Goldston

Did you know that there are five colored boys from Pittsboro attending Washington high school, Raleigh? They are Sidney Roberts, Ross and Isaiah Taylor, Thomas Freeman, and Robert Leach. This indicates the need of the projected county training school for Chatham colored boys and girls.

Mr. O. R. Hilliard, working a one, has made nearly a hundred barrels of corn and two bales of cotton this year, besides doing considerable blacksmith work for his community.

There was a surprisingly small crowd at court Monday. The county court has largely taken both business and interest from the Superior court. If the 200 and more cases tried in the county court had been left for the superior court there would have to be two extra terms. As it is, the regular October term will last hardly half the week. Counting everything, direct and indirect savings to the people, the county court has clearly saved thousands of dollars to the county and the people of the county.

Miss Maggie Phillips of Siler City spent the week-end with her brother, Mr. Jennings Phillips.

Don't forget the speaking at Siler City Saturday. Mr. Hoey is one of the most polished orators in the state.

Rev. Lewis P. Spencer and Mr. R. F. Thomas of Townville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Riddle Saturday.

Mr. Trudie Thrailkill visited Georgia this week on business. Mr. O. D. Bane is in his place in the drug store.

"Aunt" Phoebe Glover, a respected colored woman of the antebellum issue, died at the county home last week. She came from the Bonlee section.

Officers brought in Bud Jenkins, colored, from Greensboro, where he was arrested for stealing two bales of cotton from Mr. W. T. Brooks of Bonlee. The cotton was recovered.

Mr. J. M. Maddox of Durham spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. C. F. Murdock near Pittsboro.

This is the last week to register before the election. If you have moved into another township since you last voted, you have to register. If you are, or will be, twenty one before the election, you have the privilege of registering.

Mrs. M. B. Gibson and Mrs. P. W. Fogeman of High Point spent Sunday with Mrs. Gibson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Gilmore on Siler City route 5.

Mrs. J. J. Ferebee of Shawboro, who visited her daughter Mrs. Wade Barber, returned home Sunday.

There were 145 marriages in Chatham in 1929, against 167 in 1928. But many Chatham couples married outside the county last year. It is a growing practice to run out of the state to marry or to another county. The number of divorces in the county last year was 10, and nine in 1928.

BIOLOGY CLASS GIVES CHAPEL PROGRAM

The ninth grade biology class, with the help of their teacher, Miss Coble, gave a very entertaining play, "The Cosmos Flower and Her Friends," in chapel Monday morning. The play was written by members of the class.

The students in the play represented the different parts of the flower. Each dressed in an attractive paper dress to represent her part of the flower.

The play summarized the study of the flower, which made it educational as well as entertaining.

Mr. Waters presented a dollar to the student who wrote the best theme on the talk which he made in Chapel Monday, October 9. The prize went to Elsie Riddle, a junior. The five next best were: George Griffin, James Cordon, Ruby Young, Lillian Carroll, Elizabeth Womble, and Lillie Bynum.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Oldham and children of High Point spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Oldham.

Miss Juanita Cotten of Durham was a visitor in the home of Miss Geanie Oldham Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Wheeley of Durham spent the week-end with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thomas of Pittsboro spent Sunday with Mrs. Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Poe.

Miss Marguerite Oldham is spending a while with her brother, Mr. S. E. Oldham of High Point.

Misses Sadie and Daisy Oldham of Bynum spent a while Sunday afternoon in the home of Miss Beatie Oldham.

Mrs. W. N. Dawkins of Pittsboro was a recent visitor in the home of her father, Mr. G. B. Hart, who is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Oldham of Yanceyville spent a while Sunday with home folks.

The school at Carolina opened Monday with Miss Ella Smith as teacher.

We are very sorry to state that Mr. G. B. Hart who has been sick quite a while is very much worse.

Brown's Chapel News

Last Saturday, October the 18th, being the sixty-ninth birthday of Mr. A. F. Whitaker, and the seventy-six birthday of Mr. I. W. Durham, of Carboro, a surprise birthday dinner was given both men by their children, friends, and relatives at the home of the former's son, Mr. O. C. Whitaker.

It was estimated as being over three hundred people present, and a fifty foot table was well loaded about two o'clock Sunday afternoon with all kinds of delicious food. Rev. Lawrence, of Carboro, offered thanks, and afterward the good things disappeared off the table nearly as fast as they had been put on.

Three preachers were present, Rev. E. C. Durham, of Burlington, J. A. Dailey, of Pittsboro, and Lawrence, of Carboro. Mr. Dailey and Mr. Lawrence made short talks, but Mr. Durham refused, as he was the son of one of the honorees.

A beautiful cake with age and Grandfather printed on it, and sixty-nine candles, was presented to Mr. Whitaker by his granddaughter, Mrs. Teer, of Ewepsonville. Another cake with Alvin, sixty-nine, and Isaac, seventy-six was on the table, this was presented by Mr. Durham's son, Rev. E. C. Durham of Burlington.

Before leaving the crowd wished for both men much happiness and many more enjoyable birthdays.

Quite a few from here, members of the Ala-Chat Council, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, attended the state wide meeting held at Greensboro last Saturday night. A ten dollar prize was offered to the Council having the best attendance, and we are proud to say that we, with nineteen members were the proud recipient of the prize.

Messrs. John Durham, of Burlington, and Kiah Henderson of Raleigh, spent the week-end with their parents.

Somebody was mean enough in passing Mrs. O. C. Whitaker's cotton patch to take cotton, packings sacks, and all. They took around a hundred pounds of cotton.

Mr. Dee Glenn and family, of Alamance county, spent the day with Mrs. Glenn's sister, Mrs. Asate Crutchfield.

