the opening of school Monday morning. The auditorium was packed with chairs down the aisle, at the rear and sides. Rev. J. A. Dailey held the devotional and gave a good talk also good talks were made by Rev. V. Seymore, Messrs. C. D. Wilkie, Henry Harrington, and John Williams, the last three named are members of the school committee. All praised Prof. Self and the school to the highest, looking forward to this year as being the best year in the school's history.

Two rooms have been built as an annex to Moncure school this summer, for the Home Economics Department.

Moncure school has a nice library, it contains a nice collection of books and has six large tables with chairs for each table. The library is also used for a study hall.

The recreational department, consisting of Volley ball, base ball, and tennis is enjoyed by all students.

The primary department has swings and see saws for the little ones to enjoy. Mr. E. W. Ament and Mrs. Osbourne were in charge of this department last year. Guess they will be this year.

Miss Lucy Boone is the head of the music department. She did most excellent work last year and she has a large class this year in Piano and Voice.

Prof. H. G. Self, the principal of Moncure school has endeared himself to his students and teachers. He is a good principal, good teacher, and a good disciplinarian.

Mrs. S. F. Maddox of Mexico City, Mexico, reached here last Sunday to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hackney, Sr., on account of ill health in Mexico the doctor told her to come to the states. She will be here until about Jan. 1st. Mr. Maddox is still in Mexico, who is an accountant for a smelting and refining company there.

Mr. Steadman states that he is making some land sales. He has sold June Campbell farm to Hon. Walter D. Siler, of Raleigh and the W. Lyndean Johnson place to Mr. E. W. Oliver, a travelling salesman of Greensboro. Mr. Steadman's usual number of prospects are coming to see him daily.

Sees His Finish

Old Si Chestnut says: "The churches shouldn't worry so much about the ORIGIN of man. What they should be interested about, is his FINISH.

Maybe Si was right. Anyhow it's much the same way in financial affairs. It isn't so much the START that counts, it's the FINISH. Anybody can get along when young and in good health and full of "pep." But it's a different matter in old age. If you are careful, saving, and keep your funds at our Bank, you'll come through all right.
