Mr. G. C. Durham is only partially deaf and dumb and not totally at printed last week.

Every member is urged to attend church nevt Sunday. It is last Sunday before the last preaching service before the annual conference, and it would be well for us to have a heat-to-hear talk about things for which there is no need for a preacher's being present. The lay leader requests hearty co-operation in these strenuous times. Mr. G. C. Durham is now in the State Hospital but it is hoped that he may soon recover full possession of his mental powers. He is a hard worker, a fine mechanic, despite his affliction of deafness. Mr. W. J. Durham says he would rather have his hand cut off than see his son have to go to the hospital, but that he felt it was best for all concerned that he go. He had apparently become dangerous, threatening even his father with a gun, and the latter will explain the whole matter to any of those who are passing harsh judgement upon him. Nor should any reproach be leveled at Grover, since he has been unbalanced by the loss of his home in Durham when he was unable to meet payments due on it. But the father will explain all to any critic of his actions in the Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stone and Mr.

and Mrs. K. C. Carter and two children visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Durham Sunday. Mrs. Durham returned with them for a week's visit.

This sale is made by reason of the failure of Mrs. Blanche Honorouth son of Pinehurst, a nephew of Mr. Cockman's, wil be seen in the pictures The film will be released in about two weeks, and perhaps may be seen here, as the Pittsboro movie theatre is opening again. Representatives of the big city papers were present to take pictures for the photogravure sec-tions of their papers The movie film ran in length to 3,000 feet, but perhaps much of that footage will be cut out in assembling. The picture is a talkie throughout.

JUST SUPPOSE-

You had $1000 in our Savings Department now. You could buy a good farm or a house and lot. And don't think that farm land and homes will not be in demand at better prices one of these days. They are going for songs now, but the man who hasn't saved can not even raise the tune for the song. The thing to do is to begin now. It is truly hard to save a dollar now, but the man who does get a little ahead will have the advantage over the fellow who enters the next period without a dollar of capital.
