

Goldston

Thursday afternoon Mrs. H. M. Phillips, with Mrs. E. M. Harris as joint hostess, charmingly entertained the Goldston book club, with two additional guests Mrs. L. B. Hester and Mrs. F. C. Olive.

The spacious living room was decorated in Christmas greens and bright colors indicative of the coming season. A tiny tree stood in the center of the room under which was placed a number of gifts.

The president, Mrs. P. O. Barber, occupied the chair and the meeting was opened by the Lord's prayer. The program for this occasion was rendered by Mrs. T. Percy Murchison and Mrs. J. B. Goldston. The subject was, "Yule-tide in different lands". Mrs. Murchison gave "Italy, France and America," and Mrs. Goldston gave "Spain, Germany and Scandinavia", explaining various things that were especially interesting. After the business session a bird contest was held, Mrs. A. B. Womble winning the prize, a green glass measuring cup. Next, little Miss Mary Lois Harris, dressed as Santa Claus, entered the room and delivered the gifts, assisted by her little school mate, Miss Elizabeth Phillips. Honor gifts were given Mrs. Olive and Mrs. Hester. For the most attractive gift Mrs. Henry Burke won a lovely fruit bowl of black glass.

The Phoslesses served a delicious chicken course and coffee with fruit cake and whipped cream.

Miss Bessie Reynolds, who is teaching at High Falls, recently visited her sister here Mrs. J. J. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. James Iddings of Greensboro were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dixon.

Mrs. J. B. Goldston and children spent last week-end with relatives in Cary.

Rev. M. S. McLamb and family moved into the parsonage last Wednesday. He preached his first sermon Sunday morning in the Methodist church at 11 o'clock.

The Parent-Teachers association met Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the town hall, with a good attendance. The meeting was opened by two very interesting plays, "The Story of Our Flag" given by the first grade, directed by Miss Annie Vann and "Armistice Day", given by the seventh grade, directed by Miss Margerette Barber. The devotional was conducted by M. L. Hough, and was followed by a business session. Prof. W. F. Veasey gave an interesting report on library inspection and amount on hand to secure the list of books to complete a standard elementary library. The Parent-Teachers association donated $50 and the state and county each supplemented the same amount. Cabinets have been placed in each room, which are very helpful to the teachers. Miss Annie Vann gave her report on school ground equipment and shubery. Some shubery has already been planted on the grounds and much more is promised. It has been suggested that most of the trees be removed from the school grounds in order that they may level the grounds so base ball and other games may be played.

A delightful meeting of the Tuesday afternoon club was held in the lovely home of Mrs. James H. Alexander Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Valley Goldston as joint hostess. Beautiful decorations were used in the home which suggested the Christmas season. Games and contests appropriate to Christmas were played and prizes were given.

In the late afternoon the hostesses served an elegant salad course with accessories.

WHEN IS A BUSINESS MAN?

(From The Hamlet News-Messenger)

For a good many hundred years the world went along believing that all it took to make a business man was a man "in business" who simply stayed in his store, shop or office waiting for patronage. Today, the man who does that is only partly a business man.

A business man of today must know about and participate in many things other than his own business.

A business man must get out and do things; become familiar with what is going on; take a sympathetic viewpoint with what others are trying to do.

A business man must be on the alert for every influence, favorable or unfavorable, that may effect his business.

A business man must be not only efficient in his own line, but more or less of a business councillor for his community, and an advocate for all good movements in it.

A business man is a man who looks after the business of making a bigger and better community as well as a bigger and better business.

His business will be only as his community is good for his business, and as his business is good for the community.

The destinies of both community and individual business are similar. In many ways, one depends upon the other.

Business has made America prosperous. Business will now have to contribute its share toward the enjoyment of prosperity.

Our idea of being the world's richest individual is to have all of the money that advertising makes for the advertiser over and above its costs.

Good citizenship is a self-imposed sentence for life at hard labor for one's community.

And speaking of hard times, if you want to find out whether the depression is economic or political wait until you hear the Democratic orators in the 1932 campaign.

Only 82 days until the Christmas necktie wears out.

Yours very truly,
C. C. POE, Tax Collector.

This November 25th, 1930.

Certain classes of business will run themselves after a fair start. Not so with a town. It will go along as its citizens would have it and as they make it go.

Just Like An Ostrich

A medical authority says that a person who tries to cover up skin blemishes and pimples with toilet creams and powders is just as foolish as an ostrich that buries its head in the sand to avoid danger. Skin eruptions are nature's warnings that conditions are throwing poisons into your blood stream and weakening your whole constitution. Remove the constipated condition and you will strengthen your system against disease and clear up your disfigured skin. The best way to do this is with a course of Herbina, the vegetable medicine that acts naturally and easily, which you can get at Pittsboro Drug Co. Adv.
