

Brown's Chapel News

Rev. B. L. Gupton preached for this Methodist neighbors at Brown's Sunday night. His sermon was much appreciated. A feature of the evening's service was a duet by little Banks and Marshall Clark of Emmaus.

Our Epworth League is doing fine work, though we regret that some of those appointed to take part shirk their tasks, and thereby lose an opportunity for development.

Mrs. A. E. Lutterloh, who will visit her daughter Mrs. J. F. Smith in Raleigh and thence go to visit her oldest son, Dr. P. W. Lutterloh, at Jonesboro, Ark., was given a homecoming dinner by her children at the home of her son Mr. C. H. Lutterloh, Sunday.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perry and Mr. W. W. Lutterloh and family spent a day with the sister of the ladies, Mrs. N. R. Cole, near Winston-Salem. Mrs. Perry remained for a week and her husband and little Miss Emma Delle Dark drove up for her Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Durham enjoyed a fine treat of scuppernon Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. T. S. Smith in Baldwin township. Mr. Smith is a great believer in fruits, melons, and grapes and always grows an abundance for the family and to treat neighbors and friends.

Mr. W. C. Henderson has made 52 gallons of syrup.

Mr. Z. L. Dark and family visited Liberty Sunday afternoon and visited the site of the old academy in which he and the writer attended school over 25 years ago.

We sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Perry in the death of their infant last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blackwood of Burlington spent an evening with the former's sister, Mrs. M. T. Lindsey.

Mr. A. C. Whitaker and Miss Lora Jones were happily married last Saturday evening and spent the night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Durham, with the groom's little son and daughter Hoyt and Eloise Whitaker.

Miss Pearl Dark spent the week with her aunt Mrs. E. J. Clark in Hickory Mountain township.

Sometimes men are reported to be sitting around laughing at such a thing as a man's becoming so befuddled by drink as to lose his car. But it is no laughing matter. We need to get drink out of the reach of such unfortunate ones, and of our own children, who may reach similar conditions one day. However, a reformed drunkard says that anybody can quit anything if he only will, and a sensible man should not wait to reform till liquor is moved clear out of his reach. Real manhood is, after all, the greatest protection against ruining one's self with drink.

Mr. Earl Creed, who left here two weeks ago with his brother George for Bluefield, Va., hoping to get a job, has returned without such good luck. He was accompanied by his brother Walter, who has come on a visit.

A few minutes visit to the home of Mr. Grover C. Durham, who moved back from Durham a year or so ago and located in a house on the farm of his father, Mr. W. J. Durham, revealed many improvements made by Mr. and Mrs. Durham since their return.

A certain person started out near here a few years ago to make something of himself, but despite the aid of friends, fell into the lurch, the most of his friends quitting him and leaving the burden upon himself and a friend. He yet needs the help and support of friendship and of God to get out. Frequently, a little help prevents tragedies.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Beall spent a short while in the home of H. F. Durham and bought Jerome's pony for their children.

Mr. Wilbur Perry and sister Lois Ray and her family, of Durham, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Perry.

Romance and melodrama still exist in government. For Senator Hiram Johnson keeps saying to President Hoover, "Give me those papers."

The Government census officials were the only ones who knew that the small towns of the country are disappearing. The rest of us had been reading their Chamber of Commerce literature.

SERVING 84,000,000 AMERICANS

Recent statistics disclose that use of electricity in American homes has increased more than 50 per cent during the past three years. In 1926 we employed 6,345,000,000 kilowatt-hours of electric power for domestic purposes; in 1929, this rose to 9,787,000,000. The average consumption of electricity by domestic customers is now about 500 kilowatt hours a year, as compared with 220 in 1913. And to complete the imposing statistical array of facts, the electric industry now serves 20,000,000 domestic customers, representing a population of approximately 84,000,000.

The amazing growth of the industry is attributed to four main causes: The large annual increase use of electrical appliances; in lighting and better illumination in the average home; and perhaps most important of all, the fact that cost of electricity per kilowatt hour is now 28 per cent below the 1913 standard, while the general cost of living is 71 per cent above.

With the exception of those things that are vital to the maintenance of human life, it would probably be the general consensus of public opinion that electricity is one of the most indispensable commodities. It is directly responsible for our modern high standard of working and living conditions. It has, by giving the worker increased production, helped the trend toward higher wages and shorter hours. And it costs the average person less than two cents per day.

ONE ROOF IS ALL YOU SHOULD EVER BUY

Home-owners should never have to buy but one roof. It's too expensive to buy a cheap roof at first and then begin the continual re-roofing process that is the natural order with inferior grades of roofing. One good roof should last the life time of the home.
Budd-Piper Roofing Company sells good roofing and stands back of it. The next time you have a job to handle, call on us to supply you with the material you should have.

Chesterfield

MILDER, YES—BUT SOMETHING MORE. Chesterfield offers richness, aroma, satisfying flavor.
BETTER TASTE—that's the answer; and that's what smokers get in Chesterfield in fullest measure—the flavor and aroma of mellow tobaccos, exactly blended and cross-blended. Better taste, and milder too!
