

TOWN AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Mrs. Altom M. Riddle, who with Mr. Riddle is employed at a hospital at Kink's Park, Long Island, was a Pittsboro visitor this week.

Mr. Otto Wolff of Vienna, Md., who grew up in this community, has been visiting boyhood friends in this community this week. Tuesday was partly spent in carrying out the remains of the Wolff family in the Methodist churchyard.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson of the Asbury church of a community upon the birth of a daughter Sunday night. She is Miss Jacqueline Adair. Manifestly, Jack didn't get to give his name to any of the four brothers. This is the second girl. One of the larger boys welcomed her on the ground that he should not have to wipe any more dishes.

Tax-payers should note that there are two calls for taxes in this issue of the Record. That over the name of Sheriff Blair is for the taxes for 1929 and previous years, while that over the name of C. C. Poe, newly appointed tax-collector, is for the 1930 taxes. Advertisement for the sale of lands for 1929 taxes is long overdue, but will come. That for 1930 taxes will be due May 1, 1931—that is the advertisement of lands for sale.

An item is going the rounds of the papers to the effect that some town has a hundred widows. That started somebody to counting the widows in Pittsboro and the number ran up to thirty among the white population, while there are less than a third as many widowers.

The Record regrets to learn of the removal of Mr. Tutwiler, cashier of the Page Trust Company at Siler City, to Burlington. It probably means a promotion to Mr. Tutwiler, but his going is a distinct loss to Chatham county.

Mrs. Mattie Lanus visited her daughter in Durham Tuesday, the latter being reported ill.

The paper is being mailed on Thanksgiving Day. We hope you are enjoying the day and that you are really thankful for the many blessings that you have received. However, it is hard for some to reconcile their trials and tribulations with the idea of blessing, but the fire purifies the gold. As for the Record's family, we have many reasons to be thankful, despite the fact that we could wish for a greater flow of cash that would enable them to meet more readily the demands upon them.

Mr. L. E. Thomas, who has been engaged in the drug business 35 years and manager of a drug store for five years in Wilmington, and who recently came to his country home on Moncure rt. 2, while making headquarters there will offer himself for relief work in the drug stores of the near-by towns and cities; that is, when a drug store needs a man for fill-in work for any short time, he is ready for the job. Mr. Thomas is really attached to the old homestead occupied so long and honorably by his parents, and wants their friends and his own friends to call upon him there.

We failed to note that Dr. and Mrs. Farthing were up from Wilmington for the funeral of Mr. J. L. Griffin.

Mr. W. N. Dixon writes that Rev. N. H. Shepherd of Wake Forest will preach at Carolina School house, Cumnock, RFD 2, at 2:30 on the afternoon of the fifth Sunday (next Sunday) and that everybody is invited to hear him.

The engagement of Miss Alma Dark, of Roseboro, to Rev. Charles Howard of Wake Forest, president of the State Baptist Young People's Union, has been announced. Miss Dark, who is a senior at Meredith College, is a daughter of a former citizen of this county.

Miss Camilla Powell, who has been with the Cotton Cooperative Association at Raleigh for the past few months, has accepted a position as stenographer with the Hoover Chair Company of Lexington.

We have received an account of a delightful party given by Miss Rosa Lillian Avent on the Falls-Neuse road Nov. 17.

The Children of the Confederacy will meet with Miss Maggie Horne Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Hill of Kingston will spend Thanksgiving here with his sister Mrs. W. L. Powell, with whom his mother is spending the winter to avoid being alone in her old home.

Mr. C. S. Copeland, one of the seven brothers on our list, who lives at Cary, was over Monday and carried up his date.

Mr. W. L. Farrell, who served as acting cashier of the Bank of Pittsboro during the illness of Mr. J. L. Griffin, has been officially promoted to the cashiership. Mr. Thomas Morgan has been made assistant cashier. Both these young men deserve the promotion that has come to them.

We suspect that a quite a number of old students attending the reunion at Siler City failed to register. For instance, we did not see the name of Mr. C. A. Snipes on the list published by the Siler City News, from which we copied the list appearing in this paper. And we seem to have omitted the names of Geo. F. Crutchfield, of Efland, and J. K. Clark, Hampton, Va.

Mrs. L. H. Saunders was very ill for several days with pleurisy.

Rev. Sidney Womack, colored, who has been pastor of Stanton's Temple A. M. E. church, here, has been sent to Union Mills, where he is to serve two churches and hopes for better grazing. Rev. B. E. Golfin comes from Bethel to take his place. Rev. Womack has been a good citizen while here.

Jonesboro ceases to be a regular station on the old Yadkin Valley R. R., and Corinth on the Norfolk Southern loses its express office.