Mr. R. H. Lindley and family attended his mother's Surprise Birthday Dinner Sunday near Center Church.

Upon his return an American tourist complained that he saw more billboards in the United States the first six days than he saw in all of Europe in six months. You can't blame that fellow for not having seen America first!

Right much frost was seen in this section last Sunday morning. The Union Revival that has been in progress here for two weeks came to a close last Friday evening. The ministers, Rev. Jonas Barclay, Rev. T. Y. Seymore and Rev. J. A. Dailey did some splendid and faithful preaching and a wonderful fellowship was shown among the ministers and the congregation. The Holy Spirit's presence was felt in all the services and we are thankful of the Holy Spirit's presence in the church and the world to-day. There will be ten who will come into the membership of the church as a direct result of the meeting.

The different families who entertained the ministers at a meal enjoyed having them so much. The choir with the leadership of Mr. Emory Matthews of Sanford and Mr. Howard Ross, as pianist did some splendid singing during the meeting. We feel grateful to Mr. Matthews and Mr. Ross for their faithfulness and splendid work.

The pulpit stand that was built to be used for this meeting was presented to the school by Rev. J. A. Dailey and it was accepted by Prof. H. G. Self, the principal of the school, with the words of appreciation.

Rev. Jonas Barclay will preach at the Haywood Presbyterian church next Sunday morning Oct. 26th at 11 o'clock.

Rev. J. A. Dailey will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday evening, Oct. 26th at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Dailey urges all members to be present at this meeting and also the public is invited to attend this service. This service will be about the last service that Rev. J. A. Dailey will hold at Moncure before going to Conference.

A lady from N. C. C. W. Greensboro will speak at the School Auditorium Tuesday evening Oct. 21st at 7:30 o'clock in the interest of organizing a Parent Teachers Association in this community for Moncure School.

Mrs. Jaunita Gregg Winn of Liberty will speak at the School Auditorium Tuesday evening Oct. 28th at 7:30 o'clock. The ladies and men of the community are requested to come out and hear Mrs. Winn.

Mr. Horton Poe, who was reared in Moncure, gave an interesting and helpful talk at the B. Y. P. U. last Sunday evening at the Baptist church. He illustrated his talk with drawings.

Mr. A. B. Hall and two friends of Greensboro were guests of Mr. W. W. Stedman last Saturday. They have purchased Mr. Stedman's house and lot in that city.

The following item is a clipping from the Mocksville paper: "In the pretty girl contest Mrs. A. T. Daniel of Mocksville (nee Miss Annie Lambeth of Moncure) won the $5 in gold for being the prettiest girl and Miss Vanda Merrill of Fark won the $2.50 for being the next prettiest girl present. The judges were attorney B. C. Brock of this city, Charles S. Anderson of Colaham and C. C. Stone-street of Kannapolis. The judges decided that all those who attended the contest were pretty and they had a hard task in selecting the two prettiest. Thirty-one young ladies registered for the contest, but several were absent when the awards were made."

Mr. Eugene Lambeth, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lambeth left last Friday for Baltimore, Md. to enter an aviation school.

Mr. J. S. Windsor of Lexington was in town to see W. W. Stedman one day last week and purchased the J. C. Little farm at Merry Oaks. He hopes to move to this place soon.

Mr. R. B. Fagan of Washington, D. C. was in town to see Mr. W. W. Stedman concerning farm lands one day last week and he complimented Mr. Stedman very highly for his efficient work in Chatham County Farm Loan Association.

The Epworth Junior Society met last Sunday evening with Jacob Sammons as leader. A real good program was given.

The Senior League met at 7:00 o'clock with the president, Miss Emma Lee Mann as leader, who read the Bible lesson and as a prayer Miss Lucy Boone sang softly, "A-bide with Me". Miss Camelia Stedman read a very appropriate poem on the lesson. Mr. W. W. Stedman made a very interesting and helpful talk on, "Deciding What is Right and Wrong." Then Misses Emma Lee Mann and Camelia Stedman and Mr. Harry Kendrick sang, "Take Time to be Holy," as a trio with Miss Boone as pianist. The October business and social meeting of the League will be held at "The Cabin" with Miss Camelia Stedman next Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This will be a Gypsy Party and every member of the League are invited to be present and come dressed as a gypsy.

Mrs. P. A. Kearney, who has spent a couple of months with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Moore and other relatives will leave tomorrow for her home at Miami, Fla. Her mother Mrs. C. C. Olinger will accompany her home and spend the winter in Florida.

Mrs. J. E. Moore and Mrs. W. W. Stedman attended the Zone Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliaries held last Saturday at Ebenezer Methodist church, which is 9 miles from Moncure. All the Auxiliaries of the Zone were represented and gave good reports. Mrs. A. E. Brown, of Bynum, in her graceful manner presided over the meeting. There were three missionaries present at this meeting, quite a coincidence. Dr. Wilson of Japan, who is now at his home in Durham, Miss Elizabeth Lambe of Brazil, who is now at her home in Fayetteville and Miss Sallie Lou McKinnon of China, who is now at her home at Maxton. These missionaries gave stirring talks on their work in their respective fields. Also, Mrs. J. W. Whitehead, of Dunn, Secretary of Fayetteville district, gave a most interesting talk. We spent a most enjoyable day at Ebenezer church and the members of the auxiliary of this church gave us a most hearty welcome and such a dinner we did enjoy so much. The next Zone Meeting will be held at Pittsboro Methodist church.

A Duke University student will preach at Providence Methodist church, four miles northwest of Moncure, next Sunday afternoon, October 26, at three o'clock. The public is cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. J. E. Cathell spent several days in Moncure visiting friends last week.
