News of the Week on Farms Chatham County

LESPEDEZA DOUBLES CORN YIELD FOR GOLDS-TON FARMER

"I had two different 'Patches' in corn following Lespedeza this year," stated Mr. W. H. Tyler, prominent Goldston farmer. "On one two acre field that yielded twelve bu per acre that last time it was in corn, I made a yield of 25 bu per acre following Lespedeza. This exactly doubles the yield of corn without Lespedeza, and I would have made at least a third more corn had it been reasonable."

On another two acre field on my farm, I cut a heavy crop of Lespedeza hay last fall. I turned the stubble and planted in corn this spring. I made exactly 40 bu per acre on this field, whereas the last time I had it in corn, I made 30 bu per acre. There is evidently considerable fertilizing value in the Lespedeza roots and stubble."

BRICKHAVEN FARMER MAKES GOOD COTTON

Mr. Henry A. Harrington has picked the cotton through on two acres of the five acre cotton project that he conducted as a demonstration this year. The yield per acre was 60 pounds lint cotton. We feel that the remaining three acres will make almost if not as much cotton as the two that has been picked over. This cotton was dusted. The project is conducted by Mr. Henry A. Harrington in cooperation with the Chilean Nitrate of Soda Educational Bureau and the County Agent.

On a five acre corn project, Mr. Harrington made a total of 275 measured bushels of corn, an average of 55 bu per acre. Mr. Harrington turned a crop of soy bean vines on this five acre during the past winter and followed it in corn. Mr. Harrington's record shows that this corn was produced at the low cost of 38 cents per bushel.

MORE HOGS BEING FED FOR SPRING MARKET

Mr. T. C. Woody, Cumlock, RFD No. 1 recently put seven fine young pigs on feed. Mr. Woody is feeding them a balanced ration of corn meal, shelled corn, shorts and fish meal.

POISONED COTTON VERSUS UNPOISONED COTTON

Mr. J. W. Johnson, Supt. of the County Home made a yield of three bales on three and one half acres this year by dusting. A three acre field in the place that was not dusted yielded only one bale; Mr. Burt Dickens, Merry Oaks, N. C., RFD made a yield of ten bales on 14 acres by dusting compared with a yield of 6 bales on 14 acres that was not dusted; Mr. Henry A. Harrington made a yield of ten bales on ten acres through dusting; Mr. E. C. Mims, Merry Oaks, RFD, made a yield of six bales on six acres through dusting; Mr. C. W. Cross of Corinth made a yield of 1112 pounds of lint cotton on two and one half acres this year by poisoning, while the yield of the same land last year that was not poisoned was one 400 pound bale; Mr. H. C. Johnson of Sanford RFD 4 made a yield of four bales on four and one half acres this year by dusting, compared with a yield of 2 and one half bales on the same land last year that was not dusted.

DUSTING PAID THIS FARMER

"On a 12 acre field, I dusted ten acres five times, and two acres three times. Where I applied dust five times, I will make twice as much cotton as I will on the two acres that had three applications," stated Mr. DeWitt Smith, Pittsboro, RFD 3, recently. Mr. Smith made nine bales of cotton on twelve acres this year. The same acreage in cotton last year, not poisoned yielded a total of two 350 pound bales.

BREED FOR SPRING IN EARLY NOVEMBER AND LATE OCTOBER

Sows should be bred before Nov. 15 for early spring pigs, as they will usually be ready for breeding a few days after the fall pigs are weaned. If necessary, wean the fall pigs early and give them some extra milk, along with a good concentrate ration.

Early in March is the best farrowing time as the weather is usually warm enough to prevent chilling or freezing of the young pigs or not hot enough to cause the sow trouble at farrowing or stunt the young pigs. There is as a rule, a heavy death loss in summer and winter pigs and those that live do not make the growth that fall or spring pigs would.

March pigs can be made ready for the market in September when hogs are high, by breeding in early November and early May it is possible to have each crop of pigs ready for the market when hogs are highest and to dispose of each pig crop by the time another comes on.

Resolutions of Respect

Directors of Bank of Pittsboro Express Appreciation of Services of Their Late Cashier, Mr. James L. Griffin.

Whereas, Almighty God, in his infinite wisdom, has seen fit to take from us the vice-president and cashier of this Bank, James L. Griffin. And, whereas, James L. Griffin served the Bank of Pittsboro as director, Vice President and Cashier with fidelity, integrity and marked devotion to duty for more than twelve years;

And, whereas, in the death of James L. Griffin, this Bank has suffered the loss of an able executor, a wise and safe counsellor, and a faithful and true friend;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved By the Board of Directors of the Bank of Pittsboro:

First: That we express ourselves as being fully appreciative of the great work and service that James L. Griffin rendered to the Bank of Pittsboro and this community during the years of his life, and deeply sensible of the great loss that this Bank and this community has suffered in his death.

Second: That we extend to the family of James L. Griffin the sincerest sympathy of the officers and directors of the Bank of Pittsboro in their bereavement.

Third: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this Board; that a copy be sent to Mrs. James L. Griffin; and that a copy be published in That Chatham Record.

WADE BARBER DANIEL L. BELL, Committee.

ARMISTICE OBSERVANCE AT BELL'S

Apex, Nov. 11.—As a tribute to the men who served the nation in time of its greatest peril and to honor the day, the 12th anniversary of Armistice Day, which marked an end to sanguine activity and denounced universal gambling in commodities and military education creating unrest, the entire school including the primary, elementary, and high school departments assembled and enjoyed an especially attractive program sponsored by the seventh grade and their teacher Miss Bettie Jo Amick. A spirit of optimism mingled with patriotism and an air of general good time prevailed within the assembly. In the program of celebrity the group pupils and teachers sang "America the Beautiful" which was followed by scripture, Irene Mills, Beatrice Mason, gave recitations on, "Heaven", "Our Flag", "Ring Peace Day Bells", respectively. Portraying the life and memories of a soldier, Ralph Scott sang "You Got To Get Up In The Morning". Nina Mae Sexton recited "In Flander Field" following which Louise Sexton gave recitation "Bring Flowers".

Superintendent W. R. Thompson, one of those who served his nation in the time of its greatest peril, gave an eloquent talk in which he pictured the pre-scenes of war, war itself, and then to be followed by peace for which we should be and are thankful and now rejoicing.

Songs were sang which were characteristic of the time of departing soldiers and of the time when pure blood was shed in the name of peace and American democracy and the principles for which it represents.

Dangerous Business

Our stomach and digestive systems are lined with membrane which is delicate, sensitive and easily injured. It is dangerous business, then, to use medicines containing harsh drugs, salts or minerals, when we are constipated. In addition to the possibility of injuring the linings of our digestive system, these medicines give only temporary relief and may prove habit forming. The safe way to relieve constipation is with Herbine, the cathartic that is made from herbs, and acts in the way nature intended. You can get Herbine at Pittsboro Drug Co. Adv.