Report reached Pittsboro Wednesday of last week to the effect that two men had been killed and one injured when an army truck collided with a tobacco truck at Sanford, but fortunately none was killed but Mr. Lawrence Brady of High Falls was seriously injured and his father and Mr. H. R. Phillips, of Bonlee, were also injured. They were cared for at Scott's Hospital, Sanford, and the latter two were reported later in the week as recovering from their injuries. There were hopes for the recovery of Lawrence Brady.

George Hollis Tally, a son of the late W. J. Tally, committed suicide in Winston-Salem Monday of last week, and the body was brought to Bonlee for burial. The Record has never learned the particulars of the tragedy.

MRS. MARGARET BURNETT CELEBRATES 85TH BIRTHDAY

On November 22 the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, other relatives, neighbors, and friends of Mrs. Margaret Burnett met at her home to celebrate her 85th birthday.

Mrs. Burnett is the second daughter of the late Mark Bynum and Mary Clegg Bynum. Of the large family, only Mrs. Burnett and one sister survive, Mrs. Adolphus Burns, now of Goldsboro. Mrs. Burnett was married Dec. 16, 1867 to Mr. John M. Burnett, deceased. Three children survive, namely, Mrs. G. C. children survive, namely, Mrs. G. G. Ward, and R. B. and John F. Burnett. There are eleven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Early in the morning friends and relatives began to gather in the beautiful grove with its tinted coats of autumn leaves, bringing many well-filled baskets, also many pretty and useful gifts, which were highly appreciated by the recipient.

At one o'clock a long table was heavily laden with many good things to eat. Two large birthday cakes, beaming with 85 tiny candles, graced the table. Her pastor, Rev. R. R. Gordon, paid a beautiful tribute to Mrs. Burnett's life, speaking of her as a woman of rare ability and of unusual knowledge of the Bible, of her keen interest in her friends, her wholesome, uplifting conversation. She is remarkably strong, physically, intellectually, and spiritually, being well read and of a mind capable of interpreting and applying what she reads.

Mr. W. B. Cheek, a nephew by marriage, made a few but very fitting remarks. Then followed a toast by Mrs. Jeter J. Hackney, which space forbids printing here, though it was so very appropriate. Immediately after dinner Miss Flossie Cole of Raleigh led in singing old favorite hymns. Soon after dinner pictures were made, the most striking being that of the four generations including Mrs. Burnett, her daughter Mrs. Ward, and her daughter Mrs. J. C. Cranford, and her son Ward Cranford. It was a great day and suggestive of the great reunion above that will not have to end. We all wish Mrs. Burnett many more birthdays.

Brown's Chapel News

About half the money needed to pay for the new piano was raised Sunday. Those who desire to contribute to the fund may pay Mr. Junius Durham.

Milk is to be cut ten cents on the gallon in Durham, we are told, and this is serious for our dairymen.

Mr. Kiah Henderson, of Raleigh, Mr. Wm. Mann and friends of Durham, and Mr. John Durham and friends from Burlington spent some time here last week at their o.d. homes and in hunting.

Mr. J. F. Bouldin sold a load of 1718 pounds of tobacco last week at the Tilley warehouse, Sanford, at an average of 23 cents, but getting as high as fifty cents for some.

Only $38.50 remains unpaid on our pastor's salary. We understand that this is not his only church in arrears. A cut in the pastor's salary is expected for next year, regardless of who the pastor may be. The rest of us are having to cut expenses and the preacher will probably have to do the same. Yet a dollar is worth more now to the salaried man than formerly.

Mr. J. R. Goodwin attended the funeral of his cousin Dr. Trailkill at Ebenezer church Sunday.

Mrs. A. P. Dark attended a birthday dinner in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ed. Williams, over in Baldwin's township Sunday.

Mr. Oby Thomas and family, of Burlington, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Duham.

The game law permits hunting now, but we folk who have leased hunting rights are out of the hunting business.

Man Run Over and Killed Thursday

Arthur M. McCollum, white man about 45 years old, of Burlington, was run over Thursday night while walking on the highway between here and Rockingham. It is understood he had started out for Red Springs. W. D. Brown, of Whiteville, who hit Mr. Brown, was meeting a car and was blinded by the approaching car's lights. After investigation, Mr. Brown was exonerated from blame.

Charlie McCollum, brother of the dead man, came here and made funeral arrangements. The deceased was divorced and left no children.

Unknown White Man Killed Near Maxton

An automobile, driven by Henry Fairly, Charlotte man, struck and killed an unidentified white man, apparently about 55 years old, Friday night near Maxton.

Mr. Fairly was absolved of blame at a coroner's inquest.

According to the driver, the unknown man ran up to his car as though to jump on the running board. Fairly said he could not avoid striking him. The body was carried to an undertaking establishment at Laurinburg.

Mr. Fairly was originally from Rockingham, having been in Charlotte for the past few years.
